IN POLICE COURT.

Judd Hart Fined $25 for Insulting Women—Old Man in Court.

In Judge McCourt's court this morning Judd Hart was fined $25 for insulting women.

Hart is a young carpenter. He came here recently from Ione, and those who know him do not think he is ordinarily a low fellow. Saturday he fell in with a lot of friends and began to drink. Late in the evening, seeing that he was becoming in a bad way, he started home. When in the east end of town he met several ladies and made indecent proposals to them. They came down town and reported the affair to the police and Hart was arrested.

A. A. Moore, 83 years of age, was before the police judge this morning on the charge of being drunk. He was only reprimanded and released, as his offense was not serious and being an old man the judge did not impose a fine.

Two Indians, Liberty, and William Jones, were before the court for being drunk. They were each fined $50.

CRIMINAL SEASON.

Judge Fitz Gerald Talks About Crimes of Harvest Times.

"August is the worst criminal month of the year," said Judge Fitz Gerald this morning. "Already I have had more cases in justice court this month than during the four months preceding."

During the month of August last year I had 16 criminals before me who were sent to the penitentiary. This is a big record, and on the face of it does not look well for the community, but when taken into consideration where this criminal element comes from it is not so bad for Pendleton after all. August is the time of year when all classes of humanity are coming into this county. The criminal type follows the harvesters. During the harvesting season there are men looking for work and the men not looking for work, but who follow the working man because he is considered easy to some extent and can be fleeced out of his money more readily than the business man of residenter.

REWARD FOR ROBBERS.

Sheriff Taylor Sends Out Cards Offering $100 Reward.

Sheriff T. D. Taylor, of Umatilla county, has sent out a number of postal cards offering a reward for the capture of Alf. Cofer and his partner in the Freewater saloon hold up and the shooting of Deputy Sheriff Ritchie. The sum of $50 each is offered for the return of the men, and their descriptions as given on the card are as follows:

Alf. Cofer—Age 25; height, five feet and seven inches; weight, about 150 pounds; light hair, light complexion, brown mole on each cheek, scar on left temple, hair mole on jaw, many scars on hands, legs and feet, gambles and drinks. Has served time in the Oregon penitentiary in 1900. The sheriff can furnish a picture of this criminal.

Unknown man, accomplice of Cofer—Age about 25 years; height, five feet ten or 11 inches; weight, 155 to 160 pounds; long black hair bobbed off behind, shoulders drooped and sloped, badly granulated sore eyes, wearing black clothes and black hat. The sheriff holds a warrant for the arrest of each of these men on charges of robbery and assault.

Dry Town.

If one did not believe Dayton was a "closed" town last Sunday, a glance at the pump in front of Nilson Bros.' establishment on that day would be conclusive. The handle had been disconnected from the plunger and a label placed on the whillom dispenser of the non-intoxicating fluid bearing the legend, "Closed by the W. C. T. U."—Dayton Courier-Press.

La Grande's Fair.

Fifteen hundred dollars has been appropriated by the La Grande street fair committee for exhibits of agricultural products. This is the same amount that is appropriated by the state fair each year for the Eastern Oregon district agricultural society. It is a sum that ought to insure a god exhibit.—Chronicle.
