BALTIMORE AND OHIO.
One Hundred and Seventy-Nine Battles Fought on or Adjacent to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.
 (The Baltimore & Ohio railroad and the Civil War, 1861-1865.) It was the most desirable point of vantage coveted by both federal and confederate armies. In May, 1861, the four federal advance columns concentrated at Parkersburg, W. Va., Wheeling, W. Va., Harper's Ferry, W. Va., and at Washington. To retain the advantage, the federal government established block houses along the railroad from the Monocacy to the Ohio river, besides the forts at Winchester, Harper's Ferry, Cumberland, Piedmont and Jew Creek (Keyser). The B. & O. was the base of operations for the federal army for nearly four years and from which the government could not take advance line earlier than November, 1864. The B. & O. was the means of communication between the west and the army of the Potomac, and was constantly in a continual state of siege. Harper's Ferry, the key to the Shenandoah valley, first famed through the fanatical attempt of John Brown, in defying the laws and customs of his country, was captured and re-captured eight times in three years. The government arsenal and armories which were located there were destroyed by the government to prevent capture. One hundred and seventy-nine battles of greater or less importance were fought on or adjacent to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, not taking into consideration the innumerable skirmishes.
 All through trans from St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Chicago, Columbus, Cleveland, Wheeling and Pittsburg to the east run via Washington. Send stamp for battlefield map. D. B. Martin, Manager Passenger Traffic, Baltimore, Md.; B. N. Austin, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, Ill.
Don't Use Too Many Words.
 Multiplication of words increases the expense and decreases the effectiveness of advertising. Say what you have to say in as few words as it can be said—then stop. By so doing you can set what you want to say in larger type, so that it will command the attention of more readers than would a wordy discourse set in small type.
 At bedtime I take a pleasant herb drink, the next morning I feel bright and my complexion is better. My doctor says that it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys and is a pleasant laxative. It is made from herbs, and is prepared as easily as tea. It is called Lane's Medicine. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. Price 25c and 50c. For sale by Tallman & Co., sole agents.
