COMMERCE—TRADE

NO CHANGE FOR WEEK IN LOCAL MARKET.

Wheat is Now Selling to Considerable Extent, But Most of the Farmers are Holding, Preferring to Wait for Better Prices.

Not a change is noted in the local markets today. Everything in the grocery line remains as quoted last week and the meat market is the same.

Some Wheat Selling.

Within the past few days quite a little wheat has been sold to local dealers. Henry Craig, representing the Northwestern Warehouse Company, has purchased 30,000 bushels. The price paid for most of this was 50 cents, although one lot of bluestem brought 52 cents. This was 8000 bushels belonging to the Holdman Brothers, which was bought by the Northwestern Warehouse Company, and will be delivered at Cold Springs. It was an extra fine lot of wheat and there are few other lots of its equal in the country.

Mr. Craig, who is representing this company in the absence of its special agent, E. W. McComas, purchased 7000 bushels of A. D. Rothrock. This was club and brought 50 cents. From Louis Audet, 15,000 bushels were purchased at 50 cents. The Pacific Coast Elevator Company has purchased 9000 bushels. Will Moore, the agent for the company, bought this, paying 50 cents. It was of the crops of William Duff, E. D. Turner and E. H. Lindsey.

Farmers Prefer to Hold.

While some other small lots have been sold during the past few days, the above named lots cover the most of the purchases by local dealers. The farmers are not very anxious to sell even at 50 cents a bushel. They contend that the local market is not what the Liverpool market would justify being paid here, and many of them say they will hold their crops for a while and risk another raise. Consequently little wheat will pass into the hands of the shippers until there is a change for the better. Of course, there will be some sales every day, but they will be comparatively small.

Portland Wheat.

Portland, Aug. 21.—The Commercial Review, in its issue of today, says: The wheat market during the past week has been quiet. Farmers are not selling freely, many of them holding back for higher prices in consequence of the reduction in freight rates that took place on the 15th. Crop reports coming in are not of the best, and the yield is running from 15 to 20 per cent less than a year ago. Harvest is now fairly started all over the country. As yet not enough grain has been threshed in the spring sown sections to give an idea of what the yield will be, but the indications are it will fall below that of last year. Grain is of good quality in all sections of Oregon, Washington and Idaho. There is some smut in winter wheat in a great many sections, but so long as the weather remains dry and the grain can be threshed, the smut will not damage the wheat, but in a majority of places will be blown out in threshing. The weather is ideal for harvest work, being warm. Quotations during the week were marked down a little, and club is quoted 60c, bluestem, 62c and valley 61c per bushel.

Freight rates are slowly advancing and shippers are asking higher prices for vessels. It looks as if the freight market will gradually advance. There is very little offering in sailers at present, and the market for ships for the past fortnight has been very quiet. Cargo market is of a declining tendency and foreigners are paying no attention to Chicago speculative markets. The outlook for European crops is very favorable, with the exception of Argentina, where it is too early to make any forecasts. Unless some unforeseen change takes place wheat will probably go lower. Shipments during the past week were two cargoes from Portland and one from Puget Sound.

San Francisco Markets.

San Francisco, Aug. 21.—The situation remains practically unchanged. Local business is confined to a few sales to millers. The middleman is very sore at present as exporters are confining the operations with the farmer direct, and are buying freely at market price. We quote: California shipping, $1.13 1/2@1.15; milling, $1.18 @1.20 per cental.

Boston Wool Market.

Boston, Aug. 21.—Although the wool market has been a little more quiet than last week, there has been considerable doing, with a very firm tendency, and a general upward movement. Territory wool is decidedly firmer. Many dealers here still have wool to sell which cost them above the market price here at present. Quotations are: Fine staple territory,
