WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN.

The following shows the prices Report of Crop Conditions in Oregon paid on the local market:

During the Week.

Following is the weekly crop report of the Oregon section, United States department of agriculture, for the week ending Monday, August 18: The past week has been cool and showery. The rains have been general in the northern part of the state from the coast to the Blue Mountains, but in the southern part of the state they were light and scattering. Harvest work in the Umatilla district and in the Grande Ronde valley was suspended for from two to three days on account of the wet spell,

The grain yields in the Willamette ed fields are averaging from 30 to 40 Oregon. bushels, which is considerably better than expected. In the Grande Ronde valley the harvest is about half done and while he yields are satisfactory. there is more than the usual amount of smut on both wheat and oats.

The rains have been of great benecondition, especially in Southern Orereport has been received. The potato blight is increasing in the coast counties and in some sections the damage is quite serious. Fruit in the Hood River valley Coffee Mocha and Java, best, 40c continues doing nicely.
