GENERAL NEWS.

Louis Gardaphe, a half breed, was instantly killed at Lewiston, Mont., Wednesday. A fellow camper took him for a wolf.

Colombia has filed a protest with the American consul at Colon against the presence of the marines on the Panama trains.

It is estimated that 3000 Jews have left Roumania in the last three months. A large number of these came to America.

Lieutenant Peary has returned from his trip to the north pole. He reached the farthest point yet, 84 degrees and 17 minutes.

The new commander of the Canadian militia has just issued an order abolishing the sword as a cavalry weapon. The carbines now in use will be replaced by rifles.

Kansas fusionists have been allowed a writ of mandamus by the supreme court, which will compel the secretary of state to place the democratic and populist tickets on the official ballot.

The Marcus Island Guano Company will make a claim against the Japanese government for indemnity because a force of Japanese marines would not permit Americans to land on the island.

Chief Issa Boljetinas and his followers are determined not to allow the Russian consul to resume his duties in Mitrovitz. The chief vows that he will kill the consul as soon as he arrives.

Strike leaders at Wilkesbarre, Pa., caused a surprise by demanding the arrest of Paul Wyoda, a deputy sheriff; George Gilbert and William Jenkins, members of the Miners' Examining Board, charging them with having issued certificates to non-unionists who had not served two years in the mines, as required by law.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST NEWS.

The Monte Cristo railroad, a John D. Rockefeller property, has passed into the hands of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company.

Engineers on the Upper Columbia have gone on a strike, and the fruit-growers have no means of marketing their product, in consequence of which Spokane is experiencing a fruit famine.

Terese Lebben has presented a claim against Linn county of $5000 damages for the death of her husband. While driving over a bridge on July 24, his team fell through and he was killed.

"U. P. Sam."

"U. P. Sam." perhaps better known as "Blind Sam." is in Pendleton on his annual visit. There is perhaps no better known man who is tramping today than "Blind Sam," and he is always welcome wherever he goes. Sam has his fiddle with him, too. He makes his living by playing the same tune day after day and singing his make-as-he-goes songs. Sam is original in his way and a more jolly fellow is hard to find anywhere. He entertains the people along the streets, and receives donations from his audience.

PEOPLES WAREHOUSE WINTER OPENING A SUCCESS.

A Display That Would Have Done Credit to a Big City—Large Audience Regaled With Music.

The fall and winter opening of the Peoples Warehouse took place Friday evening and a scene was presented that was beautiful to behold.

Promptly at 7 o'clock the doors, which had been closed for an hour to make preparations for the event, were swung open and the crowd admitted.

To attempt to describe the scene in detail would be a difficult task. It was certainly a treat for the eyes and sense of hearing. On all sides were displayed the bright, fresh, sparkling ideas of the season, all arranged in such a manner as to add beauty to the picture. Kirkman's orchestra was seated on an elevation and the sweet music reached the callers on entering and listening to two-steps, waltzes and special selections as they passed through the aisles and different departments of the store.

Beautifully attired women and men spent an evening of pleasure and took at the Peoples Warehouse and became acquainted with the real stylish ideas of the season.

There were many magnificent garments, pieces of dress and suit goods, trimmings, etc., to win the admiration of the ladies, and particularly attractive were four exquisite gowns that met the view on entering the ladies' department. The first gown was a work of art; it was of pseudo-silk, trimmed in net and equal lace, with black velvet bands and steel buckles. A second gown was of shaded blue tulle and silk, trimmed in velvet with cream and gold applique. A beautiful opera coat shown was made of light gray ottoman silk and trimmed in feathers and chiffon. The automobile coat displayed was greatly admired. It was tucked to the flounce and trimmed in stitched velvet bands. Silk waists were exhibited in endless variety. A new feature of the display was the pretty Japanese robes and dressing sacks.

The gentlemen's side of the store was equally as attractive as the ladies' and all the new, nobby and stylish wearing apparel for the sterner sex was placed to view and the ladies as they passed through seemed as much pleased and interested as the gentlemen.

The opening was a splendid success in every way, and judging from the expressions heard on all sides, all were delighted with the event and the proprietor of the store has reasons to feel proud of the display.

HUGHES ARRESTED.

Lodged in the County Jail—Has Been Drinking Very Heavily for the Past Few Weeks.

About 5 o'clock Friday evening, Billy Hughes was taken in by the policemen and lodged in the county jail with a very well-developed case of jim-jams.

Hughes is a barber and has been working in one of the local shops. He is a heavy drinker and for the past several weeks has been imbibing very freely. He was lodging in the Penland lodging house and after a night and a day of drunkenness he became somewhat demented and rushed from his room in his shirt-sleeves, bareheaded and took down the street at a rapid pace. He was also barefooted and sockless and his rapid strides down Main street in his half-clad condition attracted considerable attention.

When arrested Hughes declared that he was sick and was going to be operated upon in his room. He said there were already 12 doctors in his room and they had sent him out to find the 13th one to help perform the job, which was to be a very difficult one.

Dr. Cole examined the man and found him not to be in a serious condition other than suffering from

ACCUSED OF THEFT.

Lee Smith Charged With Stealing a Horse and Saddle at La Grande Last November, Placed in County Jail.

Lee Smith, wanted in Union county for theft, is in the county jail awaiting the arrival of an officer to take him back to the scene of his crime.

Smith is quite well known here. Several days ago he came to town and went to a livery barn to hire a horse to ride into the country on business. While away the animal got loose from Smith and it was several days before it was located and returned to the stable. He claims that he let another man have the animal to care for, who let it get away. When he came back to town Friday afternoon, he was pointed out to Sheriff Taylor, who already had a description of him from Sheriff Deering, of Union county, saying that he was wanted on the charge of stealing a horse and saddle at La Grande last November and selling them near Baker City.

Constable Childers, of La Grande, wired the sheriff this morning that he would be here this evening for Smith and return with him for trial.
