HOME COUNTY NEWS

WESTON AND VICINITY.

Progress of Events as Recorded by the Weston Leader.

Frank Pattison, who is among the busy men manipulating mud at the Weston brick yard, went out after the record Tuesday for a day's output per molder, and broke it. He molded individually the remarkable number of 8634 brick, beating the previous record of something over 8500 held by Van Slyke and himself, molding and tempering alternately. This has been an extra good season for molders, each of them averaging over 6000 daily.

W. H. Benefiel is building a sidewalk in front of his residence property at the foot of Main street hill, and intends soon to add a porch to his dwelling.

Bert Graves and J. P. Lieualien dined on choice bear meat recently at Mr. Graves' cattle camp on the Umatilla river. While they were out hunting cattle Mr. Graves killed a brown bear so large and corpulent that the two men found difficulty in lifting its carcass upon a horse.

Weston's population has been augmented by the arrival of the families of Lee Cauthorn and F. M. Bryant from Richhill, Missouri. They will make their homes here permanently. Mr. Cauthorn and Mr. Bryant were landed here some months ago by the immigration wave, and have since been employed at the brick yard.

H. Wray, of the firm of Harris & Wray conducting the Pendleton Marble Works, have been in town for a day or two, setting up monuments in Weston. The grave of the late Mrs. J. W. Young was marked by a granite monument, that of Hiram Henry by a marble tablet, and that of William Brown and wife by a shaft of blue marble. All are handsome stones. Mr. Wray will be here again in about a month to erect a monument above the grave of Capt. Thos. Purcell.

Weston is to have three saloons meaning a city revenue from this source of $2400 a year if all remain in business. Carpenters and decorators are fitting up the interior of the Young Brick block on Main street, which will be occupied by Charles H. Walters, late of Spokane. M. Walters is an affable heavyweight, and is said to be a business man of experience and enterprise. He is one of a somewhat noted Spokane family of five brothers whose combined weight is 1300 pounds.

News of Athena.

Athena Press: Owen Rutledge will be appointed nightwatch for Athena.

The Wells-Hawes case was settled Monday without again coming to trial by Mr. Hawes paying the $100 claimed by Wells, and paying costs of the previous suit.

The Yellow Kids have disbanded for the season. Some go into the league teams and others will remain hime. Shea, Rollo Brown and Black have joined the La Grande team; Willard goes to Baker City and Cox to Pendleton.

W. B. Banks, brother of Mrs. Dickenson, died at Camas Prairie on the 6th inst., of heart trouble. He is known to all old settlers here. He leaves besides a large circle of friends, his aged parents, seven brothers and four sisters.

Old Man Stringer, well known to old settlers in this part of the county as a butcher and cattle buyer, of Walla Walla in an early day, was in town Monday. The hand of time has made lines on the old fellow's face, but he spry and jovial yet.

Mrs. A. D. Pambrun died Wednesday at her home south of town. She had been ill for about three months, death resulting from old age. She was nearly 78 years of age, having been born in Minnesota, August 28, 1824. After her marriage she came with her husband to Wallula, in 1852.

CROPS ARE GOOD.

Predicted That Yield This Year Will Be Exceptionally Heavy.

A. B. Stanley, formerly of this county, but now of Hardman, 2 miles south of Heppner, where he is manager for the Hardman Mercantile Co., left this morning for his home after spending a few weeks here and at Portland on business.

Mr. Stanley was formerly a well-known farmer and stock man of Echo where he live for the last 20 years until last winter. He was a breeder of fine stock, especially short horn cattle, and this trip was made to deliver a car load of short horns to National Inspector Johnson, of the Valley, who received them the 2d inst. After delivering the cattle, Mr. Stanley went to Portland on business and and to Umatilla county in 1882. Mrs. Pambrun was the mother of 12 children, five of whom survive her. The funeral will take place from the M. E. church today at 11:30.

All About Adams.

Adams Advance: Dr. Stone is rustivating at Bingham Springs this week.

Smith Alloway, who resides below Pendleton, transacted business in Adams the first of the week.

Archie McKinnon, of Little Grease-wood, was in the city Saturday and was jubilant over the wheat prospects in that section.

Frank Miller, foreman for Charles Hamilton, was in the city Tuesday and said the crop prospects were never better in this section.

A correspondent who has just returned from Cold Springs reports the crops looking well in that section. Although most of the grain is not yet ready to harvest, one steam outfit was seen at work on the early grain. Harvesting on Cox wheat commenced at Middle Cold Spring on June 19, but he failed to learn the prospects in that neighborhood.

M. A. Ferguson last Sunday in company with Frank Bentley went to the river on a fishing trip, but to date no big fish stories are told. However, M. A. was taught a lesson which he shall always remember, and that is: That small boys should not monkey with firearms. Mr. Ferguson took his 22-calibre rifle with him, and seeing a hole in a rock he fired with the intention of lodging the bullet in the hole, but he didn't. Instead, the bullet after hitting the rock returned in two pieces and hit him, one piece tearing a gash in his right leg and the other in the stomach, the latter only causing him to lose his breath for a moment. He will not shoot at rocks any more.

returned Thursday to Echo. Yesterday he came to Pendleton by team and in speaking of the crop prospects to an East Oregonian reporter said:

"I have lived in this county for 20 years and never saw better prospects for crops than are seen everywhere. I tell you it is simply immense. It would do anybody good to take a trip out through the wheat fields and see the grain. I think I am safe in saying the present crop is at least 15 per cent heavier than ever before since the settlement of the country. I mean will make 15 per cent more to the acre than ever in the history of farming here."

He added that harvesting had begun in the western part of the county.
