A marriage license was issued this afternoon to Thomas B. Simonton and Iva May Ogilvie. The groom-to-be is a prominent stockman of Gurdane, and the bride is a resident of the east end of the county.

HOOPER HELD IN IDAHO.

The Walla Walla Forger Held in Boise for Writing Bogus Checks.

Deputy Sheriff Painter, of Walla Walla county, passed through town last evening on his way home from Pocatello, where he went to arrest A. Hooper, wanted in the Inland Empire town for forging checks and obtaining money under false pretense.

Deputy Painter landed Hooper in jail, but he was not permitted to bring the forger back with him as he was wanted in Boise for the same kind of crime which he committed in Walla Walla. After Hooper was landed in the Pocatello jail he attempted suicide but did not succeed. He kept a small pocket knife concealed about him while being searched, and after being left in the cell Monday night he made a desperate effort to end his life by stabbing himself around the heart several times. Why Hooper did not succeed in his attempt is not known. When the deputy went to the jail next morning he found Hooper in a bleeding condition and six separate wounds in the region of the heart. The wounds were all shallow and nothing but flesh wounds, so that Hooper will not suffer much inconvenience from them unless blood poisoning or some other complication should set in.

The Diagnosis.

There are things that only a doctor can successfully accomplish, and there are other things which the physician may safely relegate to a competent assistant.

"I understand the doctor has just been to see your husband, Mrs. McCarthy," said Mr. McCarthy's employer. "Has he made a diagnosis?"

For a moment Mrs. McCarthy was submerged in a sea of doubt, but she rose triumphant.

"No, sir," she said confidently, "he left it to me, him saying I was well able to do it, sir. It's to be made wid linsed on a sbout muslin, sir."

Sagacity.

"Why, yes, I have seen a good deal of Tom Robinson recently. Fact is, he's one of the most entertaining men I ever met. Really, I didn't know there was so much in him. He's positively brilliant when you get him talking. Most delightful companion and so hospitable and"—

"I see. Which of Robinson's sisters is it—the little one with the black hair or the tall blond one?"

"It's the little one with the black hair."

A Kiss and a Snap.

In 1887 Mr. Thomas Saverland brought an action against Miss Caroline Newton, who had bitten a piece out of his nose for his having tried to kiss her by way of a joke. The defendant was acquitted, and the judge laid down that "when a man kisses a woman against her will she is fully entitled to bite his nose if she so pleases."—"The Kiss and Its History."

Lapetus Lagoon.

"You understand, of course, that my daughter has been reared in the lap of luxury"

"Why, she told me last night that mine was the first—er, that is, I hope, sir, that I may be able to make such provision as to keep her from pining for the lap you mention."—Chicago Herald.

The Same Old Climate.

"Is not your climate rather changeable?" asked the tourist.

"No, it isn't," answered the old settler who always contradicted. "If it was, don't you suppose we'd have changed it for something else years ago?"—Washington Star.

A Modest Theopian.

Briggs—That fool Stepphign considers himself the greatest actor on earth.

Benson—Is that so? He's getting strangely modest. He used to consider himself the greatest actor that ever lived.—Titt-Bits.

Never tell a man that he has made a fool of himself. If he knows it, he will get angry—and he will get angry also if he doesn't know it.

"It's the Cut."

An aged country rector who had an old tailor as his clerk, returning from his church one Sunday with the latter, thus addressed him:

"Thomas, I cannot think how it is that our church should be getting thinner and thinner, for I am sure I preach as well as ever I did and ought to have far more experience than I had when I first came among you."

"Indeed," replied Thomas. "I'll tell you what; old parsons nowadays are just like old tailors, for I'm sure I sew as well as ever I did in my life, and the cloth is the same, but it's the cut, sir, ah! it's the new cut."—Pearson's.

Diogenes and Dogs.

Diogenes died from the bite of a dog, and his last request to the neighbors was that they throw his body into the alley for the dogs to eat, but they refused to do so and gave him a noble funeral and erected a monument in his honor, upon which was carved the figure of a dog, the symbol of his life.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Discouraging.

Jester—Poor old Skindint has his troubles!

Jimson—What! Why, he's making barrels and barrels of money.

Jester—I know, but the price of barrels has gone up.—Boston Post.

"It is a wise guy who does not monkey with his destiny."
