FREEWATER MENTION.

Happenings in That Warm Little Burg and Vicinity.

Freewater, July 19—The high winds of Monday did little damage to the grain in this section. Fruit was blown off to a great extent, but the general opinion is that the amount blown off will only help to improve the quality of what is left and will be an advantage to fruit raisers instead of a detriment. There would have been an immense crop had the wind not come. In fact, the trees were too heavily laden and would have had to be picked to get good results. Blackberries were blown off pretty badly. The worst damage done here was the blowing down of shade trees. A walnut tree, 30 years old, standing on John Young's place, just west of the depot, was blown to the ground and as a consequence there has been mourning in the Young family. Mr. Young said he would not have lost this tree for any price could he have helped it. It was set out by "Billy" Crow, and has stood as a towering monument to him ever since.

Freewater people are feeling good over the prospect of the good things going to be derived from the electric railway proposed to go through the town. Since the franchise was granted for this road town property has advanced from 50 to 100 per cent and the town is beginning to put on metropolitan airs. The building of this road will be a great advantage to the fruit shippers. They will be able to send their products away as fast as they are ready and will not have to hold them over from morning until night to catch a train. One thing the town now needs worse than anything else is the putting in of a good furniture and hardware store. The town has a good building recently erected, and is simply waiting for someone with a few hundred dollars to invest. A good hardware establishment and furniture store combined would be a money-making investment here.

A SHUT-OUT GAME

INDIANS AGAIN DID STUNTS WITH THE ENEMY.

Took Scalps Right and Left and
Would Not Allow the Beet Pullers
Even One Poor, Lonely Little Run.

Standing of the Clubs.

	Won.	Lost.	P. C.
Pendleton	5	1	.833
La Grande	3	3	.500
Baker City	3	3	.500
Walla Walla	1	5	.167

Another row of La Grande scalps dangled at the Indians' trophy belts when the agony was finally ended by limitation yesterday the locals mopping the ground with their visitors to the tune of 4 to 0. This making the third shut-out game for the Indians this season out of only six games played.

"Bobbie" Wilner had on an extra amount of war paint yesterday, and smeared it all over the visitors with regularity and uncton. But three times did the little sphere reach the field for safe hits, and two of these might have been cut off by close, sharp fielding, while no less than 11 of the beet reapers were successful in landing three times on the place where "Our Bob" didn't throw the ball.

The game throughout was fast and interesting and the spectators were generous with applause for the many brilliant plays which were made. The home team supported Wilner in a manner which could not fail to give him every encouragement. Brown led off with a fly to Ray in center field. Fay was out by a fly to Adams. Stovall and Schmidt each got singles and Cox retired the side by a grounder to Menefee. In the second Wilner walked and got to second on a fielder's choice, Penland being thrown out at first. Rhea perched on the initial bag on an error of Menefee, Wilner going to third, where he died when Rhea was caught stealing second.

When the Crop Was Ripe.

The third was fruitful for the Indians. Brown singled and reached second on an error of Brookler. Fay hit safe and scored Brown. Stovall smashed a skyscraper to center, but as Mr. Ray's appetite for those kind was good yesterday, he went after it in a hungry sort of way and ate it up but little Fay stole third before the ball could be returned to the diamond. Schmidt was safe on first on fumble of Adams and Fay scored on wild throw of Shea over third. Cox knocked a grounder to Menefee, who beat him to first and Wilner flew out to center field. In the next inning Clark fanned Hays and Penland. Rhea sent one out to center field to appease the hunger of Mr. Ray.

Pulled a Few Beets Themselves.

Pendleton picked a couple more beets in the fifth. Fay got a single, but went to second when Ray fumbled the ball. Stovall was caught out by fouling to Shea. Schmidt smashed a line drive over second base and it bounced over Ray's head in center, allowing its author to make the round of the bases, besides scoring Fay. This is the first home run that has been knocked on the grounds this season.

In the sixth Wilner flew out to Black and Hays singled. Penland struck out. Rhea drew a base on balls and Brown sent a stinging line drive to third, but Crawford nabbed it. The next inning finds Fay reaching first on a safe hit, but being forced out at second by Stovall. Schmidt flew out to Castner and Cox forced Stovall off first. In the ninth Wilner and Hays fanned the atmosphere, and Penland got to first on an error of Crawford.
