THE NEWS OF UMATILLA COUNTY

WESTON ITEMS. SHIPPING OF PRUNES.

News, Personal and Otherwise.
Gleaned From the Weston Leader of Thursday.

Dr. J. M. Pruett, of Oakland, Cal., brother of the late Rev. W. H. Pruett, came up from Pendleton Tuesday on a business visit.

Mrs. Lee Moorhouse was in the city from Pendleton Sunday, visiting the bedside of Thomas Moorhouse.

The Normal has never before had such a prosperous outlook. President Martindale hopes to double the attendance by the close of the year.

"Uncle Tom" Moorhouse, the aged Weston citizen who has been at death's door for several weeks, was taken to the hospital at Walla Walla Tuesday by R. M. Powers. The patient was also accompanied by his nurse, J. D. Smith.

Hon. Jacob Betz, ex-mayor of Walla Walla, was in the city Friday, making arrangements to secure Weston brick for extensive improvements at his brewery. He contemplates rebuilding the entire wooden portion of the brewery, and installing a large amount of new machinery.

O. C. Turner, an independent buyer who buys wheat in any warehouse, purchased the following lots this week on a basis of 50 cents for No. 1: L. R. Van Winkle, 1300 sacks; J. C. Turner, 400 sacks; Frank Winn, 608 sacks; A. L. Douglas, 1000 sacks; H. C. Ferguson, 140 sacks. This wheat goes to the Northwestern Warehouse Company.

Mountain ground has led this year in wheat production. On Reed & Hawley mountain L. R. Van Winkle cropped 1831 sacks of red chaff wheat from 100 acres, an average of a little better than 40 bushels. His ten acres of barley yielded the remarkable figure of 85 bushels per acre. Two years ago, from the same acreage of wheat his crop was only 1200 sacks.

J. H. Price, agent for the Kerr-Gifford Company, bought this week the remainder of J. N. York's crop, 1586 bushels, and other lots as follows: L. Caplinger, 546 bushels; John Beamer, 1704 bushels; James King, 1200 bushels.

John Claypool arrived last Thursday from Prineville on a visit to his sister, Mrs. P. J. Purcell. On the following Saturday Mr. Claypool was taken seriously ill, and his daughter is expected to arrive soon from Prineville.

ATTRACTIONS AT THE FRAZER.

Saturday Night, "Lost in New York," Monday Night, "Thelma" and Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, the Elizabeth Hale Company.

"Lost in New York" which comes to the Frazer, Saturday night, is one of the most charming and interesting plays ever presented to an American audience, and the announcement that local theater-goers will have an opportunity to witness it in our local playhouse is good news in as much as it is a production intended for the large cities only. And our local manager is to be commended for his enterprise in securing it. The play owes its success to the perfection of its production, to its brilliant collection of interpreters, and to the careful attention to detail in all matters. The story is one of sorrow, devotion, and temptation, but serious as the theme is, the play contains many illuminating bits of clever comedy, interpolated with high-class specialties. The sale of seats opened at Frazer's Thursday morning and it looks good to the manager. Prices are 25c, 50c, 75c and $1.

"Thelma."

"Thelma," which will be presented by Aiden Benedict's excellent company at the Frazer on Monday, September 22, is a romantic drama taken from Marie Corelli's story. The first, second and fourth acts take place in Norway, the third in London. The scenic features are not of the ordinary and the play follows the book closely enough to satisfy the readers of the Corelli story. After marrying Thelma, Errington takes her to his home in London, where Lady Winsleigh proceeds to destroy her faith in her husband. It takes a good deal of persuading on her ladyship's part and she has to stand the disapproving glance of the audience, but she finally succeeds in driving Thelma back to Norway by means of a letter Errington had written to a buxom actress. Lady Winsleigh's efforts are entirely in behalf of her own affection for Errington and are altogether wasted. Errington is innocent of anything like unfaithfulness to Thelma, but appearances are against him and the despairing woman readily makes them appear to convict him.

Errington follows Thelma to Norway and the last act is the most spectacular of the four. It shows that Allen Fjord and the rainbow bridge in midwinter. The snow avalanche is another well handled effect in the last act, which is the most interesting of them all.

"Thelma" is said to be a play of heart interest, enlivened by plenty of true, wholesome comedy and a drama

Sixty People Employed in the Warehouses at Good Pay.

Freewater, Or., Sept. 19.—An average of a car and three-quarters daily of prunes is being sent out by the three companies operating in the local fields. The Milton Fruitgrowers' Union is shipping chiefly to Illinois points, while the markets of the Walla Walla Produce Company, and of S. S. Shields are found in Wyoming, Colorado, Montana and nearer home. Sixty people are employed in the warehouses here, packing, sorting, counting, boxing and other branches. Girls are making from $1.50 to $2.25 per day, a figure so good that it is impossible to secure one of them for household work and domestics are scarce in Freewater.

Heavy shipments of apples are also going out to the Middle West. The last consignment of grapes are being shipped, and some peaches. The latter turned out somewhat better than expected, particularly in quality.

Helix Items.

Mrs. W. C. Kern, who has been quite sick, is reported slowly recovering.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sevey on Saturday last, a son; weight 9 pounds.

Alfred Sanders is building himself a fine new house. He contemplates taking a pleasure trip to Spokane soon.

On Saturday of last week, Mrs. John Rush, Mrs. Edwin Rush, Mrs. L. D. Smith went to Pendleton shopping.

Mr. Chris Limpke has sold his farm west of Helix about three miles, and has bought residence property in this place.

Charles Keen, of Athena, was transacting business in Helix Tuesday.

Mrs. L. M. Huson has been quite sick.

Mr. Horace Walker and wife, Mr. H. C. Kendall and wife spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Pendleton.

Miss Maude Bott will soon leave for Tacoma, where she will spend the winter with her grandmother, Mrs. Reeder, and attend school.

Mrs. Mae Sones entertained a few of her lady friends Monday evening. Light refreshments were served consisting of watermelon. The following were present: Miss Emma Greene, Miss Nellie Herndon, Miss Pearl Smith.

What the Press Says.

This is what The Dalles Chronicle says of the Elizabeth Hale company: Having had several months with no attractions at our opera house, theater-goers were interested to know just what kind of a show the Elizabeth Hale company would give us, and many refrained from attending last night, waiting to hear the verdict of their friends. Well, the verdict is a good one, and those who heard them last night are ready to speak a good word for the company, which is very much after the style of the Sam Shaw and Welderman companies. The play, "Won Back," gave ample opportunity to judge of the ability of the actors.

The ladies are especially good, Miss Hale displaying talent in the emotional line above the average. Her voice is particularly sweet and her manner most pleasing. The character of the wronged wife assumed last night admitted of a display of feeling which proved her equal to any of the heavy parts which her repertoire demands.

In fact, the various parts were well taken and all deserving of special mention. Dalles people have paid 75 cents a seat for many a play not half so good, and we recommend the Elizabeth Hale company, with its reasonable prices of 25c, 35c and 50c, to our people.

Tonight the "Black Flag" will be given, and between acts some specialties introduced.
