CONGRESSMAN MOODY TELLS HOW BILL WAS SIGNED.

Up Until Thirty Minutes Before Adjournment-Secretary Hitchcock

District Attorney T. G. Halley has received the following letter from Congressman Moody, relating to the hard fight he had in getting the Reservation bill signed by the president: "I am certain that any one less constant in his efforts would have failed. I discovered a stumbling block in the secretary of the interior who opposed the bill after it passed the senate. I undertook to satisfy hm that the legislation was wise and just, not only to the Indians but to the citizens of adjoining counties as well as the county government, and supposed that I had succeeded until about 330 minutes before adjournment, when I found that the secretary of the interor had advised the president not to sign the bill.

"Fortunately the cabinet was with the president in his room in the rear of the senate where he comes at the close of the senate to sign bills at the last moment.

"Secretary Cortelyou, out of his abundance of precaution, had brought the bill with am and with tears in my eyes I pleaded with the secretary of the interior until he finally consented to withdraw his objection and asked the president to sign the bill."

SCRAP IN STATUS QUO.

Odd Fellows Held Joint Installation at Walla Walla-Survey for Water Power for Electric Line.

Walla Walla, July 9.-No new developments have become public in the controversy between Marshal Kauffman and Police Justice Glassford. It was threatened that proceedings would be begun at the council meeting last night, whereby Glassford was to be removed as justice of t'e police court. Upon reflection by Kauffman and his friends it seems to have been determined to let a bad matter alone, and nothing was done. The council met, but not a word was said relative to the case. The whole matter has disgusted people and it will have the effect of decreasing the vote received by Kauffman next Monday, when he hopes to be re-elected Joint Installation.
