ON MURDER CHARGE

THE ALLEGED SLAYERS OF NELSON UNDER ARREST.

Were Caught by Clever Detective Work, and After Being in the "Sweat Box" Made a Practical Confession—Blacksmith Hurt in a Runaway.

Walla Walla, Aug. 28.—"Bill" Killert, for several years an engine wiper at Pasco, and Oscar Bradshaw, a son of a prominent farmer residing a few miles from this city, are in the county jail charged with having murdered Peter Nelson, the Swede who was held up and shot at Pasco Monday morning. The capture of the two men was brought about by Sheriff Davis, of Franklin county, and Sheriff Kees, of Walla Walla, who did some pretty detective work and acted quickly upon a slight clue obtained soon after the crime was committed. On Bradshaw when he was arrested was a revolver with two chambers empty, thought to be the one used in killing Nelson.

Who the Men Are.

Killet is about 24 years of age, while it is said Bradshaw is but 19. Killet has been employed at Pasco for some time, and Bradshaw was employed by the Northern Pacific as a fireman on a freight train running into Pasco, where the two became acquainted. Young Bradshaw has been reared on a farm and it was a surprise to everyone when he was connected with the crime.

After the men were locked up in jail they were given a "sweating" by the officers, and as a result a practical confession was made covering the crime from start to finish, the men claiming that they shot the Swede by accident. The younger of the two entered the car and proceeded to hold up Nelson, while the older man kept watch outside.

Nelson resisted when his money was wanted, and Bradshaw claims that he was not accustomed to the gun and it was discharged accidentally. The revolver was given to Bradshaw just before the crime was committed, by Killet. The two men will be arraigned in court on the charge of murder.

Hurt in a Runaway.

John Leroux, a blacksmith, was seriously injured in a runaway yesterday at his farm, 16 miles from this city. Mr. Leroux had gone to the farm to see about his threshing, and taking a horse from the barn, hitched it to a cart. At once it became frightened and ran away. Mr. Leroux was thrown from the cart and received a frightful cut under the chin and a broken frontal bone as well as other minor injuries. After the accident the injured man was brought to this city before medical aid could be secured. He has a strong physique and will likely recover.

THREE SISTERS MEET.

After Long Separation, Have a Happy Reunion at Baker City.

Three sisters met in this city yesterday afternoon after a separation of 22 years. The reunited sisters are Mrs. Q. T. Stern, of this city; Mrs. W. C. Hindman, of Baker, and Mrs. George Thomas, of Rockport, Ind. Mrs. Thompson, who is accompanied by her son, Wayne, arrived in the city a few days ago, coming by the Southern route and having stopped at San Antonio, Texas, and San Francisco. To say the ladies were overjoyed at the reunion is putting it mildly. They are all domiciled at the Hindman ranch. The first night the trio met they sat up until 5 o'clock in the morning, the night following they made it 4 o'clock and now that the novelty has worn off, they make 3 o'clock their regular bedtime.—Baker City Democrat.

FREE DELIVERY NEXT YEAR.

Pendleton Citizens Will Have to Get Mail at Postoffice While Longer.

Postmaster Lot Livermore has received word from Washington, D. C., stating that the long-talked-of free delivery system for Pendleton would not be established now until the first of next year.

For many months the citizens of this town have been expectantly awaiting the time when their mail would be brought to their doors, and the time for the establishing of the system has been set three or four times, but always something interfered and now another delay is announced. The last set date was the 1st of September. Now Postmaster Livermore announces positively that it will be established the first of the year.

FRAZIER HOLDS THIRD.

Two Men Now Ahead of Him in Race For Journal Cup.

Frank Frazier now holds third place in the race for the Journal loving cup to be given to the most popular B. P. O. E. member. Not long ago Frazier had the lead and his only dangerous rival was George E. Streeter, of Portland. Today Streeter takes second place with B. B. Rich in first place and Frazier is forced to third place. Rich has 16,521 votes to his credit; Streeter 14,514 and Frazier has 10,800. This is quite a lead the other fellows have on Mr. Frazier, but another change may take place at any time.

Mr. Frazier's friends in Eastern Oregon have been quietly at work for several days and the Journal announces that an "avalanche" of buchgrass votes within a few days would be no surprise" and would make the story read entirely differently.

There are now 27 names entered in the contest. The fourth man in the fight only had 480 votes for the cup and from him they run down to only 2 votes. The contest closes September 13.

CHARLES MARSH BACK.

A Good Word About Yakima, But Not so of Pasco.

Charles A. Marsh returned this morning from North Yakima, where he has been looking up a business location. He is well pleased with the outlook for the Yakima valley, and says things are on the boom there. He said some land was selling for $800 an acre and fruit was immense. One man has 10 acres in different kinds of fruits and was offered $2500 for his apple crop on the trees. He came through Pasco on his return, and says the hobo crop is as large there as ever.

Tried to Hold Up a Negro.

A few nights ago two drummers went over from the train to a saloon to get a drink. They were followed by a darkey. The drummers got inside the saloon and two footpads undertook to hold up the darkey. They ran back to the train, followed by the negro and the two would-have-been robbers were in close pursuit. He says hardly a night passes that an attempt is not made to rob some one. The men doing the robbing are all well-dressed and they pick on the working man usually. He says half of the crooked work done in Pasco does not come to the notice of the officers.

Births.

The following increase in the population of Pendleton is reported by Dr. C. J. McFaul: To Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Anderson, of the reservation, a 10½ pound boy. Mr. and Mrs. N. Joerger, of the west end of the city, a boy. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mallary of West Webb street, a boy.

Repairing Hotel.

A crew of men and teams are at work today clearing away and hauling off the debris of the recent fire which destroyed the barn and damaged Hotel Eastern. Carpenters are also at work repairing the hotel building.

BEET PULLERS ARE HERE

ARE DOING BATTLE WITH THE INDIANS TODAY.

La Grande Team Has Been Materially Strengthened Since Its Last Appearance and Will Fight Hard for Victory.

The La Grande baseball team came in today and is doing battle royal with the Indians on the Alta grounds this afternoon. The lads have improved greatly in team work since their last appearance here, and have added several new husky players who will do much to help them take a few love tokens from the Indians' scalp belt.

Since La Grande announced her determination to stay in the league in spite of all discouragements and misfortune, the team has been given to understand that it was made up as it was to stay for the remainder of the season, and as a consequence the boys have developed team work which is doing much to help them scale the percentage ladder. There are first-class ball players in the La Grande team, but not men who depend on individual work to win their games, and it is by close combination play that they have crawled up to third place with a good chance of going into second before the season ends.

They will play on a much better diamond this time than when they last appeared here, the committee having charge of the grounds having had them put in first-class shape, better, in fact, than at any time this season.

This will be the last appearance of the Beet Pullers here this season and the fans are turning out to give them a royal send-off. They also play tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday.

The Western Alaska salmon pack is reported about 20 per cent short of last year's output.
