The end of the closed season for grouse has seen several of our local sportsmen start for the hills to try their luck with the feathered tribe. Many have already gone and many more will go this week or Sunday.

The homeliest man in Pendleton, as well as the handsomest, and others, are invited to call on any druggist and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, a remedy that is guaranteed to cure and relieve all chronic and acute coughs, asthma, bronchitis and consumption. Price 25c and 50c. For sale by Tallman & Co., sole agents.

BLOOD POISON.

Reuben Cicho is Afflicted With Painful Attack.

Reuben Cicho is suffering from blood poison caused by a wood splinter. Several days ago he was working with a wood saw and ran a small splinter in his hand, near the ball of the thumb. The splinter was removed and gave him little inconvenience at the time, but the weather being hot and he continuing work, the wound developed poison and now he is compelled to carry his arm in a sling. It is inflamed from the hand to the elbow and is very painful.

LOG-ROLLING AT MILTON, OR.

Woodmen of the World Plan a Big Event.

Milton, Or., Aug. 1.—The new, but strong and energetic camp of Woodmen of the World is planning for a local log-rolling this fall, when a large accession of members is expected. No definite action has been taken yet, beyond appointing a committee to take initial steps and report on possibilities, but it is decided to have a big initiation event of some description. The committee consists of H. F. Brown, J. E. Nichols, Dr. Hayes, L. B. Hogan and G. Winkler. The affair will probably come off in September.

All Were Saved.

"For years I suffered such untold misery from bronchitis," writes J. H. Johnston, of Broughton, Ga., "that often I was unable to work. Then, when everything else failed, I was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. My wife suffered intensely from asthma, till it cured her, and all our experience goes to show it is the best croup medicine in the world. A trial will convince you it's unrivaled for throat and lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Tallman & Co's."

Kine's Grove Sunday.

Peter Smith, the genial proprietor of the picnic grounds at Kine's grove, has announced that the dances will hereafter be discontinued on Saturday evening. So many people are in the mountains, and one evening during this hot weather being all people care to dance, has caused the change. The Sunday afternoon and evening will be enjoyed much the more by those who attend. The dancing begins at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and runs until midnight. Hacks to the grove every five minutes.

Shatters All Records.

Twice in hospital, F. A. Gullidge, Verbena, Ala., paid a vast sum to doctors to cure a severe case of piles, causing 24 tumors. When all failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve soon cured him. Subdues inflammation, conquers aches, kills pains. Best salve in the world, 25c at Tallman & Co's drug store.

THE JOURNAL NEWSPAPER.

Baker City Democrat Says C. S. Jackson Will Make a Success.

In addition to publishing in full the salutary editorial of C. S. Jackson in taking charge of the Portland Journal, now the Oregon Daily Journal, the Baker City Democrat remarks: "Sam Jackson, of Pendleton, who has controlled the East Oregonian for so many years with much well merited success, has purchased the Portland Journal. It's a good thing. Everybody who knows Sam Jackson and who knows the Journal is glad of it. People who know these elements and are on the inside of the Oregon newspaper field and who also know that John E. Lathrop is to be editor of the rejuvenated Journal will be doubly glad."

"Paraphrasing what Rip Van Winkle said when he took another highball, 'Here's to Sam Jackson; may he live long and prosper!'"

Removal Notice.

I have removed my office to the building on Court street, one door east of First National Bank building, where I will continue in same lines of business as heretofore.
