EASTERNS IN PENDLETON

PARTY REPRESENTING LARGE FOLLOWING SEEKS LOCATION.

Wheat Raising Main Object, But Other Callings Represented—Are Looking Around.

Dr. J. H. East, of the J. H. East Drug Company, of Denver, Col., and Dr. C. S. Heede, of David City, Neb., arrived in town this morning and drove to the country today to look over some wheat lands, and if they find what they want will buy a large tract.

Drs. East and Heede represent a large number of moneyed men of Colorado, Nebraska and Illinois, who are thinking of coming to Umatilla county and if the doctors buy it will be the beginning of a large movement to Pendleton from that point.

Dr. East said this morning that many moneyed men had begun to turn their faces westward and many of them were familiarizing themselves with Eastern Oregon. He says he wants to branch out into wheat raising on a large scale and many others are thinking of coming and engaging in the business. The doctors are well pleased with the appearance of the country so far and think they will find what they want.

They represent Dr. S. Ben Smith, of Denver; P. H. Holcomb, Rising City, Neb.; Dr. Hewett, Bellwood, Neb.; Herman Dallegia, Garrison, Neb.; R. C. Evison, of Vale, Iowa; Clark Evison, and C. Payne, of Westside, Iowa; P. H. Drummond, John Milligan, Dr. D. J. Smith, H. H. Judd, of Rising City, Neb.; H. S. Ladd, of Omaha; G. W. Hewett, Council Bluffs, Iowa; Henry East and A. P. Barker, Clinton, Iowa, and Dr. Allenburg, of Shelby, Neb.

"All of these men," said Dr. East, "are men of large means and are able to buy extensive tracts of land or business interests if they are satisfied with the country. Our decision will govern them to a great extent. They are mostly business men, doing well at present, but desire to try the great Pacific Northwest."

Sunday Closing Law.

Editor East Oregonian: A few religious fanatics, brought up under the puritanical idea that religion is gloom and enjoyment of any kind is sinful, are earnestly endeavoring to create a sentiment against any amusement on the Lord's day, with the intention of enforcing the objectionable law that now stands on the statute books; but as this is a community born in freedom believes in the natural rights of man, there is little show for these enthusiasts to bring about a stringent enforcement of the Sunday law.

District Attorney Chamberlain, of Portland, is to be commended for refusing to issue warrants for the arrest of men in Portland for keeping their places of business open on Sunday, notwithstanding a worthy Divine of this city condemns him in unmeasured and most severe terms.

This Sunday law has been allowed to remain upon the statute books just as the old "blue laws" of Connecticut remain upon the statute books of New York and the District of Columbia, except that the lawmakers never intended that they should be used in the extreme to persecute business men. The Sunday law was probably intended to act as a check in cases of urgent necessity and should be so construed. I will venture to say that no reputable business man would be convicted by jury who does that which is necessary on Sunday.

The lawmakers who gave us this law intended that it should be enforced in spirit, not in letter.

The Sunday law is calculated to prevent flagrant abuses, not to persecute law-abiding citizens. In New York City and District of Columbia a few cranks are now endeavoring to enforce the infamous "blue laws" of Connecticut which they have unearthed. They declare that the slumbering law which made it a punishable offense to remain away from church on Sunday should be rigidly enforced, but public sentiment is turning these fanatics down.

The broad-minded and liberal citizen concedes that every man has a right to spend the Sabbath as he pleases, provided he does not interfere with the rights and privileges of his fellow neighbors. Sunday is generally accepted as a day of rest, and shall be so regarded and maintained, but this age of the world will not tolerate the "blue laws" system of regulations.

There was a time when men were burned in the name of religion. In the name of religion and by the aid of the blood money secured from indulgences, St. Peter's Cathedral of Rome was built. But thanks to an enlightened age, assisted by men and authors of broad gauge, the era of reason dawned upon men, and no longer intolerance and persecution in the name of religion is sustained.

While in the wilderness the Children of Israel were not permitted to gather manna for food on the Sabbath day, though accompanied by Moses the law giver. But I read in the Good Book that Christ, who was greater than Moses, did pluck and eat of corn on the Sabbath day when on earth, and was persecuted for it by chattering laws of men who professed to be the salt of the earth.

The laws are all right, but our state solons never intended that a crank should be allowed to grind out justice for an ordinary world.

Fanatics can make trouble for men of business, but I have never heard of any reformation being brought about through this method. O. W. DUNBAR.

A Starving Billionaire.

One of the richest men in the world worth almost a billion dollars, is starving to death, because his stomach has become weakened through worry and anxiety in looking after his immense fortune. His digestion is destroyed and the stomach cannot therefore assimilate nourishment. What ails is wealth when your health is gone. If your stomach is in a similar condition no matter from what cause, commence taking Hostetter's Stomach Bitters at once. It is Nature's own remedy for the stomach and will restore the appetite, perfect the digestion and cure belching, flatulency, dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness and liver and kidney troubles. The genuine is for sale by all druggists and has our Private Stamp over the neck of the bottle.

BIG MILL SALE.

Union County Plant Sells For $340,000.

Last Saturday evening one of the largest business transactions in the history of Union county was consummated in the sale of the Grande Ronde Lumber Company to persons largely interested in the Oregon Lumber Company, says the Union Republican. The sale includes all the mill property and timber lands owned by the Grande Ronde Lumber Company along Grande Ronde river. The consideration was $340,000. The sale has been under consideration for some time, but a satisfactory agreement was not arrived at until last Saturday evening. The complete details could not be secured.

Moved Across the Street.

Billy Krassig's shaving parlors have been moved across the street from his old location and he would be pleased to serve the public in his new location and invites all to call and see him when they desire clean, smooth work by first-class workmen.
