INTERNATIONAL CHESS.

Big Tournament of the Great Game Now on at Hanover.

Hanover, July 19.—Beginning today and continuing for several weeks to come the eyes of the chess world are to be turned toward this city. The International tournament under the auspices of the German Chess association and the Hanover Chess club commenced this afternoon, when the pairing of the players took place The actual play, however, is not to begin until Monday. Among the American experts in attendance are illsbury, Marshall and Napier, They will test their skill at the game against such well known players of Europe as Blackburne, Mason and Lasker of England, Janowski, of France, Tschigorin and Alapin of Russia, Maroczy, Wolf and Marco of Austria-Hungary, and Tarrasch, Miese

Scheve and Walbrodt of Germany. As is the custom in the German congresses, there will be three or four other events in addition to the principal tournament. Among these the chief feature is the so-called Taupttournee, the winner being declared a master and thus entitled to play in subsequent international master's tournaments, held under the auspices
