Great excitement was created in London yesterday by a story sent out by the Dalziel News Agency under a New York date, saying it was supposed that an anarchistic attempt on the life of President Roosevelt was involved in the wrecking of the Golden Eagle hotel in Washington, Wednesday night, and the subsequent suicide of the perpetrator of the outrage. The newspapers here sent out "specials," and flaming placards and boys were bawling the startling news through the streets with the result that half of the population of London went home believing that the assassination of the president of the United States had been attempted.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for each case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

VISIT WHITMAN'S GRAVE.

Washington State Press Association Makes Interesting Trip.
Walla Walla, Sept. 26.—A visit to the historic spot where, nearly 55 years ago the Cayuse Indians foully murdered Marcus Whitman. Mrs. Whitman and 12 other white people, at the first home established by a white woman on the entire Pacific Coast, closed the entertainment and sessions of the state press association. The trip was made yesterday afternoon, in a train furnished by the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, and in personal charge of A. L. Craig, general passenger agent of the company. Over 100 delegates and friends made the trip, and took a look over the beautiful valley from the prominence upon which is located the Whitman monument, a stately granite, bearing a brief history of the tragedy which occurred in November, 1847. President Penrose, of Whitman College, accompanied the party, and at the grave of Dr. Whitman gave a brief sketch of the life and work of the missionary and his family. The editors enjoyed the trip very much, and Mr. Craig was highly complimented upon the plan of showing the newspaper men the historic spot and upon the success of the excursion in general. Nearly all of the newspaper men left the city last night.

FAVORABLE FOR US

TRANSPORTATION CHEAPER TO PENDLETON THAN COAST.

General Passenger Agent Craig States That We Are Given Equal Rates With Spokane, Still Farther East.

The impression has long prevailed, and it has been published as a fact, that the transportation companies sell through tickets to the coast from the East at the same price as they sell them to Pendleton. It has been referred to frequently of late in Eastern Oregon papers, and the matter has been called to the attention of General Passenger Agent Craig, of the O. R. & N. Company, who writes as follows:

"The settlers' rate from Missouri River to Pendleton, for instance, is $2.50 less than to Portland, the rates being $22.50 and $25 respectively. By reason of our taking Spokane business through Pendleton and the N. P. and G. N. taking Pendleton business through Spokane, must necessarily be the same. This should not be complained of by Pendleton, however, inasmuch as Spokane is considerably further east and if there is any dissatisfaction on the part of either place it would naturally be Spokane."

This is certainly good news for this section of the country. While many will continue to go on to the coast, owing to the small difference in the fare, yet those who have this section of the country in view take advantage of the difference.
It is to the advantage of the railroad companies to sell tickets to the terminals, as homeseekers are likely to "back track" over their roads in becoming finally located and this makes business for the railroads. For this reason it is suggested that they encourage the purchase of through tickets. Still, it is good news to learn that Pendleton has the $2.50 advantage, and with the entire East now looking toward the arid lands of this section, about to be made productive under the proposed irrigation law, many will be benefited by this small difference in railroad fare.

Pendleton should also congratulate herself on the fact that she has an equal show with Spokane, which is much larger and still farther east than Pendleton.

A Parson's Noble Act.

"I want all the world to know," writes Rev. C. J. Budlong, of Ashway, R. I., "what a thoroughly good and reliable medicine I found in Electric Bitters. They cured me of jaundice and liver troubles that had caused me great suffering for many years. For a genuine, all around cure they exceed anything I ever saw." Electric Bitters are the surprise of all for their wonderful work in Liver, Kidney and Stomach troubles. Don't fail to try them. Only 50 cts. Satisfaction is guaranteed by Tallman & Co.

CATTLE SUPPLY.

Report of Shortage is a Mistake—Sufficient to Supply Demand.

For a long time it has been represented that there was a shortage of cattle. Prices have been high and the animals have been shipped freely. Consequently the idea developed that stocks had been depleted and that a scarcity of beef existed in the country.

Under these circumstances it is interesting to read that the receipts of cattle in the stock yards last week were greater than ever before—it was a record-breaking week. That indicates that cattle have been found where they were not supposed to exist or that a great many shippers chance to bunch their consignments during the week. In any event it certainly shows that there are still cattle in the country. It may be that the exceptionally high prices have led to a second scouring of the ranges and farms for additional beefs, and that scarcity will follow after the run shall have ended; but it seems more probable that the supply is not so nearly exhausted as has been feared.

able that the supply is not so nearly exhausted as has been feared.

Prices have been good for a long time. For three years there has been every inducement held out to cattle growers in the condition of the markets, and it is not improbable that tens of thousands of growers have been adding to their herds, with the result that a larger supply of animals is now coming forward. This country is too large to have a beef famine. It is not likely that cattle will ever again be a drug on the market, but the ranges and farms will keep the people supplied with roasts and steaks.—Idaho Statesman.

Dramatic Notes.

The joint engagement of Lewis James and Frederick Ward on Thursday, October 9, will be the next notable attraction at the Frazer opera house. They will appear in Wagon-hals and Kemper's stupendous spectacular production of "The Tempest." This exquisite comedy is almost unknown to provincial audiences, and even in New York, the only production it has had in 20 years, was that given by Augustin Daly nearly 10 years ago.

"The Tempest" which Lewis James and Frederick Ward will present at the Frazer opera house on Thursday, October 9, is said to be the last and is acknowledged to be the best of Shakespeare's dramas and under the form of an allegory, might be called the dramatic will and last testament of the great poet, his adieu to that faithful public whose applause he had gained for five and twenty masterpieces and for more than 11 other plays, which, full of imagination and charm, would have made for any lesser mortal the most enviable of crowns; in a word, this drama is a poetic synthesis or as Prospero would express it in the language of a magician, it is a microcosm of that dramatic world which his imagination had created.

Niel vs. Jackson.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 26.—Al Neil, the local featherweight, and "Young Peter Jackson," the Baltimore colored fighter, have completed their work of preparation and appear to be in fine fettle for their 20-round go which is scheduled to be pulled off here tonight. Neil is in splendid form and expresses confidence in his ability to defeat the colored man. The two will weigh in at the ringside at 150 pounds.
