VICTORIA ISLAND

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE INTERESTED IN $290,000 SUIT.

Henry F. Pierce, Formerly of Umatilla County, Involved in Big Law Suit in California—Of Interest to People Here.

A law suit which is of considerable interest to the people of Umatilla county, especially to those acquainted with Henry F. Pierce, formerly a resident of this county, has been instituted in Joaquin county, California.

The suit involves Victoria Island, which contains something like 7073 acres of the very finest land imaginable, and which is now being farmed by Mr. Pierce, and the Victoria Island Company. A mortgage had been given to secure promissory notes for $290,000. In May of this year a suit was filed to foreclose on this mortgage and the suit is now pending in the courts at Oakland and will come up for trial in November. The mortgage was for a part of the purchase price paid for the island by Henry F. Pierce and George Spalding, and the Victoria Island Company. Later the notes and mortgage were given in security for money borrowed and now the man holding the notes wants to foreclose.

At the time that Pierce and Spalding bought the island it was a part of the agreement that the old owners of the island should build a levee around the island, properly ditch the land and construct a pumping plant. The levee, ditches and pumping plant were all to be maintained by the builders.

The answer to the suit to foreclose mortgage discloses the fact that no such agreement was lived up to by the former owners. Now Pierce and Spalding seek to set off against the notes and mortgages the amount that it would cost to carry out the contract of the former owners, which would be about $80,000. The answer sets forth also that by reason of the failure of the old owners to build the levee, ditches and construct a pumping plant the new owners of the island have been damaged in the sum of $234,500 by loss of rents from the land and the overflow of water. In addition to this they claim to have paid the old owners $60,724.30 on the notes. They set forth in their answer that these amounts more than aggregate the amount which could possibly be due the old owners. Of the notes the first to become due on the mortgage was one for $25,000. This, it was agreed, should not be transferred before it became due. Although the new owners of the island paid some $16,000 on the first note it was transferred to the Stockton Savings Bank which has sued for judgment for the full amount.

To this complaint the new owners answer that it has more than paid the $25,000 note before it was transferred to the bank. The new owners offer to tender the old owner judgment for any amount that may be due him from the old River Land & Reclamation Company on the $75,000 loaned, and after that judgment is entered, asks that all of the notes and mortgages given by Pierce and Spalding to the old company be brought in to court and cancelled.

Stillman & Pierce, of this city, are the attorneys for the new owners of the Victoria Island, and Mr. Stillman has only recently returned from a trip to California, where he filed the answer to the original complaint. Mr. Pierce expects to go to Stockton about the first of November and Mr. Stillman will go down in time to be at the trial.

A CALL FOR CLOTHES.

Salvation Army Wants Supplies for People in Need.

Captain Kuhn, of the local Salvation Army, has made a call for clothing to be distributed among the needy of Pendleton. The captain says there are more calls for such things than the army can supply, and he urgently requests that every one who can lend a helping hand will give their assistance. Winter is now coming on and there are a great many needy families in Pendleton who will not be sufficiently clothed for protection from the cold. Especially is this the case with children. A great many people who have been unfortunate through sickness or other causes, are destitute and are absolutely unable to provide for themselves properly, being barely able to provide food. Some of these are people who have come to this country from the east and others are those who have lived here and had misfortune. The Salvation Army is desirous of helping all who deserve help and everything in the line of cast-off clothing will be used to a good purpose.

The homeliest man in Pendleton, as well as the handsomest, and others, are invited to call on any druggist and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, a remedy that is guaranteed to cure and relieve all chronic and acute coughs, asthma, bronchitis and consumption. Price 25c and 50c. For sale by Tallman & Co. sole agents.
