GENERAL NEWS.

Eight hundred cement finishers and helpers are out on a strike at Chicago.

Cole and Jim Younger will apply for a full pardon. They desire to return to Missouri.

The bicycle trust wants its affairs put in better shape and has asked for the appointment of a receiver in the interest of the bond and stockholders.

George T. Granger, mayor of Louisville, Ky., announces that he is in favor of prize fighting and that he will not interfere with the McGovern-Corbett fight.

A great sensation has been caused in Spain by the arrest of several high officials charged with defrauding the state to the extent of $400,000 and with accepting bribes.

Official statistics show that 554,000 foreigners visited Rome from January to June of this year. The total revenue from these foreign visitors is estimated at $10,000,000.

Governor White, of West Virginia, has been petitioned by union miners to send troops to preserve order until the strike is over. They give as a reason that the troops are mostly union men and look upon non-union men with the same contempt as they do.

Representatives of 40 butter renovating creameries met recently in Chicago and organized a national organization of Process Butter Manufacturers. The objects of the association are to keep in touch with one another, keep down the purchasing price and to better the trade.

Seventy-five hundred, out of 12,000 carpenters connected with the New York District Council of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners have struck for an advance in wages. Thirty-five hundred of the strikers want their demands almost immediately. The Master Carpenters' Association has decided unanimously to refuse all demands.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST NEWS.

The total fish pack for the season at Astoria is estimated at 399,600 cases, being a deficiency of 40 per cent.

Jeff Maynard's separator exploded and was burned while threshing near Colton, Wash. This is the fourth threshing to be destroyed in this manner in Whitman county this season.

So great has been the influx of people to the Yakima valley during the present season that hotel accommodations in North Yakima are not equal to the demands. The hotels and boarding houses are now crowded.

C. R. Mays, who has a large farm near Almota, Wash., finished threshing his oats lately and had an average yield of 79 bushels per acre from 56 acres. The oats are of the white variety and the quality of the grain is fine. Mr. Mays began threshing 275 acres of wheat then, which, he is confident, will yield at least 40 bushels per acre.

The water in Snake River is so low that the O. R. & N. Company has announced that it will accept no more freight until the fall rains begin. It is reported that the river is now lower than ever before known at this season. This is believed to be due to the large amount of water taken out by large irrigating companies in Southern Idaho.

Forest fires are raging in the northwestern part of Clark county, Washington, and considerable damage is reported up to this time. Fine tracts of timber are being destroyed, and the total loss from the flames will undoubtedly be heavy before the fall rains quench the fire. Twelve hundred cords of wood, the property of Frank Kubik, of Woodlawn, have been burned.

DOINGS OF DADS

CITY RECORDER McCOURT RESIGNS—OTHER BUSINESS.

City Council Accepted the Resignation of City Recorder McCourt—Discussed Improvements, Appointed Special Committees and Allowed the Regular Monthly Bills.

The business of the city dads at the council meeting was limited last night. City Recorder John McCourt tendered his resignation, which was accepted, but his successor was not appointed. Mr. McCourt will continue to do the business of the police court until his successor is appointed and qualified, which will be done as soon as a full meeting of the council can be had. Mr. McCourt has acted as recorder since the first of the year and his resignation was handed in because of the forming of a partnership in the law business with John J. Balleray. The council tendered him a vote of thanks for the efficient way in which he has conducted the business.

Street Grading Discussed.

The question of grading streets and improvements was brought up and discussed at length. Mayor Halley reported that the Lee street bridge was needing repairs and also Main street bridge. Councilman Somerville was appointed special committeeman to confer with the county in repairing this bridge and the city would pay its share of the expenses.

Petition for Grades.

A petition was presented by Ellen Livermore with nine signers, to have grades established on the north side of the river where there are no official grades. Councilmen Clopton, Dickson and Johnson were appointed to investigate and report as to what they thought best to be done in this matter, but it was the consensus of opinion that the grades should be fixed.

Mrs. Livermore also presented a petition with four signers asking that a grade be established on Main street, between Jackson and Wilson streets, and for a sidewalk along the same. This was referred to the ordinance committee.

Petition for Extension of Levee.

E. Egerts presented a petition to have the levee extended from its present terminus to the J. D. Price farm. The petition was signed by nine people, but it was postponed and no action taken.

A committee consisting of Somerville and Clopton was appointed to collect the city's share of road taxes.

FRAZIER REMAINS THIRD.

In Race for Journal Loving Cup, to Be Given to the Most Popular Elk.

George E. Streeter, of Portland, is now almost 2000 votes ahead of his closest competitor for the Oregon Daily Journal's loving cup, being advertised to be given away on the 13th instant to the most popular Elk.

Streeter's friends are making a strenuous effort to win the cup for him. His closest rival is B. B. Rich, also of Portland, and Frank Frazier, of Pendleton, is still in third place. Frazier's friends are not making any blow about what they are doing and a surprise may be in store for the Portlandites before the contest closes.

For the three leaders in the contest the vote stands: Streeter, 26,902; Rich, 24,909; Frazier, 10,800.
