ATHENA'S WHEAT CROP.

Some large Yields of Wheat, Barley and Corn.

Athena's warehouses just now present a busy scene. Upon the roads that converge into the city are to be seen dozens of four and six-horse teams hauling in this season's wheat crop. There are seven warehouses located at Athena, having a capacity as follows: 35,000, 100,000, 125,000, 30,000, 35,000 and 80,000 bushels. The total amount of wheat received to August 26 is 65,787 bushels.

Most of this is still in the warehouse, though 150,000 bushels are soon to be shipped. By the end of this week the daily receipts will amount to 10,000 bushels. But a small amount of barley is stored—6000 bushels—as much of it is ground or steamed for home use.

There are 8500 bushels of corn in the warehouse left over from last year's crop. This year's crop not yet being matured.

About Weston, Milton and Athena there has been a very active demand for harvest hands. From $2 to $2.50 is being paid for the men, $4.00 for the stackers and $5.00 for engineers. In each case this includes board. The wind storm of a few weeks ago, followed by the rain, caused some damage to the wheat as it blew it down and the heads were so heavy much of the grain did not straighten up again.

One such field of 200 acres near Athena was threshed and turned out satisfactorily running as high as 45 bushels to the acre.

The farmers could use hogs to advantage in the down wheat or where it is shattered.

HAS SAMPLES OF FINE ORE

CECIL WADE RETURNS FROM TRIP TO FAR NORTH.

Bringing Some Specimens of Ore From Claims Located by Him While in That District.

Cecil R. Wade returned yesterday afternoon from British Columbia, where he has been engaged in prospecting for some months past, and brought with him some of the finest specimens of copper ore seen in this city.

The rock was taken from surface croppings on the Sadie claim, located by Mr. Wade, just before he left the district in which he was working. This country is what is known as the Hidden Valley country, and is but 13 miles from a railway, in the neighborhood of Ashcroft, B. C.

The Hidden Valley and Transvaal are the two most important mining groups in that country, which has only been opened up within the past year or so, and while there are many properties of great promise being developed, the two above mentioned are the only ones which have been opened up sufficiently to attract much attention from Eastern capital.

Mr. Wade's property is one of the most promising in that section and he feels assured of making a goodly sum of money out of it with a little more development. At present he has two years' assessment work done on the claim, which he has named the Sadie, and he has already received most flattering offers from capitalists for the property.

The ore samples brought down are quartzite gangue with oxides of copper, sulphurides of iron, and indications of tellurides and silver chlorides. At present assays are being made in Vancouver, B. C., for all the mineral elements of the ore, and these, Mr. Wade expects to receive in a day or so.

As soon as these are received he will be in a position to judge more fully of the value of his find.

PROFESSIONAL BEGGARS.

Man and Woman Follow the Hobo Life as a Business.

They left town. They went at the request of the police, but for three days of this week an able bodied man and woman, claiming to be husband and wife, have been in town asking alms. They claimed not to be able to work, but apparently were as healthy as anybody. They not only went from house to house begging for means to subsist on, but had nerve to, approach County Judge Hartman and request that the county help them by giving them money to live on and to get out of town. They wanted to go to Wallula from here. They put up at lodging houses two nights and were able to pay only a part of their bill. The last night they were in town they were taken in charge by the Salvation Army people have given a night's lodging and were assisted in other ways by the Army people.

The police claim that this man and woman are professional beggars. They are known far and wide and hail from Council Bluffs, Iowa. It is claimed they go from town to town and gather in many dollars which are sent back home where they are claimed to have a substantial bank account. Several traveling men claimed to have seen them in Salt Lake a few weeks ago, and since they were seen in every town down the line from there to Pendleton.

The woman was offered work here as a nurse at $2.50 a day and she gracefully declined, saying she could not work. They claim to have been running a hotel and were burned out with all their belongings. Their names could not be ascertained.

No One Cent Letter Postage.

The bill providing for the adoption of one cent postage, instead of two, on all first-class matter will not become a law, because the loss of revenue to the government would be too great. It is good policy to guard against losses of any kind, but especially against the loss of your health. For this purpose, Hostetters' Stomach Bitters should be taken, because it will strengthen the stomach, perfect the digestion and keep the bowels open, thus protecting you from all sickness. If, however, you have lost your health and suffer from headache, indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation or biliousness, you need the Bitters at once, because it is a specific remedy for these ailments, and will cure you. Try a bottle and see for yourself.

C. S. JACKSON, Pub., Portland, Or.

The Journal Newspaper.

The Journal property has been purchased and has passed under the control of the undersigned, and the paper will be conducted on lines of greatest benefit to Portland, to Oregon and to the great Northwest, and in many ways conducted differently, as to men, measures and methods, from those of its contemporaries which follow narrow grooves of newspaper habit.

The Journal in head and heart will stand for the people, be truly Democratic and free from political entanglements and machinations, believing in the principles that promise the greatest good to the greatest number—ALL MEN, regardless of race, creed or previous condition of servitude.

Extraneous assurances are cheap and empty. I wish to make none. Performance is better than promise; action more fruitful than words. The columns of the Journal from day to day will better reflect the spirit behind the paper. It shall be a FAIR newspaper and not a snail and selfish sheet. In short, an honest, sincere attempt will be made to build up and maintain a newspaper property in Portland that will be a credit to "where rolls the Oregon" country and the multitude of people who are interested in its development and advancement.

Portland capital largely is behind the Journal, and the fund is ample for all purposes. Coupled with energy and enthusiasm, the work of making a paper, devoted to Portland's varied interests, is begun. The support of the freedom-loving, the intelligent, generous people of Oregon is invited and will be duly appreciated by still greater endeavor and achievement on the part of the Journal, which hopes ever to become stronger in equipment, stronger in purpose, stronger in news resources, and stronger in good deeds.
