A CITY YARD.

A Prominent Citizen Suggests That a Lot be Provided for Use of Farmers When in Town.

Something should be done to provide a place for the farmers and wheat haulers to tie and feed their teams when they come to town," said a prominent Pendleton citizen yesterday.

He continued: "Not a day passes that there are not from 10 to 20 teams in town, and especially is this the case during the wheat hauling season. The wheat hauler comes to town with his load of wheat and he cannot afford, or think he cannot afford to take his team to the livery barn, but unhitches at the most convenient place and feeds his animals from his wagon-bed. Usually this is in the neighborhood of the court house and it is no uncommon thing now to see from 20 to 40 teams standing in the vicinity eating from the wheat wagons. These teams are left in the street as there is no other place to leave them and the feed is thrown in the bottom of the wheat rack for them. More or less of them feed hay and straw and it litters up the street until it is very unsightly. This should be done away with. The farmer has to have a place to tie his team and feed them when he comes to town. All cannot take their teams to a livery stable and they have to stop them somewhere to feed. There is no place to feed at the present time except in the streets and there is no room for the citizens to kick if this litters up the streets until they are so bad that the residents have to spend money to clean them up. I would like to see something done and done at once. The sooner the better. The city should provide a vacant lot, dedicate it to the use of the farmers and give them a place to tie their animals."

COURT GRIND.

Two Suits That Will Feed the Mill.

James H. Gibson vs. Julia I. Luhrs, John W. Luhrs and Lizzie Luhrs, his wife; Lizzie A. Spicer and L. A. Spicer, her husband; Glenn M. Luhrs, a minor; Julia I. Luhrs, administratrix of the estate of John Luhrs, deceased, and Julia Luhrs, guardian of the person and estate of Glenn M. Luhrs, a minor, is the lengthy title of a suit filed at the courthouse this forenoon.

The suit is brought to compel the defendants to give plaintiff a warranty deed to lot 10, in the northwest quarter of section 30, township 1, south, which it is alleged plaintiff and deceased John Luhrs entered into contract to transfer to plaintiff prior to his death. No deed was made out for the property but it is alleged that all the heirs are fully aware of the contract, and the intentions of the deceased Mr. Luhrs at the time the contract was made. Stephen A. Lowell is plaintiff's attorney.

The First National Bank of Walla Walla, a corporation, vs. E. H. Clarke, is the title of a suit filed yesterday to recover judgment against defendant for $235.85 alleged to be due on a note executed October 27, 1900. Plaintiff also asks for $25 attorney's fees. J. T. Hinkle is attorney for plaintiff.

PAYETTE VALLEY.

Maple Brothers, of Pendleton, Open Business There.

W. L. Maple, a late resident of Pendleton, is in town today from Payette Valley, Idaho. Mr. Maple has just closed a deal with the Payette Creamery Company for its business, which he purchased for himself and brothers, at this place, and will take charge of the business the first of October.

Mr. Maple is a creamery man of eight years' experience and is considered one of the best butter makers in the Northwest. He says the plant is fitted with the latest machinery and has a capacity of 800 pounds daily output. The name under which the creamery will go will be the "Maple Leaf Creamery."

Speaking of Payette and the valley surrounding, Mr. Maple said: "The Payette valley is one of the finest dairy countries in the Northwest. It grows the finest stock feed I ever saw. Grass and alfalfa grow to perfection. The largest yield I heard of in the valley was 16 tons of alfalfa off 2½ acres in three crops. The valley is also a fine fruit country. To take it all in all, I never saw a more ideal place for a creamery and as a dairy country it is second to none."

Mr. Maple will leave in a few days for Payette to prepare to take charge of the business.

RETURNS FROM NOME.

W. N. Matlock Arrived Yesterday—Reports Nome Very Lively—Made a Nice Clean-up of Nuggets.

Wesley N. Matlock, who arrived yesterday from Alaska, says Nome is picking up and is again quite lively. The town now has a population of nearly 5000, who will remain there during the winter. Several thousand will come out from Alaska for the winter between now and the leaving of the last boat, which is scheduled for about the middle of October. Mr. Matlock came out on the Oregon. He was 10 days from Nome to Seattle, arriving at the latter place on the 10th inst.

Mr. Matlock says his father, W. F. Matlock, and Mr. Beagle, will return to Pendleton on the last boats out. The latter was with Mr. Matlock, Jr., at Nome and the former was at Dawson, where he has extensive mining interests. W. N. Matlock and Mr. Beagle have mining interests together and worked them this season. They made a nice clean-up of nuggets, in fact, much better than they expected.

Investigation of Arizona Copper Deposits.

Dr. F. L. Ransome has just completed a comprehensive report on the geology of ore deposits of the Globe copper district, Arizona, for the United States Geological Survey. The report is dissected by a remarkable network of faults, of various geological ages, and the occurrence of ore is related to some of the older of these faults. The copper ore hitherto mined in the district have been oxidized and are consequently free from sulphur, but the exploitation of the deeper sulphide ores is yet in its infancy. The district has produced in the neighborhood of 120,000,000 pounds of copper. The greater part of this output has come from the Old Dominion mine, which has for years been working large bodies of oxidized ore found in limestone occurring by the side of a strong fault.

During the present season Dr. Ransome is to continue the investigation of the copper deposits of Arizona by undertaking a detailed geologic study of the Bisbee district, in which is the well known Copper Queen mine.

Most Effective Advertising.

That advertising is the most effective which attracts the eye and appeals to the brain. Strong adjectives may be as much out of taste in an advertisement as in a bit of more aspiring literature. Exaggeration is always to be avoided. People nowadays demand sincerity in all matters of business. It is observable that all the big and successful advertisers are most careful as to their statements of fact. They realize that confidence is the key-stone in the arch of trade. Their success came of their jealous regard for their work.

WASHINGTON CONVICTS.

Out of 588 There Are Four Life Men and 126 Serving Over 10-Year Terms.

Behind the bars of the Washington state penitentiary at Walla Walla are 126 convicts who are serving sentences of 10 years and over. One man, Fred Hoyt, must spend 40 years inside the walls to expiate his crimes. The life men are W. Carey, H. Cramer, Orlando Harris and Basil Adrianson. William Harrison is serving a 31-year sentence and Ed Southland is serving a 28-year sentence, the maximum penalty of 14 years each for the double crime of assault with intent to commit murder and assault with intent to commit rape.

Serving 20-year sentences there are 28, three of whom are on parole. There is one woman among this number.

Two prisoners are in for 19 and five are serving 18-year sentences. Only one man is serving a 17-year sentence. Two prisoners were sent to the prison for 16 years and 15 must stay 15 years if they serve their full sentences. There is only one 13-year prisoner. Eleven convicts are 14-year men. Serving 12 years and serving 11 years there is one each. The 10-year men number 41. The total number of convicts at the prison now stands at 588.—Walla Walla Union.

Her Luck.

"I met your wife yesterday. How well she is looking."

"Yes. We have been expecting her rich aunt to visit us this summer."

"Ah."

"Of course, I don't mean that expecting her aunt has made my wife look so well, but it has kept her from going away anywhere for a rest."—Chicago Record-Herald.

"I suppose those rich Gildedgedes made a great display of grief when that millionaire uncle of theirs suddenly died?"

"Grief? They haven't any time for grief. All their time is taken up with galloping around in search of the will."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
