THE LAWNMOWERS' UNION

ORGANIZATION IS HAVING TROUBLE OF ITS OWN.

Claimed That Some Members Joined Under False Pretense—An Unauthorized Strike.

A few days ago a Lawnmowers' Union was formed in Pendleton. It was announced that the object of the union was to promote the interests of the over-worked male population of the city who were compelled by their wives to water, mow and keep the lawn in apple pie order. They declared they were actually compelled to work two or three evenings in each week in order to keep the yard looking trim.

This is what they objected to and the union was formed. Since its organization one week ago every man in the city has been digging among the archives of his home life trying to find proof of his apprenticeship that would admit him to the union.

Some Got in By Fraud.
 Now it is declared by some who know, that the union has been buccooed and several prominent men—whose names will be withheld on account of their social standing—have brought in what was apparently good evidence of their being eligible to the union and have since proven to be imposters. Whether or not this will be the cause of breaking the charter of the organization is not known.

The principal rule to be enforced in the union is that no man shall work more than 15 minutes a day on his yard and not more than three evenings out of the week. It is said no complaint has been heard from the union about members working over-time, but the wives of some members have made complaint that their husbands have not worked to the limit. This is also a great offense but not so much as working over-time.

A One-Man Strike.
 One man is known to have taken advantage of the union's provisions and struck. His name will not be given, but he is prominent and lives north of the river. He has a beautiful lawn and a few evenings ago his wife was seen watering the lawn. He may be discharged from the union, as the head of the organization had not ordered a strike.

MRS. DAVE HORN DEAD.

Passed into the Great Beyond at Oakland This Morning.

Fred Hendley received word this morning of the death of Mrs. David Horn, which occurred at Oakland, California, this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Horn left here several weeks ago for California in the hopes of benefiting Mrs. Horn's health. She had been ailing with a complication of diseases and her death was not unexpected. The telegram stated that Mr. Horn would leave for Pendleton with the body this evening and will arrive here about Saturday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Horn were residents of McKay creek and were prominent in that neighborhood, he being an extensive stockman and farmer.

A Tent Show.

Bob Matt's big tent show has struck town and opened up for business under canvas at the corner of Webb and Auro streets, where the merry-go-round was located. This show consists of a number of high-class vaudeville specialties under canvas and is said by those who have witnessed it in other cities to be a very amusing and entertaining exhibition.

MORE GOOD WORDS.

Regarding the Portland Journal and its New Management.

The Portland Evening Journal, as an independent democratic newspaper, should receive a fine patronage in Portland and all over the state, says the Astoria News. Under its new management, with ample capital that is understood to back it, it is sure to take a high rank in journalism. The people of Portland, more than any other city in the United States, need an opposition paper. A one-paper town can never succeed. Tyranny is sure to follow monopoly—in newspapers as well as in beef.
