

HERE WE ARE AGAIN

Not to tell you about the purity of our drugs or the accuracy of our compounding, for every man, woman and child knows that in this we EXCEL all others in our line. It is to tell you of all the new goods we are receiving daily and of interest to you.

Nothing is nicer and more valuable than a fine collection of "STEINS" and we have them in all sizes and prices. It is the craze of the present age, so fall in line.

THE MODERN DRUGGISTS - PENDLETON

TUESDAY, AUGUST 19, 1902.

The late Ringling circus must have been good. Wherever it appeared the village papers are full of praise for it.

So Alger is on the fence in the senatorial contest. It is in keeping with Alger's record to prevent people from knowing where he stands.

With our own local robbers and the Bartholin case giving telegraphic news every day we do not miss the late great Mr. Tracy so much after all.

The fact that all Englishmen gave the Boer generals a grand ovation means that heroes and men who fight for the right are always appreciated in any country or clime.

The act of the Typographical Union in giving $5,000 to the cause of the destitute miners illustrates the old claim that printers are the most magnanimous beings on earth.

The Boers finally did the right thing by having a conference with King Edward. People should meet harmoniously whether their views run in the same channel or not.

The fact that the wheat market is low in the Willamette Valley should not disturb the wheat grower. People must eat bread, and buscuit at that and all will end well in the end.

It is to be hoped that the new battleship Maine will always float and do execution, if the necessity arises, to again and again avenge the outrage perpetrated upon her namesake.

Sheriff Taylor is hot after the two would-be Tracys. If "Till" does not bring them in before he quits it will be a surprise to his friends and will not be for lack of nerve or perseverance on his part.

That mimic naval fight which is to take place at an early date at New York may cost the country a lot of money, but it was those mimic fights that put our boys into a condition to win at Santiago and Manila.

It is strange that after Quartermaster General Eagan should have won the reputation for challenging a man for a duel and gains such a reputation for bravery should deny it. If he had said yes, he would have received an ovation upon his return to this country.

Edward is still cutting his high jinks. Rain does not deter Edward from naval parades or other demonstrations. But when it comes to think about the fact that Edward survived the knife of the surgeons and recovered from that new unpronounceable disease, one may expect anything of Edward.

Governor Geer has turned out to be quite an author the past summer. His write-ups of his trips to Mt. Adams and Crater Lake have been read with interest by the people. It may be well for the governor to keep in practice as he may need to earn his livelihood in this way when his term of office expires.

The meeting of Mitchell and J. Pierpont Morgan ought to be an interesting one if not a successful one. The appeal of the president of the Federation of Labor to the representative of trusts in its broadest capacity may accomplish more than has ever been accomplished before in strikes. J.

Pierpont may advise a merger in the striking business that will be beneficial to all but the consumers, and then it will be a question of the devil take the hindmost.

The action of the New York coal dealers in notifying their customers that they would cut off half of their supply of coal in case the coal strike continues, is a serious matter. The people of that great city depend entirely upon coal for their warmth and for cooking their meals and they only get a scant amount at best and to cut them to one-half will mean the death of many this winter. Truly, strikes and trusts and things generally work against the poor.

Superstition is one of the curses of the country and has been for centuries. It is claimed that it is being blotted out before the light of civilization, but it bobs up in different ways. Some crank predicted that there would be a great tidal wave at Atlantic City yesterday, and while the white people do not believe in anything of the kind, yet there was a general exodus from Atlantic City, while the poor "coons," noted for their superstition, only prayed and sang. It will take centuries yet to advance the people beyond fanaticism and superstition.

RELATIVE SEA POWER OF THE NATIONS.

In a review of the sea power of the great nations the Naval Annual shows that in ten years from 1892 to 1902 these changes have occurred:

1. Russia, Germany and the United States have all become the owners of as many battleships as France, which ten years ago was in that respect second only to Great Britain.
2. Japan's navy has been created and, for Asiatic purposes, is united with Greta Britain's.
3. The British and Japanese navies together number 47 armor-lads of the first class—three more than the combined total of Russian, French and German warships of that class.
4. France has made armored cruisers the prime feature of her new construction and will shortly count 13 of them.
5. Great Britain has well maintained her lead over her two most probable adversaries and now counts 29 first class battleships ready for action, against 17 for France and Russia combined.

Assuming that the United States does not join it the Naval Annual concludes that no combination of naval powers could be made strong enough to destroy British sea power. That may be true, but at what a cost it has been accomplished! In the ten years covered by this review British naval expenditures have risen from $75,000,000 to $150,000,000—just about doubled.

HAYTI MUST BEHAVE.

Hayti is in eruption again. The usual revolution is in progress, battles are being fought in the interior and rebel gunboats are menacing the ports. Former Minister of France Firmin has declared himself president. Admiral Killick has declared for Firmin and what is left of the old government has declared Firmin an outlaw and Killick a pirate and anarchy reigns throughout the Negro republic.

There is nothing new in the situation, for Hayti has been in a state of revolution most of the time for 100 years, but sooner or later some means will have to be found to end this condition. With our interest in the West Indies we cannot forever have disturbance.

It is only a short reach across from Cuba, and already Santiago is named as an outfitting point for expeditions from one side or the other. Directly some Cuban will mix in Haytian affairs, and Cuba will find herself involved in a dispute.

There may be a chance for Cuba to do for the disturbed little country what we did for her, for the constant turbulence of such a near neighbor must interfere with her commerce and annoy her variously.

There used to be considerable traffic between Porto Rico and Hayti, but it has faded, though the commerce between Porto Rico and the Republic of Santo Domingo, which usually behaves itself, is steadily increasing.

The Black Republic was an experiment which all the world watched with interest. The great men among the West Indian negroes thought there was in it the nucleus of a strong negro nation. Antonio Maceo, the hero of the Cuban revolution, used to dream of all the West Indies united as the country of his people. The Antillian League was formed with this as its ultimate object.

Hayti has failed; only an overmastering tyrant has given her any considerable interval of peace. The interior is dotted with the ruins of sugar mills; the cities are the foulest in the West Indies, and lapses into savagery are so common that they are no longer wondered at.

There are good men among the Haytians, men whose ambitions and ideals are lofty, patriotic and disinterested, but they cannot leave the lump of ignorance and barbarism.

The world is getting crowded, and fertile Hayti, cannot much longer be left a prey to constant war.—Hearst's American and Journal.

Castro replies to Germany, declaring that the claims against Venezuela are greatly exaggerated.

THE TRYING TIME

In a young girl's life is reached when Nature leads her uncertain steps across the line which divides girlhood from womanhood. Ignorance and neglect at this critical period are largely responsible for much of the after misery of womanhood. Not only does Nature often need help in the regular establishment of the womanly function, but there is almost always need of some safe, strengthening tonic, to overcome the languor, nervousness and weakness, commonly experienced at this time.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription establishes regularity. It is a strengthening tonic, soothing the nerves, encouraging the appetite and inducing restful sleep. It contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine or other narcotic.

"I wish to tell you the benefit we have received from using your remedies," writes Mrs. Dan Hall, of Broadhead, Green Co., Wis. "Two years ago my daughter's health began to fail. Everything that could be thought of was done to help her but it was of no use. When she began to complain she was quite stout; weighed 170, the picture of good health, until about the age of fourteen, then in six months she was so run down her weight was but 120. She kept failing and I gave up, thinking there was no use, she must die. Friends all said, 'You will lose your daughter.' I said I fear I shall. I must say, doctor, that only for your 'Favorite Prescription' my daughter would have been in her grave to-day. When she had taken one-half bottle the natural function was established and we bought another one, making only two bottles in all, and she completely recovered. Since then she is as well as can be."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
