BALTIMORE AND OHIO.

One Hundred and Seventy-Nine Battles Fought on or Adjacent to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

(The Baltimore & Ohio railroad and the Civil War, 1861-1865.) It was the most desirable point of vantage coveted by both federal and confederate armies. In May, 1861, the four federal advance columns concentrated at Parkersburg, W. Va., Wheeling, W. Va., Harper's Ferry, W. Va., and at Washington. To retain the advantage, the federal government established block houses along the railroad from the Monocacy to the Ohio river, besides the forts at Winchester, Harper's Ferry, Cumberland, Piedmont and New Creek (Keyser).

The B. & O. was the base of operations for the federal army for nearly four years and from which the government could not take advance line earlier than November, 1864. The B.
& O. was the means of communication between the west and the army of the Potomac, and was constantly in a continual state of siege. Harper's Ferry, the key to the Shenandoah valley, first famed through the fanatical attempt of John Brown, in defying the laws and customs of his country, was captured and re-captured eight times in three years. The government arsenal and armories which were located there were destroyed by the government to prevent capture. One hundred and seventy-nine battles of greater or less importance were fought on or adjacent to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, not taking into consideration the innumerable skirmishes.
All through trans from St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Chicago, Columbus, Cleveland, Wheeling and Pittsburg to the east run via Washington. Send stamp for battlefield map. D. B. Martin, Manager Passenger Traffic, Baltimore, Md.; B. N.
Austin, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, Ill.

BOISE AND PENDLETON.

Boise, Idaho, is a city of about 8,000 people, and for the last year, the city has spent for printing and advertising $1,265.42. Within the same time Pendleton, a city of about 6,000 people, has spent not more than $100 for the same needs, and doubtless Pendleton has received as strong support from the local newspapers as has Boise.

Pendleton's affairs, those pertaining to its finances, improvements of its streets, ordinances, etc., should have more publicity than is given them at the present time. A statement of the city's finances should be given publicly as often as four times a year, so that the citizens and taxpayers may have some idea as to how the city business is being conducted. If this were done and done well, more interest would be taken in Pendleton's city government than at present.
So should frequent publicity be given to the financial conditions of the city water works, so that the people of Pendleton may be officially informed in this connection.

To do so would certainly create a better feeling and more confidence in the excellent management of the works, by the commission of business men having them in charge.

Effective Advertising.

Most effective is the most effective which attracts the eye and appeals to the brain. Strong adjectives may be as much out of taste as an aspiring literature. Exaggeration is always to be avoided. People now-days demand sincerity in all matters of business. It is observable that all the big and successful advertisers are most careful as to their statements of fact. They realize that confidence is the key-stone in the arch of trade.
Their success came of their jealous regard for their work.

WEATHER FOR A WEEK.

More Ran Fell Than Before in Years in the Same Month.

nesday, 78; Thursday, 64; Friday, 70; girl, died Saturday morning in Spokane, and was buried Sunday after-
