M'COURT WINS CASE

GETS FINAL DECISION IN CITY RECORDERSHIP CASE.

Judge Bean, of the Supreme Court, Affirms the Decision of County Court, Declaring That the Mayor Has Right to Cast the Deciding Vote in the Council.

The supreme court of the state of Oregon has affirmed the decision of the lower court in its decision against defendant in the case of John McCourt vs. John E. Beam.

Of Much Interest.

The readers of the East Oregonian will remember that considerable interest was stirred up in Pendleton last winter over the city marshal and recordership fight. Charges were made against Marshal Heathman of accepting a "rake off" from the gamblers and other law-breakers as bribes to keep him on their side in case of trouble. It was also charged that John E. Beam, recorder, had shared in these "rake-offs" with the marshal and when the new city mayor and council went into office the first of the present year, a crusade was started against these city officials. After careful work, of an investigation committee and due deliberation, the charges were found by it, not only to have vestige of foundation, but it found them to be absolutely true. At the beginning of the investigation the majority of the council was upholding the old officials, and the mayor and one or two of the council were against them.

A Charge Decided Upon.

It was decided, however, by those opposed to what is termed the "grafting" method by city officials that these officers should go and new men be appointed in their places. Consequently, Joseph Blakley was appointed marshal and John McCourt recorder. At the council meeting when these appointments were made a lively light ensued among the council. When the matter of new officers came to a vote, four of the council voted for the new men and four for the old ones. The mayor then used his right as mayor to break the tie and declared Blakley marshal and McCourt recorder.

Taken into Court.

From this grew the suit. It was fought in the Umatilla county court by both Heathman and Beam. When defeated by the county court, Heathman dropped the fight, but Beam carried it to the supreme court. The main point on which the fight was waged was the wording of the city charter, which states that "the common council shall, with the consent of the mayor, appoint a marshal and recorder who shall hold their respective offices during the pleasure of the council, and be subject to removal from office at any time by its resolutions."

Mayor's Vote Valid.

The defendants contended that under this clause of the charter the mayor had no right to cast a vote in the election of marshal and recorder, and he was only to confirm the selection of the council, therefore alleging that the action of the mayor was not according to the city charter and the old officers were supposed to hold their respective offices until a majority of the council voted against them. In deciding the case Supreme Judge Bean declared that this was a wrong interpretation of the charter and the mayor did have the right to cast the deciding vote in case of a tie.

HELD FOR RANSOM.

Massachusetts Boy Has Been in Captivity Since June 17.

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 19.—Wilbur Clark, son of H. W. Clark, of this city, who disappeared on June 17, is alive and his father is now negotiating with those who took the child away for his return.

There has been a demand for a large sum of money by those who took the lad and now Mr. Clark is ready to pay and ask no questions. Mr. Clark has refused to make any statement, but one close in his confidence states that the anxious father is afraid that any publicity given at this time may result in his losing the child again. This morning in an inconspicuous place in a Boston newspaper appeared this advertisement:

Personal—Will give amount asked. H. W. Clark.

Those Delayed Trains.

The latest and most authentic information available regarding the delay of west bound trains on the O. R. & N. is to the effect that there was no wreck at Durkee, as reported, and that no track was washed out, but that the rails were covered to a depth of several feet by mud, boulders and debris carried on the track by a waterspout near Weatherby. This has delayed traffic considerably, but the railway company is confident of having everything in good running order once more within a very short time.

Sweeney-Hudson.

One of the most pleasant events of the season took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hudson, at Freewater, on the 17th. Their daughter Marie, was united in marriage to Mr. Dennis Sweeney. At precisely 11:55 a. m. the contracting persons entered the hall and were met by the bride's young brother, Master Jack Hudson, and little Florence Davis, of Pendleton, who attended them to the parlor and presented them to the Rev. Evans, who read the beautiful marriage service that made them man and wife. The bride looked lovely in white organdie and old lace and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. The groom wore the regulation black. None but intimate friends of the family were present. After the ceremony those present were invited to the dining room, where they partook of an elegant lunch, after which the bride and groom, amid a shower of rice and a storm of old shoes and slippers, took their departure for a short wedding tour. REESE CAPTURED.

Man Wanted Here for Larceny is Caught at Salem.

A telegram was received at the sheriff's office today saying that Fred Reese, wanted here for larceny, had been captured at Salem, and asking what disposition should be made of him.

The crime for which Reese is wanted was committed on the Umatilla reservation last Friday, when Reese stole some clothes and jewelry belonging to a school teacher who lives near Arthur Rigby's ranch.

The stolen goods consisted of clothes valued at $22, a watch chain worth $16, and stick pins, valued at $5. Reese came to Pendleton after stealing the clothes, and wore the clothes on the streets here, drawing a pair of overalls over the pants. On the lapel of the coat was a picture button from which Reese had the picture taken out and another substituted at a local gallery. He also had some pictures taken of himself and ordered them forwarded to his home at Salem.

Reese left town Saturday morning, beating his way on a freight train, and when the teacher came to town to complain of the robbery there was no clew of him until the picture was found at the photograph gallery. This gave the clew which led to his arrest. He will be brought back for trial.

Joe Reed in Trouble.

Justice Fitz Gerald heard the case of the State of Oregon vs. Joe Reed, the prisoner being accused of stealing the sum of $8 from Henry Crook last Saturday night. The men had been working in the harvest field and Crook, who had been paid off, had the money in a tobacco sack. The two slept at the City Livery stable and the next morning Crook missed his money. He had Reed arrested and the sack in which Crook had placed the money was found on the prisoner. The justice bound Reed over to the circuit court in $250 bail. As the prisoner could not furnish this he went to jail.

The Spreckles Libel Case.

San Francisco, Aug. 19.—The prosecution in the Spreckles libel suit today endeavored to prove that Joseph Aguirre's Oakland residence was furnished throughout with furniture made at the state's expense at San Quentin. Objection was taken under advisement by the court. Aguirre, who has charge of the department's prisons, admitted that his harness and furniture had been made for prison purposes and the use of employees, though there was no regular department for making the same.
