A Horseback Dance,

A deaf cynic, unable to hear the music, declared that in no way did human beings make themselves so ridiculous as in dancing. He would have to reform his ideas were he to see the Virginian reel done on horseback in the arena of Buffalo Bill's Wild West by four buxom western girls and their cavaliers. It is a novel and pleasing sight, very rare now, but not so a few years ago. when the frontier people, through force of circumstances, lived in the saddle a good part of their time. And even the horses seem to enjoy it, stepping blithely in time with the music. It will be seen here on Aug-
