GENERAL NEWS.

Military spectators present at the review of the Argentine army are reported to have said that the evolutions and appearance of the troops was worthy of the best organized armies of Europe.

T. P. Cullen, formerly with the Northern Pacific railroad, at Helena, Mont., has been appointed superintendent of the Los Angeles division of the Salt Lake road, vice A. R. Oster, who has been assigned to duty with the Empire Construction company.

A lone highwayman Sunday held up Samuel Travis and James Randall and after he had robbed them, compelled Travis to stop a street car, tie a handkerchief over his face, and go through the car. The robber secured $50. There is no clue to the identity of the highwayman.

Given E. Brockar, aged 19, a landsman of the United States cruiser Montgomery, lying at the Brooklyn navy yard, committed suicide Sunday on board the vessel by taking poison. Failure to pass an examination for naval yeomen because of defective eyesight was the probable cause.

William J. Carroll, aged 14; Ariel Kologenski, aged 12, and an unknown boy aged about 12 were drowned Saturday in the Allegheny river at the foot of Thirty-sixth street, Pittsburg. The Carroll boy lost his life in trying to save the other two, who had got beyond their depth while bathing.

The Southern Pacific section hands are demanding of the company increased wages. They now receive $1.40 per day and they ask for $1.75. They work 10 hours a day. The company has taken the matter under consideration. The bridge carpenters are also asking for concessions. They desire to be paid for the time consumed in going to and returning from work.

Mrs. Margaret Uzzell, mother of "Parson" T. A. Uzzell, is dead at the age of 75 years. She was born in Kentucky, and came to Colorado in 1877. "Mother" Uzzell, as she was lovingly called, had been a widow since 1856, and for 18 years she had been associated with her sons in conducting the People's Tabernacle, in Denver, of which Rev. T. A. Uzzell is now pastor. She was one of the most noted charity workers in the West.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST NEWS.

"Locomotive" Smith, of Berkeley, Cal., has been engaged as coach for the University of Oregon football team this fall.

A huge 500-horse-power engine has been placed in position in the Portland power house of the Oregon Water Power & Railway Company.

Alice Pearl Shaw, 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Shaw, of Portland, fell into the Hood River Saturday evening and was swept away.

William Harrigan, a logger in a camp near Kelso, Wash., was killed Saturday morning by a log rolling on him while he was working at the skidway.

The Journal Publishing Company, of Portland, has been incorporated with a capital of $120,000 for the purpose of conducting the Oregon Daily Journal. The incorporators are C. S. Jackson, W. C. Bristol and E. E. Hull.

Frank Ingram, the hero of the Oregon penitentiary, has punctured the inflated stories regarding his bravery by declaring that he did not get shot in trying to save the life of Guard Ferrill, but was accidentally shot by Merrill while the latter was trying to get the ladder with which to the desperadoes got over the prison wall.

DIAMOND CHATTER

NEWS OF THE GAME IN INLAND EMPIRE LEAGUE.

Indians Are Not Yet so Far Ahead as to Be Unconquerable—La Grande Is Still Determined—Next Games May Make Great Difference in Percentages.

The Baker City and La Grande baseball teams have returned to their respective homes somewhat lower down in the percentage column than they were at this time last week, each having lost three out of the four games played since Monday. They have both demonstrated, however, that their team work is greatly improved and that they are dangerous elements in the race for the pennant of the Inland Empire league.

At present Pendleton is so far ahead that it would seem she could not be pulled down, and local fans are confident that she can not, but at the same time it is well to remember that it would take but a short run of bad luck and the loss of a few games to put her in second place. Portland was as far ahead in the Northwestern league and she lost 10 straight, which put her in the tail-end division, where she seems likely to stay.

La Grande Is Gritty.

The people of La Grande are apparently not discouraged because their team is having such a run of misfortune and in this they are showing the correct spirit. Such a spirit will do more to pull the team out of the rut and boost them along toward first place than any amount of roasting and reorganizing and scolding. The Beet Pullers are good ball players and all they need is more and closer team work, a little more confidence in one another and the unflinching confidence of their home town. That they have this is ample evidence by the fact that La Grande stayed in the league after the run of hard luck which they have experienced.

Next Games in League.

The next games under the league will be played at Baker City and Pendleton, the Beet Pullers going against the home team at the former place and the Indians entering the fray with the Sharpshooters in their home town. This is the first time the teams have played against one another in this arrangement and the matches will be watched with deep interest.

Pendleton has already beaten every other team in the league except Walla Walla and La Grande has been beaten by every one excepting Baker City. The Gold Diggers and Beet Pullers are about on a par as to team work and organization, so there should be some evenly matched contests.

There is good possibility that the Sharpshooters may be able to pull down the Indians' lead, although local fans are slow to admit it, and there is better possibility of the Beet Pullers coming up a bit.

Line Hits.

The Baker City fans are dead game sports. Whenever their team plays away from home they have a telegraph line run out to the grounds and receive the report of the game by innings at Baker City.

Those who saw Bobbie Brown's work in center in the last two games with Baker City, say it does not make any difference whether he has any fingers and thumbs left or not. He plays the game just the same.

The Oregon Daily Journal, speaking of the kind of baseball played in the Inland Empire league, says that Ziegler at third base for Portland is a sample of the kind of ball players we have here. "Zelg" is a good ball player, all right, but he would have to "smoke up" to travel with the Pendleton team.

The Baker City boys say they had a good time while over here even if they did lose three games, but they say the Pendleton diamond is the poorest on the circuit. This is a tip for the local management.

The wonderfully fast "all star" players who have been imported from the big leagues to show the people of the Inland Empire how baseball ought to be played, seem to be

IN WALLOWA.

Notes of That Section Culled From the Chieftain.

J. A. Balter has leased Lewis Neal's ranch for a term of three years. The rental price is $250 in cash per annum.

Mr. Neal will dispose of his cattle and then take a long-needed rest. His life has been one of constant activity. When a mere boy he joined the volunteer service against the Indians of Oregon and Washington, in 1855-6. At the close of the war he engaged in farming and stock raising which he has followed up to the present time. No man can point to Mr. Neal and say truthfully, "There is a man that owes me a dollar and won't pay me." Let him rest, sweetly rest; and he will if the young widows will let him alone.

It is said far up the Imaha huckleberries will soon be ripe and plentiful. The numerous flocks of sheep that range through the mountains in summer time, are fast destroying the bushes that bear this luscious fruit. Sheep eat away the leaves and the bushes die for want of air, as all vegetation breathes through its leaves.

TO SURVEY 19 TOWNSHIPS.

Result of Big Demand for Timber Lands in Southern Oregon.

Nineteen townships are to be surveyed by the government this fall in Douglas, Coos, Josephine and Jackson counties, in response to the big demand for timber lands. Surveyor-General Meldrum, of Portland, has placed the application on file and is preparing to make contracts. He thinks there will be very little timber land left after next year, as Eastern people are taking it up all the time.

A Big Dredger Tried.

A preliminary run of the big dredger on the John Day was made during the week, to test the machinery. The run was short, and resulted in revealing very few weaknesses demanding change. Manager Pomroy seemed highly pleased with the way in which his big machine started forth upon a career of gold saving, and it is expected that the permanent run will soon be started.—Blue Mountain American.

having about all they can do to keep up with the pace set them by the "hayscuds" among whom they have come.

It is proposed by the rooters to have a guessing contest, the subject to be guessed at being what can be done to make the home team any stronger than it is at present. Anyone who can make a suggestion worthy of consideration will receive a leather medal. It is not expected that there will be many medals distributed.

It is funny how much "luck" there is in the good playing of the Indians when they go up against the other teams of the Oregon league. Apparently the boys are not much on playing, but are long on "luck," at least that is what one would judge from the reports of the games played by them. In the papers of the other towns of the league.
