GONE TO SOLDIERS' HOME.

"Paddy" Myles Left Tuesday for Washington, D. C., to remain.

William Myles, better known as
"Paddy" Myles, left Tuesday for Washington, D. C., to spend the rest of his days in the National Soldiers' Home.

Myles is perhaps one of the best known characters in Pendleton. He came here in 1879 and made Pendleton his home most of the time until he was sent to the soldiers' home.

Mr. Myles was in the service of Uncle Sam for 25 years. He was not in the actual fighting service, but served in the clerical department for the government and was clerk under Agent E. J. Sommerville at the Umatilla agency from 1883 to 1885. He lost his position there because of drink. While Mr. Myles was a very apt and accurate man at clerical work and good with a pen, he went the way of many other bright and energetic men when the liquor habit gets hold of them.

Last spring Mr. Myles was suddenly stricken with paralysis and was in the Sisters' hospital for several weeks. He gradually got over this, but has never been himself since. He was drawing a pension of $30 a month and this all went for drink. A few weeks ago some of his friends took hold of his case and concluded that he should be cared for by the government, and he where liquor could be kept from him. Consequently the matter was taken up with the authorities at Washington, D. C., and a ticket was sent by the government to take him to the home.
His friends took him to the depot Tuesday and saw that he was made comfortable on the through train and bid him adieu.

Mr. Myles was 73 years of age. He is said to have a wife and son in San Francisco. They were separated many years ago. The son is said to be a prominent newspaper writer.

IN POLICE COURT.

Judge Fitz Gerald Tries His First Cases This Morning.

Two men faced Police Judge Fitz Gerald in police court this morning.
One was Sain H. Wallace, who pleaded guilty to having been drunk and a fine of $7 was placed against him.
The fine was paid.

The other was J. C. Cole. This is same Cole who was fined $5 yesterday morning for being drunk. He was discharged at that time, but proceeded to fill up again and did not stop until he again landed in the city jail. He was told that his fine would be the same old amount, $5, and he paid up.

NEW COACHES ARE COMING.

O. R. & N. Company Has Placed Order For Construction.

An order has been placed with a big eastern car manufactory for the construction of several splendid, new passenger coaches for the O. R. & N. service in the west. These cars will be sent west shortly and will be distributed about the various divisions of the line. At least two of them will be seen on the Pendleton-Spokane flyer which comes into this city daily. The coaches will have all of the modern conveniences enjoyed by the eastern tourist who travels for pleasure only and will be lighted by electricity and heated throughout by steam. The best cars on the line of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company at the present time have seen several years' service and most of them are rather out of date as regards modern conveniences. There will be no better cars in the west than those shortly to be added to the equipment of the line.
