Mrs. Alice Smith has furnished rooms to rent on Court street. She has found that the classified advertisement in the East Oregonian brings her roomers, and after a month's experience has ordered the advertisement continued.

The Strahon rooming house will change landlords October 1, as Mrs. Strahon has disposed of her interests to Mrs. H. E. Cooper. Mrs. Strahon is contemplating a trip to her former home in Iowa shortly after the transfer is made. Since opening the new rooming house in the Martin block, Mrs. Strahon has had good success and the best wishes of the public go with her in any new business she may engage.

Nasal Catarrh quickly yields to treatment by Ely's Cream Balm, which is agreeably aromatic. It is received through the nostrils, cleanses and heals the whole surface over which it diffuses itself. A remedy for nasal catarrh which is drying or exciting to the diseased membrane should not be used. Cream Balm is recognized as a specific. Price 50 cents at druggists or by mail. A cold in the head immediately disappears when Cream Balm is used, Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York.

POLICE COURT GRIND.

W. S. Moxon Fined $10 and Miskimins Reprimanded.

W. S. Moxon contributed $10 to the city this morning at the request of City Recorder McCourt for being drunk and driving a six-horse team over the Main street bridge faster than a walk. Moxon came to town yesterday with a six-horse wagon loaded with grain and in the evening, after loading to the gunwales with liquor, he thought he owned the town and could do as he pleased. He got into his wagon, started north and when nearing the bridge whipped his horses into a dead run. They went over the bridge on the run and Moxon threw the lines down and hollered at the top of his voice, still running the team up the hill north of the river. He was overtaken by the officers and Mayor T. G. Halley brought him back in his buggy and turned him over to Policeman Fee, who placed him in the city lock-up, where he remained until this morning, when he was taken into court and fined.

Miskimins Reprimanded.
J. H. Miskimins was the name given this morning by the man who was arrested Monday afternoon under the name of Noble, who claimed that he had shot a man at Umatilla. Miskimins was in a very bad fix when taken in by the officers and had a well-developed case of jim-jams, caused by an over-indulgence in whiskey. He talked very much at random and showed signs of temporary insanity. He was not sufficiently recovered yesterday to be dealt with by the police judge and was not taken into court until this morning. He had no money and was given a heavy reprimand by Judge McCourt and turned loose with the request that he get out of town or remain sober.

A New Warehouse.
The report is current that the O. R. & N. Company is going to erect a large warehouse on the site of the old Kerr, Gifford warehouse, which burned a few weeks ago. It is said that the company is crowded for room in its present freight headquarters, and the new house will be built for the accommodation of the large amount of freight which comes to Pendleton for the interior.

Last Night at the Frazer.
"Won Back," presented at the Frazer last night by the Elizabeth Hale company, was witnessed by a small house, although the play was creditable.

DEATH OF PIONEER WOMAN.

Mrs. Mary Palmer Died at Her Home Near Pilot Rock.

Mrs. Mary Palmer, wife of A. B. Palmer, living six miles north from Pilot Rock, died early Monday morning. The funeral took place on Tuesday, the service being held at the M. E. church of Pilot Rock, and Rev. Jonathan Edwards, of Pendleton, conducting the services. It was largely attended and the remains were interred in the Pilot Rock cemetery. Mrs. Palmer was born in New York state April 22, 1834. She was married in Wisconsin in 1853 and the family came to Oregon in 1879. She leaves a husband, three sons and six daughters to mourn her taking away by the grim hand of death. She was a woman of sterling qualities and beloved by all who knew her.

No Special to Walla Walla Sunday.
With much regret, announcement is made by the O. R. & N. Co., that the proposed special excursion to Walla Walla next Sunday, as advertised in last night's paper has been abandoned. This is on account of no available equipment. The excursion rate of $1.90 for the round trip will be in effect, however, to and including Sunday, September 28.
