MEN'S OUTFITTERS

IN POLICE COURT.

Two Victims of Alcohol Before Judge Fitz Gerald Today.

W. T. Zahner and John Peters were taken before Police Judge Fitz Gerald this morning for being drunk and disorderly. They spent last night in the city jail and this morning when taken before the judge he thought they had been punished enough and they, being thoroughly sober, were told to go on their own recognizance until 9 o'clock tomorrow. "If they show up at that time," said the judge, "I will give them what is coming to them." It is a sure bet, however, that they will not "show up" for if they do it will be no less than ten days in the city bastille for each of them and knowing what life is boarding with Marshal Blakely, they will surely keep out of the judge's reach unless taken there by the officers.

A Pioneer Indeed.

One of the most distinguished visitors to Pendleton Monday was Judge Powers, of Weston. The judge has been the legal light of Weston for many years and he can honorably claim the right to be classed among the earliest pioneers of Eastern Oregon. He was asked by an East Oregonian representative Monday afternoon how long he had lived in this country, and in reply he said: "I have not been here but a short time.
I came to Oregon 49 years ago."
