WHERE IS HE AT?

English Relatives of James Montague Want to Locate Him.

Do you know of the whereabouts of James Montague? He served in the ranks of the Second Oregon Volunteers in the late fight in the Philippines and if any one can throw any light upon his whereabouts it will be gratefully received by anxious relatives in London. Mr. Montague, of London, England, is sending letters all over the Northwest trying to locate his son. Young Montague came to Oregon about ten years ago and for several years was employed as porter about different hotels in Portland. It is known that he returned from the Philippines with Co. E. of the Oregon regiment, and since that time was employed as fireman on the O. R. & N. along some of their lines in this state. Then he went to Washington and for a time had headquarters at Starbuck where he was still with the O. R. & N. Co. His relatives have now lost track of the young man and would like to again find him.

CARDINAL GIBBONS' BIRTHDAY.

Great Catholic Celebrates His 68th Birthday.

Baltimore, Md., July 23.—Cardinal Gibbons, who, during the last few weeks, has been called upon to mourn the death of two members of the Roman Catholic hierarchy in America, reached his 68th birthday today. There was no formal celebration of the event, but during the day messages of congratulation poured in at the archiepiscopal residence from archbishops, bishops and prominent members of the clergy from all parts of the country.

Cardinal Gibbons was born in this city July 23, 1834, of Irish parents. During his boyhood he was taken to Ireland, where he received the elements of a liberal education. On returning to the United States, it was determined by his parents to consecrate him to the service of God, and he entered St. Charles College, Maryland, where he graduated with distinction in 1857. Thence he went to St. Mary's Seminary, where, after taking the usual course of theology and philosophy, he was ordained a priest June 6, 1861, by Archbishop Patrick Kenrick. Father Gibbons was at once assigned to duty, and hard duty at that time, in the city of Baltimore, serving first as assistant priest at St. Patrick's Church. Afterward he was sent as pastor to the then humble and struggling parish of St. Bridget's Canton, where he also had to serve old St. Lawrence's Church, at Locust Point, and to cross the Patapsco River to do so in a ferry boat, oftentimes in the stormiest weather. On March 17, 1887, he received the red hat of the cardinalate from Pope Leo XIII.

The cardinal shows few signs of his increasing years. His eye is as bright and his step as quick and elastic as 20 years ago. Every day when the weather permits he walks from five to 10 miles, and takes delight in tiring out the members of his clergy, one of whom always accompanies him on his long tramps through the city and country. Next year the cardinal is to celebrate his silver jubilee and arrangements are already being made to make it the most elaborate event of the kind that has ever been celebrated in this country.

GEER TO DECIDE IT.

Question of Merrill Reward to Be Left to Him.

A Salem dispatch says that after several conferences regarding the payment of the reward offered for the capture of Merrill, the authorities have decided to leave the decision of the question of whether or not Mrs. Waggoner is to receive the full amount of the reward to Governor Geer, who at present is away from the city, but is expected back shortly.

The dispatch says that there is no disposition upon the part of the Oregon authorities to evade any legal or moral obligation regarding the payment of the reward, but it is felt that since Mrs. Waggoner made no search for Merrill's body, and did not, in fact, capture him, she is not entitled to all the reward. The disposition seems to be to pay her what may be reasonable, and to use the remainder of the $1500 either in paying the expenses of the hunt for Merrill or in increasing the reward for Tracy.

The purpose of the offer of reward was to induce people to hunt and capture the fugitives. Since Mrs. payment of the reward, but it is felt she has no right to the reward as such, but should be paid liberally for what she did in returning the body. Opinions differ widely, however, and some contend that she has a legal right to the whole sum.

Captain Lyon, the governor's private secretary, says that the Washington people complain that Oregon is not taking as much interest as it should in the hunt for Tracy. The state has kept but one man, Captain Lyon, in the posse since Tracy appeared in King county. It is probable that Lyon will recommend to Governor Geer that several picked men be sent to take up the chase and continue it until Tracy is caught or his capture becomes very improbable.

DAMAGE BY STORM.

Much Walla Walla County Wheat is Hurt by the Wind.

Farmers who have commenced harvesting have found more evidence of damage done by last Monday's storm than was at first supposed, says the Walla Walla Union. Benjamin Flatters, a prominent farmer of the Prescott neighborhood, stated today that he estimates that his barley and wheat fields have been damaged at least one-third. He did not believe this until he commenced cutting.

Walter Thomas, having land in the same section, also stated the damage to his fields would approximate the same, though it might not be so great. Reports have not been received from other farmers living in that section since they commenced cutting, but it is expected all the fields were more or less damaged by the high wind.

The Eureka Flat country seems to have escaped better than any section of the county. J. C. Scott, manager of William Jones' Walla Walla office made a trip to the flat yesterday and he says the crops are looking alright. The wheat was not shattered by Monday's wind, that is as far as he could learn. He said he had examined several fields and that they looked fine. "Eureka Flat farmers are expecting a good yield this year," he said.

North Dakota Republicans.

Fargo, N. D., July 23.—The republican state convention in session here today is the largest ever held in North Dakota, there being 744 delegates in attendance. The convention will name a full state ticket, to be voted for at the fall election. The renomination of Governor White and Lieutenant Governor Bartlett is assured, leaving only several of the minor places on the ticket to be contested. The resolutions will unequivocally indorse the policy of the Roosevelt administration.

Building Society Men Meet.

Put-in-Bay, O., July 23.—Several hundred millions of dollars—every dollar of it the savings of the thrifty wage workers of the United States—were represented in the assembly hall of the Hotel Victory today, when the 10th annual convention of the United States League of Local Building and Loan Associations was called to order by the national president, George H. Kostmayer, of New Orleans. It is one of the largest conventions in the history of the league. A majority of the delegates are men prominent in the municipal affairs of their respective localities.

While many are heing themselves away to the ocean beaches for their summer vacation many people of Eastern Oregon are going to their own mountains and camping on the pure mountain streams where they alternately sniff in the health-giving breeze and feast on wild game and fish to return home healthy and tanned and ready for another year of vigorous work.

The hoisting of the black flag after executions is to be discontinued in London, England.
