HERBERT LEE—WHO?

Married in April and Kept It Secret Until Now.

Herbert Lee, of the wholesale department of the Basche hardware establishment, was the instigator of a most unique surprise party Friday afternoon. After business was dull and the midday lunch had digested to such an extent that smoke was relished, Mr. Lee made the rounds of all the departments, armed with a box of fragrant weeds. Some of the boys helped themselves to a cigar and others did not. Bert traversed the shops and visited all the employees from Nat Cooper, in the office, to Knapp Dooley on the wagon.

After satisfying the appetites of the tobacco connoisseurs, Bert "let the cat out of the bag." He had been married six months and had maintained strict silence regarding the event. When this became known everyone wanted to treat. It appears Bert went to Pendleton last April, and while there married to the altar with a prominent young woman of that place. It was but another culmination of the oft-told romance, but this was a top-notch. Last week Mrs. Lee came to this city, but left again and returned yesterday afternoon, when all arrangements were completed for the establishment of the family domicile here.

This explains the reason of Herbert's "setting up" to his friends about town this morning. The Herald extends congratulations and joins the legion of friends in best wishes.—Baker City Herald.

(Who is the young woman whom Mr. Lee married? No record of a marriage license being issued to a man named Lee has been recorded on the Umatilla county records for more than a year past, and no one can be found who knows of the marriage or who the bride was. Mr. Lee is quite well known in the east end of the county, where he made his home for many years prior to going to Baker City, and those intimately acquainted with him can throw no light on the matter. It is said that if Mr. Lee married a Umatilla county girl, she is from the east end and they were married in Walla Walla. They were certainly not married in this county.)

HAD FRIENDS IN PENDLETON.

Al McGillis, Who Committed Suicide by Jumping From a Steamship, Probably Heading for This Place.

Al McGillis, the passenger on the steamship City of Topeka, who recently committed suicide by jumping from the deck of the ship in the Straits of Georgia, on the vessel's return from Alaska, had friends in Pendleton, and was well known throughout Oregon. He was an old steamboat man and plied his trade on the lower Columbia River.

He had been thinking of coming to Pendleton for some time and was doubtful on his way here at the time he became temporarily insane and jumped to his watery grave. Mr. O. W. Dunbar, of this city, who knew McGillis, and had been corresponding with him in reference to coming to Pendleton, received a letter from C. W. Miller, general agent of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, at Seattle, yesterday, an extract from which reads as follows:

"Dear Sir:—A. McGillis, passenger on the steamship City of Topeka, became insane and jumped overboard the morning of the 24th, while the vessel was passing through the Straits of Georgia. Among his personal effects left in his room, we found a letter written by you. Perhaps you can notify someone who is a relative or

A large crowd attended the first live bird shoot of the Pendleton Sportsmen's Association, which was held at their ground south of town, Sunday.

Only 10 men were entered in the live bird shooting, and H. J. Stillman won the first prize. He killed nine birds out of 10. F. W. Waite, Wes Matlock and D. C. Clark tied for second prize, and J. M. Speace won third.

After the birds were disposed of some time was spent in shooting at blue rocks. The score in the rock shoot was:

GLANDERS AMONG HORSES.

Veterinarian Christie Reports Several Cases North of Pendleton.

According to Veterinary J. Christie, there are several cases of glanders among the horses belonging to farmers living north of Pendleton. The doctor says he has been called to examine several horses recently and found them all suffering with unmistakable attacks of this dreaded disease. It will be remembered that several weeks ago Dr. Christie found a horse with glanders and reported the case to State Veterinarian McLane, who came up from Portland and made an investigation. He ordered the animal killed. Since that several similar cases have developed.

Too Persistent.

Jasper—He pursued his scientific researches until he developed a beautiful theory, and then he kept on pursuing them until he exploded it.—Judge.

AN OLD SORE

months of diligent and faithful use of external remedies remains as defiant, angry and offensive as ever. Every matter on what part of the body it comes, is an evidence of constitutional or organic trouble, and that the drops of Cancer—has come to the surface and begun its destructive work. The blood must be purified before the sore will fill up and the skin regains its natural color. It is through the circulation that the acid, corroding fluids are carried to the sore or ulcer and keep it irritated and inflamed. S. S. S. will purify and invigorate the stagnant blood when all sediment or other hurtful materials are washed out, fresh rich blood in diseased parts, new tissues form, and the decaying flesh, healthy and natural look; the discharge ceases and the sore is healed.

Several years ago, my wife had a severe sore on her leg and was treated by the best physicians but received no benefit. Our druggist advised her to try S. S. S., which she did. Fourteen bottles cured her and she has been well ever since.
