TONIGHT'S ATTRACTION.

The Great Scenic Production, "Lost in New York."

"Lost in New York" will be seen at the Frazer tonight. It is one of the most original, unique and popular comedy dramas that has gone out during the last decade. The dialogue is crisp and bright and describes a story of high and low life in a great city that is not only true to life, but at the same time meets all of the requirements of the play-goer for an attraction, where surprises follow each other so swiftly as to at times take the audience off their feet. The company is headed by Nettie De Coursey, who, in the role of Jennie, is the merry, rollicking and frivolous fun-maker of the production, and yet who has underlying all, a vein of pure womanly character that appeals to every one irrespective of station in life. Miss De Coursey is well known from her association with the Hoyt farces and for her brilliant work with other big musical organizations.

Monday Night's Attraction.

Mr. Aiden Benedict will present a dramatization by Charles W. Chase, of Marie Corelli's popular novel, "Thelma," at the Frazer on Monday, September 22. "Thelma" is known far and near as the best of all Miss Corelli's popular novels, and every woman sympathizes with and loves the character of the heroine, in fact she appeals so strongly to womanly hearts that there has been over 5000 children named Thelma after Miss Corelli's famous character, in the United States during the past 10 years. Mr. Chase has made the Vikings a very strong and interesting character, bringing in the idea of the old Norse mythology which teaches that just before death claims one of this race, a beautiful Valkyrie maiden sent by Odin, appears in the air and converses with the dying. During the action of the play when the Viking feels that death is near, he is carried on board of his ship, which is set on fire, and the Valkyrie maiden is supposed to carry his soul to Valhalla, the heaven of Norse mythology. The company is of the best and the scenery and electrical effects are said to be gorgeous.

Tuesday Night—"Won Back."

The Baker City Herald says: Miss Elizabeth Hale and her company made an excellent impression upon Baker City theater-goers last evening in "Won Back." The cast was good. The curtain rises upon a scene in one of Britain's colonies, showing the home of ruffians, with the villain and hero consorting as man and wife. After a few stirring situations, in which the goodness of the unfortunate woman is tested by trying episodes, the play drifts through periods in which the heroine would change her life, after having parted from her illegitimate lord, and two years from the first appearance is found happily wedded in dear old "Hengland."

The company is well balanced and the support exceptionally strong. The company will play a three-nights' engagement here, commencing Tuesday evening, September 23, at prices, 25c, 35c and 50c.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for each case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

PLAY NOT GIVEN.

Because of Rain, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" Was Not Presented Here Last Night.

The admirers of Harriett Beecher Stowe's book, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," were disappointed last night at the non-appearance of this ever popular play on the boards at the Frazer, as was advertised yesterday.

The troupe came here yesterday morning with the intention of putting up and playing in their own tent, but the rain would not permit of this. They were unable to make arrangements for the opera house with Manager Welch, and moved on to Union, where they show tonight.

MRS. IDA L. ROSER,

Grand-Niece of Ex-President James K. Polk, Writes to Mrs. Pinkham.

Thankful for Health Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Did you ever stop to realize what keen satisfaction one experiences when we find that some kind and helpful thing we have done for some one else has been sincerely appreciated! At such times, how truly we understand the expression "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Think, therefore, of the pleasure and genuine satisfaction Mrs. Pinkham experiences when such letters come to her as the one from Mrs. Roser which we are herewith permitted to publish.

Think what it means to her: it means first, that one more lovely woman has been relieved from sickness and distress through her assistance; it means second, that this woman who is cured is so grateful that she wants other women in the land to know of it; and it means lastly that Mrs. Pinkham's claims for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound are fully substantiated by testimony of such high character that every woman who reads this must believe and hope.

To be appreciated is a great pleasure, but to bring peace and happiness to the suffering is heavenly. Such is the mission of Mrs. Pinkham, and such a letter as the following proves her success!

MRS. IDA L. ROSER, 326 E. 18th Ave., Denver, Col.

Grand-niece of ex-President James K. Polk, and Assistant Grand Secretary of Colorado, Wyoming, and New Mexico Independent Order of Good Templars.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I have been married for nearly two years, and so far have not been blessed with a child. I have, however, suffered with a complication of female troubles and painful menstruation, until very recently.

"The value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was called to my attention by an intimate friend, whose life had simply been a torture with inflammation and ulceration, and a few bottles of your Compound cured her; she can hardly believe it herself today, she enjoys such blessed health. I took four bottles of your Compound and consider myself cured. I am once more in fine health and spirits; my domestic and official duties all seem easy now, for I feel so strong I can do three times what I used to do. You have a host of friends in Denver, and among the best count, Yours very gratefully,—MRS. IDA L. ROSER, 326 E. 18th Ave., Denver, Col."

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women whose testimony is so unquestionable, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free and always helpful.

$5000 REWARD.—We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $5000, which will be paid to any person who can find that the above testimonial letter is not genuine, or was published before obtaining the writer's special permission.
Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Mrs. Ida McDonald.

that I must do something to regain my health. A friend advocated your Wine of Cardui treatment so strongly that I decided to try it, although I had little faith in patent medicines. I am now very thankful that I did so, for within three days blessed relief came to me, and in less than three months I was cured, and have enjoyed fine health ever since. I know there is nothing better for a sick woman who wishes to enjoy perfect health and am very pleased to give my hearty endorsement."

No suffering woman can afford to ignore such a letter as Mrs. McDonald writes. Her plans and advice have proved valuable in building up one of the greatest women's organizations in the United States and she takes time to give advice which she knows will help you. Do not delay in securing this medicine. There is nothing to lose and everything to gain by delay. The choice is before you. Will or will you not secure relief now by taking Wine of Cardui?
