HOME COUNTY NEWS

WESTON DOINGS.

Happenings of the Day in That Busy Little Community.

Weston, July 16.—The wind storm of Monday evening, which did so much damage to some of our neighboring towns, was more merciful to this vicinity. The farmers report that the wheat did not suffer at all, and consequently they are rejoicing. In fact, all the damage that has come to light so far, consists of a few panes of glass broken in the normal school building, and the destruction of a few small shade trees.

Weston is to have a fountain in the near future. It will stand in the center of the street at the corner of Main and Franklin streets, and will cost about $400. The water will be piped from the Moorehouse spring on the outskirts of town and will have a fall of 23 feet. When completed it will add greatly to the attractiveness of part of town, and also to the convenience of teamsters and the public in general.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gerberding are spending the week in Portland, where Mrs. Gerberding is attending the sessions of the grand lodge of the Degree of Honor, which is being held at that point this week.

Miss Ella Johnson, of Walla Walla is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jamison this week.

J. F. Kilgore is attending the sessions of the grand lodge of the A. O. U. W., being held in Portland this week.

Some hay has been cut in this vicinity during the last few days, but the real work of haying has hardly begun yet, the harvest in this vicinity will be a little late this year, owing to the unusually cool summer but the yield will be larger than that of last year.

BEET PULLERS VS. INDIANS

A BATTLE ROYAL AT THE BALL GROUNDS TODAY.

Leaders of the Inland Empire League Play First Games Together in This City.

At the Alta street baseball grounds today terrible slaughter is being done. Eighteen gladiators representing the diamond honor of Pendleton and La Grande are mixed in deadly conflict and the shouts of battle are wafted to the center of the city upon the winds of the gentle chinook as it wanders down Main street to mingle with the fringe of the reservation belles' blanket and sift through the whiskers of the newly-arrived farmer from the wilds of Kansas.

The Beet Pullers of the Grande Ronde city arrived in town last night and are today endeavoring to clear the grass off the local baseball field with the flowing locks of Pendleton's brave Indians, while the latter are striving as earnestly to reciprocate in kind by carefully removing the scalp locks of their visitors.

Deep interest is felt in the battle, as it is the first game of the new league series to be played in this city, and a large crowd of fans and baseball enthusiasts, including many of the fair sex, is in attendance.

The same teams will play tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday.

Following is the line-up:
Pendleton—Brown, 3b; Fay, ss; Stovall, 1b; Schmidt, 2b; Cox, cf; Wilner, p; Hays, rf; Penland, lf; Rhea, c.

La Grande—Crawford, 2b; Adams, ss; Menefee, 1b; Black, 2b; Shea, c; Carner, lf; Ray, cf; Brockler, rf; McBirney, p.

Line Hits.

Lou Mahaffey, first baseman for Baker City, has been made captain of that club.

The Colfax, Wash., baseball team has disbanded, Dayton taking the best of her players.

Williams, better known as "Kid," outfielder for Walla Walla, has been given his walking papers. He was too slow.

Leon Cohen, manager of the Pendleton Indians, went to Walla Walla this morning to attend a meeting of the managers of the Inland Empire League clubs.

The Baker City Gold Diggers arrived in the city last night and went up today to Walla Walla, where they will play the Sharpshooters today, tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday.

Ferris, second baseman and short-stop, Bluth, fielder, and Thomas, pitcher, from the lately defunct Ogden team of more than local fame, are the latest additions to the Baker City team.

Manager Dugdale, of Seattle, held an interesting conversation over the phone with Captain Brown, of the Indians, the subject matter being the attempt of the local team to secure the services of Jess Stovall, Seattle's strong pitcher. Dugdale talked warmly of the proposition, saying, among other things, that "they had dollars over there (Seattle) where we had dimes over here, and that if we didn't look out they would put our little 10-cent league out of business."

BACK FROM THE BEACH.

Merry Crowd of Young Folks Returns Home From Sea Shore.

The crowd of young men who spent the past three weeks at Clatsop Beach, have returned home, accompanied by Rev. W. E. Potwine, who went along with the boys as chaperone. The boys say they had one of the most enjoyable times of their lives and were sorry to break camp and start for home.

Most of the time was spent in bowling, boat-riding, bathing and digging claims. A trip was taken to Astoria and to take it all in all, the boys enjoyed life immensely.

Those in the crowd were Harold J. Warner, Willard Bond, Clarence Bolleman, Ralph Bolleman, William Bollins, Andrew Bollins, Raymond Warner and Fred Kees. All returned except the last named, who stopped in Portland for a few days' visit with friends.

If a Man Lie to You.

And say some other salve, ointment, lotion, oil or alleged healer is as good as Bucklin's Arnica Salve, tell him thirty years of marvelous cures of Piles, Burns, Bolls, Corns, Felons, Ulcers, Cuts, Scalds, Bruises and Skin Eruptions prove it's the best and cheapest. 25c at Tallman & Co., drug store.
