Says His Head is Doing Everything
It Can, and Would Like Some Suggestions.

Editor East Oregonian:—Dear Sir:—Looking through your paper of yesterday, headed "About That Road," "Pendleton Would Like to See Something Done." We would say: We would like to have you advise what else we could do, more than WE ARE DOING AT PRESENT. In the first place, we want to tell you Pendleton can have nothing done until we get the franchise. So far we are surveying the road. The two water sites have been completed and surveyed. The Columbia Engineering Works, of Portland, Or., have a corps of draughtsmen working on our plans, and specifications for the power-house and machinery, etc. All these drawings will be completed in about three weeks. Then actual building of the power-houses will be commenced. The Northwest Construction Company, of Portland, Or., have ordered our rails, and have contracted to build our road.

If this is not good work in two and a half months, having secured all franchises with the exception of Pendleton and Athena, have bought two power sites and have both surveys complete, have contracted for the construction of our road, rails already ordered, corps of draughtsmen working on our plans, engineers in the field surveying the roads and getting th profiles ready, we would ask your worthy paper and the citizens of Pendleton if they could advise us which way we could get faster in our work in building this railroad, as we are doing now.

Awaiting your suggestions, we are,
Yours very truly,
WASHINGTON & OREGON ELECTRIC RAILWAY, LIGHT AND POWER CO.

Pickle Men to Complete Merger.
New York, July 28.—Representatives of the largest pickle and preserve companies in the country are gathering here in anticipation of tomorrow's conference at which the final details are to be completed for the giant merger, which is to be organized under the name of the Association of Manufacturers and Distributors of Food Products. Though the exact figures have not been made public it is expected that the combine will be capitalized at between $30,000,000 and $50,000,000. It will embrace well known firms of Boston, Philadelphia, Rochester, Camden, Allegheny City, Wheeling, New York, Cincinnati and Detroit.

Save a Woman's Life.
To give up would have meant death for Mrs. Lois Cragg, of Dorchester, Mass. For years she had endured untold misery from severe lung trouble and obstinate cough. "Often," she writes, "I could scarcely breathe and sometimes could not speak. All doctors and remedies failed till I used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was completely cured." Sufferers from Coughs, Colds, Throat and Lung Trouble need this grand remedy, for it never disappoints. Cure is guaranteed by Tallman Co. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Youngstown Holds Carnival.
Youngstown, O., July 28.—Carnival week, for which the local serie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles aided by the citizens generally has been preparing for several months past, opened in a blaze of glory today. The public square and down town streets are elaborately decorated and the city is rapidly filling with visitors. The street shows are of a high class and together with the numerous attractions and the large attendance of visitors, the carnival bids fair to eclipse anything of the kind previously seen in this part of the state.
