PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Smith Entertain at Their Home on Bear Creek.

An enjoyable party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Smith, at their home on Bear Creek, Wednesday evening, to a number of invited friends.

The evening was spent in dancing, games and a general sociable time, with a splendid luncheon served in the interim. The grounds were brilliantly lighted with candles, so bright that the young people enjoyed games of croquet to their heart's content.

The grounds had the appearance of a summer garden. Groups of beautifully dressed young women accompanied by their escorts, strolled here and there in the well-lighted grounds, and hammocks swung and swayed in the brilliant lights, while gay laughter and soft words of friendship mingled in a grand chorus of music to those who are still young enough to see the bright side of life.

Among the leading features of the luncheon were baked chicken, cold ham, nut cakes, chocolate cakes, cream pies, lemonade, ice cream, peaches and cream and many other delicacies.

Music was furnished by Clarke Sturdevant. His reputation is sufficient guarantee that the music was first-class.

Following were among the number present:

Misses Mabel Thompson, Irene Nolan, Katie Smith, Ester Hascall, Nettie Howe, Alta Boylen, Elsie Olcott, Hazel Olcott, Nona Boyd, Adda Cable, Nellie Mulkey, Anna, Vesta and Elma Boylen, Alice Warner, Beatrice Byrd; Grandma Byrd, Mrs. Arley Byrd, Mrs. H. Boylen, Mrs. Charles Olcott, Mrs. Warner, Mrs. Fremont, Mrs. Fred Hascall, Mrs. A. J. Smith, Mrs. Clark Sturdevant, Mrs. Ed Rhinerson, Mrs. Toneman Cable; Messrs.

BUNCOED AT UMATILLA.

P. E. Patterson Loses $45 Which He Loaned a Stranger on Security of Forged Draft.

While waiting between trains at Umatilla a few days ago, P. E. Patterson was buncoed out of $45 by a man by the name of A. D. Lane.

Lane and Patterson had been working in the Palouse harvest fields and Patterson concluding that he had made all the money he wanted, announced that he was going to return to his home in the East. Lane said he was coming to Eastern Oregon and would accompany Patterson on his way. They became fast friends and Patterson was glad to have Lane's company. When they reached Umatilla the trains were late and the young men had to lay over several hours. Lane became separated from Patterson and when he returned said he had become involved in a poker game and lost all of his ready cash. He asked his friend to help him out of the pinch by loaning him $45. Patterson demurred, but Lane told him he would give him all of the security he wanted. He drew a draft from his pocket calling for $200 on the Pocatella Bk. This looked good to Patterson and he took it as security for the $45 until Lane could get some money from the bank. Lane then left his friend and that was the last seen of him. This did not worry Patterson until he found that the draft was a forgery and he had been buncoed out of his hard-earned cash. Lane is still at large although the officers are making every effort to locate him.

HE WAS EASY.

So Says Miss Dollie Brown, of Downs, Washington.

A letter of inquiry was received Tuesday by Judge Thomas Fitz Gerald from Mrs. A. L. Brown, of Downs, Wash., wanting to know if the marriage of Miss Jeannette La Pierri and A. W. Melton, by the judge a few months ago, was legal.

There is quite a romance behind the marriage of these young people. Miss La Pierri came to Pendleton a few months ago and was met the next evening for the first time by Mr. Melton. It was a case of love at first sight—at least on the part of Melton, but it seems that the young lady was looking for a graft of some kind and married for the money she was lead to believe the young man possessed. They were married the second day after meeting, and it was only a few days after the wedding until the bride, finding that the wealth of the young man was limited, left him without ceremony. She left a note behind telling her husband how she had "worked" him and for him not to be so "easy" next time.

The letter written to Judge Fitz Gerald is supposed to come from the young woman's mother, and it states that her name was not La Pierri, but Dollie Brown, and instead of being 19 years of age, as the license stated, she was only 15. Now she wants to know if the marriage was legal.

Just what answer the judge will make to the inquiry has not been determined.

WALLA WALLA NEWS.

Democratic Convention Names Ticket—Most Harmonious Proceedings.

Walla Walla, Sept. 10.—The democratic county convention met in this city yesterday, named a ticket, passed strong resolutions in favor of a railroad commission, elected 18 delegates to the state convention, and reorganized the campaign committee for the ensuing year. The body did its business with dispatch, but no unusual amount of enthusiasm was manifested. The work required a little over three hours time.

The convention was organized by the election of Francis A. Garrecht, chairman, and J. J. Schiffer, secretary. The usual committees were named and the forenoon session closed until 1:30 to allow the committees to report. In the afternoon the ticket was named, a platform adopted and other business transacted.

The ticket nominated follows: Representative 12th district—James McInroe.

Representatives 13th district—W. H. Dunphy and Campbell Robinson. Sheriff—Patrick Donovan. Auditor—W. J. Honeycutt. Clerk—A. O. Hauerbach. Treasurer—Harry Lasater. Prosecuting attorney—T. A. Paul. Assessor—C. C. Maiden. Superintendent of schools—Fred M. Hedger. Surveyor—James Rigby. Coroner—J. W. Cobberly. Commissioners—George Struthers and W. W. Maxwell.

The work of the convention was done harmoniously, there being but few contests, and they of minor importance. Most of the nominations were made by acclamation. The resolutions indorse a railroad commission, condemn the republican party, declare for free trade, demand anti-pass legislation, and oppose the railroad merger.

Excursion to Washington, D. C. On the occasion of the G. A. R. encampment, to be held at Washington, D. C., October 6 to 11, the O. R. & N. Co. will sell round trip tickets at $69.85. Dates of sale September 29 and 30, limit 30 days. Choice of routes, going and coming.

Notice. All persons knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle their accounts. H. M. SLOAN.
