At bedtime I take a pleasant herb drink, the next morning I feel bright and my complexion is better. My doctor says that it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys and is a pleasant laxative. It is made from herbs, and is prepared as easily as tea. It is called Lane's Medicine. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. Price 25c and 50c. For sale by Tallman & Co., sole agents.

CONFIDENCE IN MR. JACKSON.

Newspapers of Northwest Say He Will Make a Success at Portland.

Following from The Dallas Chronicle, a republican paper in reference to the purchase of the Portland Journal by Mr. Jackson is a sample of what the papers are saying about the transaction all over the Pacific Northwest:

Charles S. Jackson, who for 20 years has been the guiding genius of the East Oregonian at Pendleton, has purchased the Portland Evening Journal the new daily which was launched in the metropolis about six months ago. Mr. Jackson is to take charge of the publication of the Journal immediately, and he will in the meantime continue as publisher of the East Oregonian.

Mr. Jackson is one of the brightest newspaper men on the coast and also a shrewd business man. His enterprise has made the East Oregonian a great paper and one of our most welcomed exchanges. The Journal has fallen into the very best of hands and if any one can make a success of it C. S. Jackson can, and we confidently expect he will.

BROKE HIS WRIST.

Fell Off Ball Ground Fence During Bloomer Performance.

Master Joseph Hallock, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hallock is suffering with a broken wrist. He attended the ball game Monday night between the local team and the Bloomer Girls and had climbed to the top of the fence to get a better view of the game. In climbing down he slipped and fell.

He caught himself with his left hand and one of the large bones in the wrist was broken in two. The young man walked up town alone and was met by some one who took him to Dr. Smith's office where the broken member was set.

ANOTHER HAPPY MAN.

A. F. Zoellner Wedded at Mount Forest, Ontario, Last Week.

Word has reached Pendleton of the marriage of Arthur Frederick Zoellner and Miss Lavina S. Ryan at Mount Forest, Ontario, on the 21st instant. Mr. Zoellner is well known here, having formerly been clerk in the general merchandise store of A. Alexander. He left here three weeks ago for Canada, leaving word that he was going to visit his old home and friends of his youth, but the notice of his marriage shows that he had other business than a visit to relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Zoellner will return to Pendleton to make their home and will be at home to friends after August 20.

PIONEER IS DEAD.

Rev. W. H. Prewett, a Weston Minister, Has Solved the Great Mystery.

Rev. W. H. Prewett, well known all over this country, died at his home in Weston at 9 o'clock this morning. He was a brother of Mrs. J. H. Raley and Mrs. William Whitman, both of this city, and Dr. Prewett, of Oakland, Cal. He will be buried at Weston at 11 o'clock tomorrow.

HORSE PNEUMONIA.

Is Making Its Appearance Near Pendleton at Present.

Dr. Christie the veterinary surgeon, reports several head of horses dying from pneumonia. He says Mal Gillette, an extensive farmer, living a few miles south of town, has lost three head within the past few months, and others have died in the county.

This is a disease which effects the horses during the heated season and is usually fatal after it gets a thorough hold of the animal. There is no known preventative but they can be cured if the case is taken in hand in time.

In spite of the secrecy maintained by the British government as to the latest experiments with the old target-ship Belle Isle, it develops that the result was a decided triumph for the conning tower, which though covered with old compound armor, withstood the attack of 9.2 inch guns. A rat which was imprisoned in the tower in order to ascertain the result of the lyddite fumes and concussion was found to be uninjured. The destructive effect of the lyddite was shown by two torpedo nets rolled up on the sides of the vessel. These nets were utterly ruined by a few shots.

The PEOPLES WAREHOUSE

MEN'S OUTFITTERS.

TO ENLARGE HIS STORE.

Rapid Increase of Business Forces L. G. Frazier to Move to New Quarters.

L. G. Frazier, the progressive proprietor of Frazier's book and stationery store is greatly enlarging his salesroom and making space for a large addition to his already large stock. The partition in the rear of the room has been removed and shelving is being put in the full length of the building.

Mr. Frazier has purchased the book, news stand and stationery business of Tallman & Co. and will move the stock to his present room and the increased space is made necessary to accommodate the purchase, as well as a large stock of late new books which will arrive soon.

The combining of the book, news and stationery department of the Tallman & Co. store, with his present stock, will give Mr. Frazier a store that will be a credit to Pendleton. T. W. Ayres, of Tallman & Co., will leave August 9th for a trip east, where he will select a line of the latest novelties, toys sporting goods, etc., which will occupy the space vacated by the book department. The stock to be added by Tallman & Co. will consist of articles entirely new to Pendleton.

Take advantage of the chance to get bargains at Mrs. Campbell's closing out sale of summer millinery.
