MRS. ARTIE SEEKS DIVORCE.

Husband Ran Away With Another Woman, But Is Sorry.

The sequel to the escapades of Artie Anderson has just come out in the filing this forenoon of papers for a divorce by Mrs. Anderson.

The suit for divorce alleges that Mr. and Mrs. Anderson were married at Jacksonville, Or., in October, 1894, and one year later a girl was born to them. The complaint also states that at divers times between July 14 and July 23, 1902, defendant committed adultery with one Alice Donley. She asks that the court give her the custody of the child, now 7 years of age, and such other relief as to equity seems meet.

It will be remembered that during the absence of Mrs. Anderson in California, at the bedside of the dying mother of Mr. Anderson, he suddenly left town without any cause other than an infatuation for Alice Donley, a denizen of the tenderloin district, and he took his paramour with him. Since that time Anderson has either been deserted by the woman or has tired of her, for he has tried divers ways to induce Mrs. Anderson to let him return to her and asked her forgiveness for his wrong doings. Mr. Anderson declined to consider the proposition and now asks the court to sever the bonds heretofore existing between them.

BICYCLE LICENSES NOW DUE.

If You Want to Ride a Wheel on Sidewalks Get a Tag.

With the first day of October the city bicycle tag becomes due. It is estimated that no less than 600 bicycles are owned in Pendleton and less than 200 pay for the privilege of riding on the walks, but many who do not pay take the privilege regardless of the efforts of the police to prevent it and those whose business almost compels them to ride on the walks when the streets are bad.

A special policeman will be put on and an effort made this year to enforce the ordinance relative to riding on walks and every offender will be caught sooner or later and will have to contribute a fine to the city.

Considerable kicking was registered last year over the apparent laxity in enforcing this law. It was claimed by those who paid the tax that wheelmen rode on the sidewalks in the suburbs without a license. This, they claimed, was not giving those who paid for the privilege a fair deal, and some went so far as to advocate the repealing of the law.

W. L. GEURANT INJURED.

Team Ran Away, Throwing Him Under Wheels, Breaking His Leg.

W. L. Geurant, a farmer living near Cold Springs, is suffering from a serious injury received yesterday in a runaway.

Mr. Geurant was hauling wheat to the warehouse with a four-horse team and it being somewhat cool riding, tied the lines around the brake and got off the seat to walk and keep warm. The team became frightened and started to run. Mr. Geurant made a grab for the lines and in doing so caught his foot and fell under the wagon. The rig was heavily loaded with wheat and the hind wheel passed over his body, breaking the leg between the knee and hip and otherwise crushing him very badly.

The team ran on and left Mr. Geurant in the road, where he would have bled to death had not a neighbor happened along who picked him up and took him to Helix, where his wound was dressed. The team ran more than two miles before it stopped, but no damage was done to either team, wagon or load.

Ward and James.

The real theatrical treat of the season at Frazer's opera house opens Thursday night, October 9, upon the arrival of Frederick Ward and Louis James. They will give two performances in Pendleton and they are said to be at their very best. While these, the greatest actors on the American stage today, do not need advertising, yet theater-goers should not forget their coming until it will be too late to get good seats at the opera house. They may never appear together again and this season promises to be an historical one in theatrical life on the Pacific Coast, with the joint appearance of the two great Americans.

Ohio W. C. T. U.

Salem, O., Oct. 1.—Several hundred enthusiastic women representing all parts of the state greeted Mrs. Annie W. Clark, of Columbus, state president, this morning when she called to order the 29th annual convention of the Ohio Women's Christian Temperance Union. The morning session was given over to addresses of welcome and responses, followed by a department symposium in which views were exchanged by leading workers. This afternoon the convention listened to reviews of the year's work presented by Miss Francis Ensign, Madison, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Estelle Purdum, Chillicothe, recording secretary, and other officers of the state organization. Tomorrow will be devoted to addresses and discussions of various branches of the union work and Friday morning the annual election of officers will be held.

Harvest Hand Loses His Summer's Wages in a Walla Walla Saloon.

Walla Walla, Oct. 1.—A sensational story was told by a harvest hand yesterday morning, who said that the night before he was given knock-out drops and stripped of all his wealth, amounting to about $50, in a saloon where gambling is being conducted. The man was in search of a warrant yesterday morning, but evidently feeling the hopelessness of securing a conviction, he is said to have dropped the matter. According to the man's story he went into a local resort and met a couple of gamblers. He had a drink at the bar with his new-found friends and a few minutes later became oblivious to his surroundings. When he came to at an early hour in the morning he was minus the savings of a summer's work and had a head on him as big as a barrel.

Notice.
