Milton Men Have Recently Purchased Eight Section of Land in That Country and Will Plant Wheat.

Tassy Stewart, of Milton, was in the city yesterday evening from his home. He lately returned from the Big Bend country, where he had been in company with other gentlemen of that city to complete the purchase of a large tract of land in the platform, for the resolutions unthe rich country lying in the bend doubtedly will follow closely those of the Columbia.

In company with Henry Frazier, James Elam and N. A. Davis, of Milton, Mr. Stewart bought while in the Big Bend, eight sections of land from price paid being $3 per acre.

The soil there is fine and while the atmosphere is very dry and the country apparently needs irrigation, almost everything grows to perfection after the land is cultivated. In fact the soil is so moist that potatoes often take their second growth before they are dug.

Are Holding Their Convention at St Joseph Today.

St. Joseph, Mo., July 22.—Seven hundred delegates and twice as many visitors filled the Lyceum theater to-day when the democratic state convention was rapped to order by Jas. M. Seibert, chairman of the state committee. Among the visitors were large delegations representing the Jefferson clab of St. Louis, the Jackson club of Kaness City and demo-cratic organizations in other parts of the state. Occupying seats on the stage were Governor Dockery, Sec-retary of State Cook, Hon. William J. Stone and other democrats promi-nent in the councils of the party. Rousing speeches by several of these leaders occupied the opening hours leaders occupied the opening hours ton, D. C.

of the convention. After the usual routine business had been disposed of a recess was taken to permit the committees on nominations, resolutions, etc., to prepare their reports.

Though the nominations to be made are only for minor state offices to be AND COUNTRY GROWING. filled at the fall election, the convention is regarded, nevertheless, as of extraordinary importance. W. B. Carrington will be renominated for state superintendent of public instruction, but there will be a spirited contest for state railroad and warehouse commissioners, active canvases being made by several aspirants. But it is not in the nominations that the interest centers. Nor is it in recently adopted at the Springfield 8.15 a. win convention. The old party leaders have an eye singly on the organization of the new state committee and the selection of a chairman to succeed Mr. Seibert.
