FATAL INJURY TO JOHN COX

THROWN FROM A RIG AND HIS BACK BROKEN

While Driving a Colt at Camas Creek He was Thrown Onto a Log—Cannot possibly Live More Than a Week

Word was received from Ukiah yesterday to the effect that John Cox, of that place, and well known here, had his back broken at Camas Creek grade near the mouth of Gable Creek yesterday morning by being thrown out of a rig.

Mr. Cox was driving a colt and as he was on the grade the animal became frightened and ran off the embankment, throwing Mr. Cox on his back across a log, the fall breaking his back. Ollie Reeves who was in the vehicle at the time was also thrown out but was uninjured.

An attempt was made to bring the injured man to Pendleton but when Alba was reached it was found necessary to stop. R. T. Cox, a brother, came up from Portland this morning and started out to the scene of the accident. Late this afternoon a telephone message was received from Mr. Cox saying that his brother was injured in the dorsal region and is paralyzed from the heart down. He cannot possibly live over a week, is the verdict of the doctors. N. Berkeley and Dr. Cole accompanied Mr. Cox to Alba and they are now on the road to Pendleton with the injured man, expecting to reach here some time this evening.

A brother living at Alamo, Baker County, and a sister at Washington, D. C. have been telegraphed regarding their brother's fatal injury.

Little Mothers in Japan.

Although the empire of Japan is said to be a "paradise of children," where they are allowed to do very much as they please and where they seldom if ever cry, their life is not all play. The little boys and girls have their work to do, but in many skillful ways they turn work into play. Take, for instance, the little girls who have baby sisters or brothers to care for. They tuck the youngsters into their queer garments and go on with their games of ball. If the baby grows tired and begins to fret, the "little mother" jounces it up and down over her shoulder with a peculiar humping motion of her back without stopping the game. All the time she sings some pretty song.

A Good Defense.

There was once a club formed of lazy men. Fines were inflicted on those who ever forgot themselves so far as to do anything in haste. One day several members saw an old doctor who was renowned for his laziness drive past the door of the club at a furious rate, and loudly they chuckled at the thought of fining him. But on applying to him on the ground of his having been in such a hurry the doctor slowly replied, "No, I wasn't in a hurry, but my mare wanted to go fast, and I was too lazy to stop her."

Grand Game in Alaska.

Alaska contains the grandest hunting grounds in North America. They are inhabited by the giant moose, the largest antlered animal on the earth; the Kodiak brown bear, largest of all flesh eating land animals, and the mountain caribou, largest and finest of its genus. The snow white mountain sheep is there, the mountain goat, black and yellow bears galore, and the rare, new glacier bear, as yet never seen in captivity and in only one museum.—Recreation.

Making It Important.

A lecturer in Cork once began an address by remarking very solemnly, "Parents, you may have children, or if not your daughter may have," and concluded with, "There is no man, woman or child in this audience who has arrived at the age of fifty years but that has felt these mighty truths thundering through their minds for centuries."

LEAGUE IS FORMED

WILL BE CALLED INLAND EMPIRE LEAGUE

Brown's Colts Beat Ziegler's Wonders at Alta Grounds Sunday Afternoon and Alexander's Wonders Beat Woolen Men in Morning.

Saturday evening the much talked of Eastern Oregon league was formally organized for the fall season. At the meeting there were present the managers of the Baker City, La-Grande, Pendleton, Walla Walla, Wash., and Dayton, Wash., baseball teams, and all but the latter team are included in the organization.

Dayton is not in the league, although willing to go in, as it was thought better to keep the membership of the teams at an even number and the Dayton team will be taken in if it can find some other suitable team to make the sixth member.

After thorough discussion of the proposition and the rules necessary for the government of the proposed league the following agreement was finally reached:

"First—Any player signing or agreeing to or playing with any team of a party to this agreement shall be disqualified from playing on any other team, without the written consent of the team with which the player was first connected.

"Second—Each party shall pay and be responsible for its own players.

"Third—General admission shall be 25 cents, children over 8 and under 15 shall be admitted for 10 cents. Admission to the grand stand must not be less than 15 cents.

"At the conclusion of each championship game, the home club shall deliver to the manager or agent of the visiting club a statement of the gate receipts for said game, which must include all general admissions, and shall pay to the visiting club 45 per cent of the said receipts, and all legal holidays the gate and grandstand receipts shall be divided equally between the home and visiting clubs.

"Fourth—Two umpires shall be secured on the best terms possible, each club to pay one fourth of total expense.

"Fifth—There shall be selected on or before July 10th, 1902, a president to whom all questions where there is a tie vote upon any matter shall be submitted.

"Sixth—No club to issue to exceed 15 passes to any one game.

"Seventh—Each club shall deposit with the president, to be forfeited in case the club fails to play out the schedule a certified check for the sum of $250, payable to the order of the president by name, to be returned if schedule is played out or abandoned by consent of all clubs. This check shall be deposited on or before July 15th, 1902.

"Eighth—The league shall be known as the "Inland Empire League."

"Ninth—That if Dayton with some other suitable club each deposit the sum of $250 with the president of the league, this shall become a six-club league.

As it was quite late when the above agreement was reached and the managers of the La Grande and Baker City teams wished to return home on Sunday, the matter of arranging a schedule of games for the new league was left to the captains of the various teams.
