An Eloquent Alderman.

Here's a rhetorical gem. It emanates from the caranium of the one and only Alderman Briggs, Brooklyn's most unique possession: "I see motormen standin' onto a platform of a car with one hand on the brake and one hand on the electricity, and I see that them there hands was frozing so that if a woman of a children had been on the track he would have been killed, because the motorman's hands was frozing..."

IT WAS A FARCE
