

Get the Children Ready for School

The vacation draws to a close and Monday the girls and boys will return to their books, so see that they are properly fitted with good, substantial, neat appearing shoes. Don't let the children be pained by ill-fitting shoes, for it incapacitates them for diligent study.

We have made a special study and have secured the right things for the girls and boys.

FINE ENTERTAINMENT.

Master Dobson, the Famous Boy Vocalist, Greeted With a Large Audience.

The music warerooms of Wakefield & Co., on Court street, proved inadequate to accommodate the large gathering of people who turned out last evening to hear Master Thomas Dobson, the boy vocalist, Mrs. Logan, pianist, and Louis Bruce, the Pianola expert.

Master Thomas Dobson is gifted with a wonderful soprano voice and each selection was greeted with a round of applause, while his sister came in for a goodly share of applause for her skillful playing of the accompaniments. Mr. Bruce demonstrated the beauties of piano music when rendered by the aid of the Pianola.

Wakefield & Co. are being praised for the evening of pleasure furnished the music-loving people of Pendleton and it is regretted that accommodations could not be arranged for all present.

Miss Anna Kennedy, employed in Lee Teutsch's store, has gone to Portland and the coast.

Thomas Baker returned Thursday from Portland, where he spent 10 days attending the carnival.

Colonel August Arp was an Adams visitor to town last night. He left for his home this morning.

C. C. Bedford, of Boise, a registered pharmacist, has taken a position at Brock & McComas' drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. William Roesch and daughter, Miss Freida, have gone to Portland to attend the carnival.

W. D. Fletcher has returned from Idaho, where he spent the summer. He will remain here this winter.

Mrs. Disoway, Mrs. A. M. Raley, Mrs. Susan Welch and Mrs. Clara Cahoon have returned from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Judd left this morning for Portland, where they will attend the carnival and visit friends.

Mrs. M. A. Sheridan, daughter, Miss Maude, and Miss Ted Thompson have gone to Portland to attend the carnival.

Mrs. A. J. Dillon, who has been the guest of Mrs. A. W. Nye for several days, left this morning for her home at Meadows.

Charles Kennedy is in town from Cayuse, where he is running the warehouse for the Pacific Coast Warehouse Company.

Miss Edith Crockett left Thursday evening for Walla Walla, where she was called by the sickness of her sister, Miss Myrtle Crockett.

J. O. Mack, a former resident of Pendleton, and now one of the most popular knights of the road, is in Pendleton in the interests of his house, in the commercial line.

Clyde and Will Parkes, nephews of Joe Parkes, who have been spending the summer in the mountains with Mr. Parkes, left this morning for their home at Walla Walla.

T. H. Herbert, representing the R. P. Smith & Son's Shoe Manufacturing Company, of Chicago, and one of the best-known knights of the grip, is in town calling on his customers.

Sheriff T. D. Taylor, who returned yesterday morning from Salem, left again the same day with Mrs. Mollie Lavadore, who was adjudged insane and ordered taken to the asylum.

Miss Elsie Folsom, one of the teachers in the Pendleton public schools, has returned from her summer vacation and is preparing for the opening of school Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wall arrived this morning from Kansas and will make an extended visit with Mrs. Will's sister, Mrs. Theodore Danner and the Muir boys, who are brothers of Mrs. Wall.

W. S. Brown, formerly with the Tribune, has gone to Adams to take charge of the Adams Advance, which was unceremoniously left a few days ago by its former owner, Jack Craig. Mr. Craig left with his wife for California.

George Darveau, proprietor of Hotel St. George, returned this morning from Portland, where he had been taking in the carnival. Mr. Darveau says the carnival is not as good as last year, but it is attended by an immense mob of people.

Louis P. Bruce, the Pianola expert, who was at Wakefield's music warerooms last evening and assisted in entertaining the audience, was formerly a resident of Pendleton and with his brothers, conducted the Golden Rule hotel.

J. H. Wells, the fruit man of Free-water, was in town Thursday with a load of watermelons. Mr. Wells raises melons by the carload. He says they are quite good and while the season was not quite ideal for the melon crop, the output is as large as usual.

C. E. Hoover is in town from Camas Prairie. Mr. Hoover is in the stock business on the prairie, and says that the range is getting very short in that section. The stockmen are praying for rain to lay the dust and start grass to growing. Mr. Hoover is on his way to Salem on a business trip.

Thomas Hutchins and Miss Myrtle Hawk made application for temporary certificates to teach school in Umatilla county this morning and are undergoing a teachers' examination before County Superintendent Nowlin. Mr. Hutchins is from McMinnville, Or., and Miss Hawk lives in Umatilla county.

H. C. Leland and wife, old friends of C. R. Dutton, the candy man, arrived in town this morning from their home in St. John, Mich. Mr. Leland has been a very prosperous business man of St. John, and is here to find a new location. Pendleton and this climate suits him so far and he will remain here if he can get a place to go into business.

Mrs. Louis Hagen was brought to town Thursday evening and placed under the care of Dr. J. B. Cole, suffering with a badly scalded left arm. Mrs. Hagen was doing her household work and in some manner, she does not know how, either dropped her arm into the scalding water or spilled it on her arm. She says that she became unconscious of what she was doing for a moment, and the accident occurred while in this condition.

D. H. Sanders, one of Umatilla county's extensive farmers, living seven and a half miles northwest of Athena, passed through town Thursday evening on his way to Portland, to visit the carnival. From Portland he will go into the Willamette valley, where he intends to invest in a stock ranch if he finds what suits him. Mr. Sanders says he has only sold one carload of wheat out of his 1902 crop and the rest he has piled up in the field and covered, as it has been too hot to haul, and he did not care to sell at the prevailing price. He says a great deal of the wheat has been sold from the country surrounding him.

HEROIC ACTION OF PAINTER.

Idaho Man Rescues Little Girl From Being Run Over by Runaway Team.

Hope, Idaho, Sept. 12.—William Cowper's brave action yesterday saved the life of a little child, while her rescuer has a broken leg as the result of his noble work.

Cowper is a painter and paper hanger. He was going to work when he noticed a team coming down the street at full speed. The driver had fallen from the wagon. A little girl was standing in the street too frightened to run.

With a bound Cowper reached the little one and swung her clear out of the dashing team to the sidewalk. In turning Cowper slipped and fell, breaking his leg below the knee.

Willamette Sheep.

Five hundred head of stock sheep changed hands the other day at $2.75 per head, not counting lambs. The latter went at $1.50 per head. The sale was made by Dock Jackson and Henry Cauthorn to Baker & Hood, who have rented the stock farm of S. W. Jackson. Mr. Baker is a son of Thomas Baker of Soap Creek, and Mr. Hood is from the vicinity of Tagent.—Corvallis Times.

PEOPLES WAREHOUSE

GREAT MOVEMENT OF WHEAT.

Roads Full of Wagons Hauling the Wheat From the Country to the Warehouses.

The roads leading into Pendleton, as well as to every other station along the railroads where there is a grain warehouse, now present a very lively appearance.

Wheat hauling is the cause. Not an hour passes through the day but that a wagon, loaded or unloaded, passes to and fro along the roads in every direction.

There is also an activity in and about the warehouses and many men are kept busy caring for the grain which comes in from the country.

To show that many wheat wagons are coming to town daily it is only necessary to say that at 1 o'clock today 33 wheat wagons were standing in the vicinity of the court house and Byer's flouring mill. This is only one place and is saying nothing about the numerous wagons standing at other places during the noon hour. Most all of these wagons are four and six-horse teams and many of them are double wagons. They bring in from 30 to 60 sacks to the load.

This activity will be a feature for a month yet before all of the grain will have been received at the warehouses ready for shipment.

More Whisky-to-Indians Cases.

A dispatch was received from Commissioner Halley, of Pendleton, by United States District Attorney Hall yesterday, stating that several men had been arrested for selling whisky to Indians in Umatilla county, and that they were to be brought before him for examination. Mr. Halley did not state the number or the names of the prisoners, but he asked that either Mr. Hall or his assistant, Mr. Mays, come to Pendleton to conduct the prosecution. As Mr. Hall could not go, Mr. Mays left for Pendleton last night.—Oregonian, Sept. 11.
