TO ADVERTISE UMATILLA

LOCAL REAL ESTATE MAN WILL PREPARE LITERATURE.

People Who Have Been Passing Eastern Oregon by Will Be Told What is Here.

N. Berkley, real estate dealer, re turned this morning from Portland, where he went to confer with the im migration agent of one of the big trans-continental railroads in regard to the immigration movement whil is now on.

Mr. Berkley is making a strenuous effort to turn the eyes of the man with means, who is seeking a home in the Northwest, toward Umatilla and surrounding counties. He is get ting out a list of lands for sale in this and several of the adjoining counties to send to prospective home seekers. In these circulars will be found a description of each tract of saleable land, its advantages and re sources as well as the price for which it can be purchased.

The immigration movement for the past year has not been touching Umatilla county to any great extent.
The work of Mr. Berkley is to see if this condition cannot be changed.
He, as well as many other conserva tive men who know the situation, content that there is no better ad vantages in the great Northwest than can be found in Umatilla coun ty and Eastern Oregon. This section has been passed up in the past. This is because of the transportation com panies' rates to terminals.

One can get a ticket to Portland, Spokane and Seattle from Eastern terminals at the same rate as to Pen dleton, and these terminals have been advertised by the railroads and commercial organizations more ex tensively than the inland towns and country.

This has taken the homeseeker by Pendleton and set him down in West ern Oregon towns. Some of these hear of the advantages in Umatilla county and finally drift here, but many of them never hear of this sec tion.

Dr. Whitaker Returns.
After nearly three months spent in pleasure seeking, Dr. C. J. Whitaker has returned to Pendleton and re opened his dental parlors. Dr. Whit aker and William Atchison left Pen dleton the 12th of June for Coos Bay, where they proceeded to Gray's Har bor, and then to Quinalt Bay. There they spent most of their time while gone, and had a pleasant time hunt ing and fishing. They killed some elk and deer and all the small game they wanted. They also had all the fishing they wanted and brought home a 10-gallon keg of pickled trout which they will have for future use.
After leaving Quinalt they were rowed down the river to the ocean by Indians and then took the train for home. Mr. Atchison remained in Portland and will not be home until Sunday.

S. L. Thomas, of Connell, Wash., has just finished harvesting 4200 acres of wheat which yielded him over 100,000 bushels.

A CAR FAMINE.

Farmers Unable to Move Their Wheat on the W. & C. R. for Lack of Cars—Railroad Does Not Stand by Promise—Some Wheat Shipped Via O. R. & N.

It is now estimated that more than one-half of the Umatilla county wheat crop of the present year is con tracted.

The yield of the county is 3,500,000 bushels and 1,500,000 or more has been sold. The 500,000 bushels will have to be kept in the graneries for home use, such as feed and for seed.

Comparatively little of this wheat has been shipped. Most of it is yet in the field as hauling is only fairly under good headway. What is sold is only contracted and to be deliver ed later.

More grain has been shipped out of the east end of the county, over the O. R. & N. line than has gone out of the country tributary to the "High Line." Very little has gone to tide water over this line and it runs through one of the greatest wheat raising sections of the county. All of the Hellx country is tributary to this and the dealers are much exer cised over the situation and outlook for shipments. There is a shortage of cars and a practical tie-up on this line as a result. It was announced by the W. & C. R. Company during the early season and before ship ment began, that there would be am ple transportation facilities for all of the shipping that would be needed along their line, but in this the com pany has not kept its promise. Just when the situation will be relieved is a question.

The Price Outlook.

The present price of wheat is 50 cents. This has been the prevailing price for several weeks and the indi cations are now that wheat will go up within the next few days. This assertion is made because of the fact that seldom before, at the opening of the market, has the price remained at a strong figure so long at a time.

It usually fluctuates and the market is uncertain, but this season it has remained at 50 cents with a decided ly strong tendency. Charters are al so lower than usual and this goes to foretell a rise in price. The man who sold a few weeks ago at 50 cents, may have cause to regret it within the next 10 days.
