J. LINDER, CHARGED WITH HORSE STEALING, IN JAIL.

Hired Saddle Horse at City Livery Stable, Sold the Animal at Echo and Gambled Away the Money-Caught by Sheriff Taylor,

A young man giving his name as J. Linder, is in the county jail on the harge of horse stealing.

Linder appeared in Pendleton last Saturday morning. Wednesday. about 8 o'clock, he went to the City Livery Stables and hired a horse and saddle to ride to the country. Mr. Carney, proprietor of the barn, was ot on duty when the horse was ap plie, for and taken out, but the young ol to go to the country about eight miles to see a man who owed him some money, and he would return about 1 or 2 o'clock. When Mr. Carney went back to the barn and noiced the saddle horse gone, he asked about him and was told the circum stances. He at once became suspic ious, but said nothing until after the time wher be should have re-turned. He then informed Sheriff Taylor, who began to try and locate the young man and the horse.

The horse was located during the evening at Echo, where Linder had sold it to Dick Jones the livery stai.a. where he spent the summer vest-bie man of that place. Sunday morting from business cares most of the ing Sheriff Taylor and Mr. Carney went down to Echo and learned the horse had been rieden into Echo about 5 o'clock in the afternoon and immediately the rider began to dicker with Mr. Jones for a saie. Jones the animal and saddle for $20 and gave a bill of sale for them, with the understanding that if the outfit was not redeemed within a cer tain length of time it was to remain his. The young man then went out to take in the town.

In Echo, as well as in other towns looking for trouble may easily locate a place where he can get into poker game and Linder perhaps thought that he was smooth enough to double up his $20 two or three times and would then be able to redeem the horse and saddle and return it to the owner or would have money enough to get out of the country. As is usual with one seeking a "snap." Linder found he was up recognized as one of the greatest "snap." Linder foun quartz countries in the United States against it at Echo, and will outrival California in the poker game but die He got into poker game, but did not find Echo people so ensily "skinned" he imagined they would be, and in-stead of doubling his $20, he lost it.

Then, finding himself in a worse hole than he bargained for, he conduded that he would put as many miles as possible between himself and Pendleton. Accordingly he started to walk to Umatilla. Sherid Taylor followed him on the train and beat him into Umatilla. When Linder landed in that town he walked straight into the arms of the sheriff who returned with him last night and placed him
