MARRIAGE RECORD LEADS THE DIVORCE RECORD.

Warranty Deeds Lead All Other Instruments—Condition of County Finances—Homes and Schools on Upward Tendency.

While it is a quiet time just now among the court house officers, yet the officials are comparatively busy, and always have a news item that is of interest to the general public.

The county treasurer recently finished his bi-monthly report, the tax-collecting branch of the sheriff's office is busy arranging for the collection of delinquent taxes after October 6, and the assessor is busy with the tax rolls, the county clerk's force is doing regular routine work, the recorder is copying instruments of record on the "big book," where men will go for future ages to see how their real estate stands, the county superintendent is busy preparing for the work incident to the opening of the fall term of school, and all of the county officials are occupied and at their respective posts of duty.

Treasurer's Office.

County Treasurer Sommerville's last bi-monthly report, made August 31, makes a good showing for the county. He has a balance on hand of $44,851 and the promptness of taxpayers in paying up their taxes under the new law insures good collections this fall and still better when the new year's levy is made. The county is hammering away at its indebtedness and with a few more years such as the past has been the figures ought to be knocked into "goose eggs." The strong confidence in the county is manifested in the fact that although County Treasurer Sommerville issued calls on warrants for the sum of $21,136.10 with interest accrued in the sum of $2325.79, last June and all interest has ceased on this sum, yet the creditors are still holding their warrants. They know that the money is safe and would just as soon have the money in the coffers of the county as to have it in bank. It also shows good conditions. When that amount of money is lying idle it means that the moneyed men are in easy circumstances.

Why No Call Will be Made Soon.

With a surplus of over $44,000 on hand some might ask why there was not another call made. The reason is simple and satisfactorily explained. The county must always be on a safe and independent basis. It has its current expenses to meet and then the state will soon draw on it for the amount of the state levy. This will be over $20,000 and will have to be paid early in the fall. Then a portion of the surplus is school money belonging to various districts and the disbursement of this will begin with the opening of the schools. It is possible that no other calls for warrants will be made until early in the new year, but with the prospects of collections of taxes being good it is thought that heavy calls will be made early in the year.

Registered But Not Called.

Script to the amount of $111,603.78 has been registered, but has not been called yet. That seems like a large sum, stated an official, but when one contemplates the enormous wealth of this county, he finds that it is a small matter. The county is on a splendid basis and is getting better every year. No one need hesitate to come to Umatilla on account of heavy taxes or extravagance in office.

Recorder's Office.

The records are the indisputable indices of the trend of progress in the county. Seven instruments lay in a stack on Recorder Folsom's desk for record. "See here," he said, "Six of these are warranty deeds expressing large considerations and the other is a small mortgage that would neither make nor break anyone. Warranty deeds now hold precedence as to the number of instruments, and the record of one mortgage to six deeds is not always the ratio, but the daily grind shows that out and out deeds have the run, and they are generally conveyances of home tracts to substantial settlers. The consideration is always good and the amount paid is increasing right along, showing that Umatilla lands are growing in demand on a gradual and permanent basis.

Clerk's Office.

County Clerk Chamberlain is at ease with his work. Divorces are on the wane compared with this time last year and marriage licenses are increasing. Ten marriage licenses were issued during the month of August, and while this was below the standard, the clerk has hopes that the early fall, and especially Thanksgiving time will raise the record. A little more than a year ago it looked alarming at the clerk's office. The records made it appear that the number of divorce suits filed would outnumber the marriage licenses issued. June 6 of that year the divorce lawyers started in and within about a week 11 divorce suits were filed. It was published in the papers and the marriageable people seemed to become alarmed. Few applied for marriage licenses. The divorce suits led right along. The clerk and deputies discussed the matter and argued along the lines of what would be the results should the divorce suits get such a headway in Umatilla county that the separations should outnumber the marriages. The farther they speculated on the subject the more gloomy it looked.

Thanksgiving to the Rescue.

But Thanksgiving time came around and the divorce record was broken in short order. Everybody seemed to be thankful, or good, or in a loving mood—anyway the divorce lawyers rarely ever came about the clerk's office and the smiling, blushing young man with the tell-tale story on his face became a frequent visitor. The license record left the marriage record way behind and still leads. If Thanksgiving this November brings about as many marriages as last the clerk does not think the divorce record will ever approach it again.

With a good surplus in the treasury, prospects of large tax collections, good citizens buying homes and settling down for life, and the divorce record falling behind the marriage license records, and a fine school system, Umatilla has no reason to complain.

"A Broken Heart."

Have you seen "A Broken Heart"? If not, do not miss your opportunity to witness a play that never fails to hold an audience. Everywhere it is spoken of as possessing rare power to move and to entertain. The varied characters chosen by the author to reveal her intention are woven into action that in itself has artistic variety, and is alive with such elements as rivet attention.

The play is clean, clear and clever, and the fact that it is in its second season of success warrants the statement that it has lasting power, which can be said of very few dramas. The secret of this lies in the simplicity, truthfulness and varied human interests the author, Miss Esther Rujaero, has put into her play. "A Broken Heart" will appear at the Frazer opera house Saturday, September 13.
