LAST NIGHT'S FIRE.

Handsome Residence Building on Bluff Street Burned to the Ground.

The residence belonging to Robert Laing, on Bluff street, was totally destroyed by fire last night just after 10 o'clock.

The cause of the fire is a mystery. Mr. Laing did not live in the house, but it was rented to Mrs. Archibald, who had just moved into it. She had been there during the evening, but had gone away to spend the night at a neighbor's, as she did not have all of her furniture in the house.

The fire started from the inside of the building, and when it was discovered the whole structure was a mass of flames. By the time the alarm was turned in and the fire companies responded the house was beyond saving, and the men could do no more than save the barn and outbuildings. The house sits on the bluff, and owing to its elevation the water pressure was not very strong and little could have been done had the alarm been turned in earlier.

The house was a handsome frame structure and was insured for $800, which will cover a little more than one-half its value.

HOW CAME DYNAMITE THERE?

Suspicious Find in Shoemaker's Wood Box at Missoula.

Missoula, Mont., Sept. 30.—How came eight dynamite shells and a dynamite torpedo in the wood box of D. A. Warwick, and for what purpose they were there, is a question agitating the Missoula police. The instruments of destruction were today taken from a young son of Warwick. The boy claims to have found them in the box covered with wood. He was playing about the street, among a number of young companions with his dangerous find when discovered by William Bilbick, a neighbor.

Warwick is a shoemaker at 317 Railroad avenue. Recently he was arrested on a charge of arson, it being alleged that he set fire to and destroyed a vacant house owned by his divorced wife. Before the case could be heard the complaining witness mysteriously disappeared, enshrouding the case in much doubt. Each of the explosives contained enough dynamite to wreck a monster building. Warwick denies any knowledge of the articles, and persists in an expressed desire to assist the police in solving the mystery.

Wilson Imbibed.

A man giving his name as Henry Wilson, was arraigned before Recorder McCourt this forenoon on the charge of having been found drunk and asleep on the sidewalk. Wilson is a one-armed man, claims to be a sheep herder by trade and to have come here Saturday from Idaho. He said he had a horse and cart, a dog and camping outfit which he left on the bank of the Umatilla, in the lower end of town, and he was very anxious to go back and see if they were still in the place where he deserted them for the wine cup. He was released and told to go his way.

In Semi-Darkness.

From about 7:15 last night the people of Pendleton were compelled to transact their affairs in semi-darkness or by lamplight. Just what was the cause has not been discovered. The are lights on the streets were all right, but the incandescent lights only shed a very dim light and a part of the time were out entirely. Line men were out all night trying to discover the cause of the trouble, but up to the time of going to press the cause was not discovered.

All the Knights and their families will be welcome Monday night.

Returns to Work.

Charles S. Haynes, day operator for the O. R. & N. Company, who has been taking a month's lay-off, returned last evening accompanied by his bride, and Mr. Haynes will again resume his work for the company in the morning. Mr. Haynes married Miss Olive Oliver, in Grangeville, Idaho, on the 24th day of September. He has many warm friends here who will welcome him and his bride to Pendleton.

Captain Brown to Umpire.

"Bobby" Brown, ex-captain of the Pendleton baseball team, left Sunday night for Portland, where he was called to finish the season with the Northwest league as umpire. Mr. Brown will return to Pendleton and resume his work with the Hartman Abstract Company when the baseball season closes.

LATE WESTBOUND TRAINS.

Have Been Four Hours Behind Schedule Time for a Week.

The people of Pendleton are wondering when the trains from the East will again run on time.

For a month past not a train from the East has been on schedule time. They are from two to six hours late and for a week have not been less than four hours behind time.

Trains from the west were delayed last week, but they have again resumed their schedule time. The delay from that direction was caused by a landslide near Bonneville. This has been cleared from the track and trains may be expected to come in on time hereafter.

Diamonds Stolen.

La Grande, Sept. 30.—Saturday evening shortly after 7 o'clock, while J. H. Pearce was absent to dinner some unknown thief forced an entrance through the rear door of his store and carried away between $750 and $900 worth of diamonds that were in his show case.
