COMMERCE—TRADE

NO CHANGES IN THE LOCAL MARKET.

Fruits Beginning to Come in—Little Wheat Sold in Pendleton—Market Uncertain—Farmers Think They Are Justified in Holding for Better Market.

For a week there has been no change locally in the market quotations in any lines. Everything is at a standstill but prices are strong on most groceries.

Fruits are beginning to come into the market from local sources and many kinds have fallen in price slightly since they opened, but no change is noted within a week. Apples, pears, plums, peaches and all kinds of the delicious fruits are to be had at every grocery store. Watermelons are also getting to be almost a drug on the market and several grocery firms are getting them by the wagonload from the Milton and Freewater country, in the east end of the county.

Meats remain the same as quoted a week ago.

Wheat Remains at 50 Cents.

Wheat remains at 50 cents although it is slightly off at this figure. Dealers say they are paying 50 cents a bushel, but it is really worth 49½ on the local market, according to what they are having to turn it for.

There has been comparatively little wheat sold in Pendleton as the farmers are holding for an expected raise in the price. Most of the grain has been sold in the east end of the county. Around Milton and Weston it is said that almost all of the holdings which amount to much has been contracted. The farmers of the east and seem not to have so much confidence in a fluctuating market, as the wheat growers around Pendleton.

Markets Uncertain.

The markets are somewhat uncertain at present and it is impossible for the dealers to make any calculations as to the future. Farmers claim that the local market is not what the foreign markets justify, but whether or not they see this raise remains to be seen.

Barley is 70 Cents.

Barley remains at 70 cents a hundred and little is selling. At this
ferring to hold for an advance, which they say is sure to come.

Local Market Prices.

The following shows the prices paid on the local market: Raspberries, $2.75 a crate.
Blackberries, $2.25 a crate.
Pineapples, $6 a dozen.
Watermelons, $5 a dozen.
Muskmelons, $3 a dozen.

Portland Wheat Market.

Portland, Sept. 4.—The new crop of wheat is moving slowly this way, but it will be well into September before there will be anything like a free movement. Farmers have sold but little so far, although bids are at above the market value. Private advices from interior points state farmers have very advanced ideas as to selling prices and show a strong disposition to hold out for more money.
The export demand is fair. Interior merchants are said to be actively competing for good-sized parcels and are running prices up. Harvesting as yet is hardly finished in any section and it will be fully a fortnight before definite returns from the harvest field can be secured of the amount of wheat harvested. Yields have been very disappointing so far, notwithstanding the acreage is fully 10 per cent greater than a year ago; the yields have decreased from 15 to 30 per cent. Exporters are at times in the market for wheat and at present ruling prices for cargoes in London, with freight rate added, 61 cents is an extreme figure for Walla Walla club; blue stem, 63 cents, and valley, 62 cents. Valley crop is turning out better than at first reported and this section of the country will have a fair crop—hardly enough for any exporting, but plenty for the mills, that are very numerous in that section.

Wheat in San Francisco.

San Francisco, Sept. 4.—The market here has shown no change since our last review. Harvest is practically over and good crops have been harvested all over the state except in the southern portion. The market has shown little activity and the export business is rather quiet. A fair movement is in progress, holders offering freely and meeting the market.
Prices range from $1.13¼@1.15 for No. 1 shipping; milling, $1.17½@ 1.22¼ per cental.

United States department of agriculture, climate and crop bulletin of the weather bureau, Oregon section, for the week ending Monday, September 2:

Athens, Umatilla county, L. A.
Githens.—About two weeks yet to close of harvest; wheat running about average. High winds just before harvest occasioned some loss.
Weather clear and cool. Much corn was planted this season and it gives promise now of an excellent crop for this locality.
