CAUGHT A DESERTER.

Sheriff Taylor Got Third Army Escape Within Three Weeks.

Leslie Henderson, a deserter from the fort a. Walla Walla, was arrested Saturday on Stewart, creek. This is the third deserter Sheriff Till D hand and arm were badly cut. Taylor has taken in and returned to Uncle Sam within the past three weeks. Sheriff Taylor had a description of the deserter, and he was supposed to be in this section of the country.

He got wind that Henderson was at the home of a distant relative. near the mountains, and went out to deserter was not there, but Taylor learned that he had engaged with William Wade's harvesting crew, which was working on Stewart creek east of Pilot Rock.

The sheriff proceeded to the place where the harvesting crew was at work and found Henderson, bringing him back and placing him in jail. He was taken to Walla Walla and turned over to the government authorities. Henderson deserted the 28th of June,

The fact is that Thad Stevens was quite badly cut on the hand by running his arm through a window glass knife cutting affair came from. Stevens and several other young fellows who work in the woolen mills, were out for a time Saturday night. It seems that they were in a room, perhaps at the mill, and were "rushing

This was all in a good natured way and nothing was said at the time. A few minutes later Downey was making fun of Stevens getting hit with did not like this and struck at Downey. He missed and rammed his hand through a window glass. The

TO BE BUILT ON NORTH BANK.

Work is to Begin at Once, and is to Be Completed in April Next.

The contract for building the Lewiston-Riparia road on the north bank investigate. When he arrived the and Lewiston, was Saturday awarded by the O. R. & N. to Wren & Greenough, contractors. Thomas F. Wren lives at Spokane and Mr. Greenough at Missoula, Mont.

> Work on the contract is to begin at once and to be completed by April 15, 1903. There are 71 miles of road to build and the contract covers grading and bridging for the whole line, involving about $800,000.

The company now has eight crews of engineers on the line ready to direct and supervise the work on the several sections. At Lewiston it will be necessary to construct a bridge 1000 feet long across the Clearwater River. This will be made of steel and its cost will be about $350,000.

After the completion of the road-A rumor was circulated on the bed it will take about three months streets this morning to the effect to lay the track and put it in shape that a cutting affair had been in- for operation, so it is not expected dulged in last night by two young that the regular running of trains men of Pendleton. and this is where the story of the Surveyor Caspery Says Several are Raging.

Surveyor C. G. Caspery returned City, 1. Sunday, after a three trip in various parts of the county. Mr. Caspery came across several small timber fires on his trip, which Ferris. he says were started by sheepherders through gross carelessness. He also City, 5. says that a fire of vast proportions is raging on Strawberry mountain, extending to Bear valley.

While on this trip Mr. Caspery learned that nearly all the available timber land in the county had been taken up and that of a tract of school land, consisting of 1200 acres, which was placed on the market last winter only 200 acres were left unsold,-Grant County News.

"Now is the Appointed Time."

The O. R. & N. Company has just issued a handsomely illustrated pamphlet entitled "Oregon, Washington & Idaho and Their Resources." People in the east are anxious for information about the Pacific Northwest. If you will give the O. R. & N. Company agent a list of names of eastern people who are likely to be interested, the booklet will be mailed free to such persons.

until the seventh, when Wilner, pitching for Pendleton, lost his temper and worked wild for a while, which, with a couple of bad throws by other members of the team, allowed four Gold Diggers to slide over home plate.

Wilner was pitching first-class ball and held the Diggers down to two hits in the first six innings. The first 12 men up to bat died before reaching first and not until the sixth did anyone of the visitors reach second. In this inning one run was made, which, with the four in the seventh and an earned run in the eighth gave the Gold Diggers six to the Indians' poor lonely two. These two were made by the locals pleasure seeking, in the third and it looked for a time as though the game was going to be 12 straight and the 13th proved their deadly hoodoo.

New Suit Filed in the Equity Docket Today.

A suit was filed on the equity docket this morning by James B. Himes, asking a divorce from Ethel Himes. They were married in Vancouver, Wash., in 1895 and lived together until 1901, when defendant deserted plaintiff "without cause," declares the complaint. He now wants the court to grant the divorce and award him judgment for the costs of the suit. They have no children. John A. Collier is attorney for plaintiff.

Against Artie Anderson.

Another suit was filed this morning against the property of Artie Anderson. It is by E. L. Smith to collect money on several different notes amounting to $706.96, with 10 per cent interest. James A. Fee and R. J. Slater are attorneys for plaintiff.

A Man of His Word.

John W. Donegan, a justice of the peace in Jersey City, has established his claim to being considered a man of his word. Some two months ago he announced that he would give a handsome suit of parlor furniture to the 21st couple for whom he tied the nuptial knot. After officiating at 20 weddings he calmly took unto himself a bride, to whom he has now given the promised parlor suit,
