GREAT CHURCH GATHERING.

Twenty-five Thousand People at Con- vention of Disciples of Christ, Omaha, Neb., Oct. 15.—Local railroad men estimate that more strangers have arrived in Omaha during the last 24 hours than ever before in the city's history. Twenty-five thousand is given as a conservative estimate of the number of persons brought in by the arriving trains from all directions. Hotels and boarding houses are filled to overflowing and the streets and other public places are thronged.

The visitors are delegates to the international convention of Disciples of Christ, which begins its sessions tomorrow to continue one week. This is the largest body of Christian workers which assembled under one head, and their annual gatherings are made the occasion of great evangelistic work. From all over the world the delegates have come, for the church, since its foundation by Alexander Campbell in the backwoods of Kentucky but little more than a half century ago, has spread throughout the civilized world and to many points where civilization is in its incipency. The delegates from abroad probably will number several hundred and will include a number of religious workers of note. From the various parts of the United States have come visitors numbering in the aggregate something like 25,000 or 30,000 and many more are on the way. The badges to be seen about the streets today indicate that largest delegations are from Missouri, Kentucky, Indiana, Kansas, Arkansas, Tennessee, Illinois, Oklahoma, Ohio, Nebraska, Texas and Michigan.

The meetings of the convention will be held in the great building known as the Coliseum, a commodious structure admirably arranged for the purposes of the gathering. Overflow meetings will be held in all the local churches and in the churches of Council Bluffs and South Omaha as well. The general headquarters of the committee on arrangements are located at the Millard Hotel and here today's arrivals were taken, provided with badges and assigned to quarters. Besides a host of ministers the delegates include many laymen of prominence. Some of the speakers to be heard during the week are: Supreme Court Justice Holcomb, of Nebraska; Champ Clark, of Missouri; Benton McMillan, of Tennessee; W. T. Moore, of London; Governor Businell, of Ohio; Governor Stanley, of Kansas, and Zach Sweeney, former minister to Turkey.

The benevolent association of the church will hold its sessions during the convention in the North Side Christian church, with Z. F. Sweeney, of Columbia, Ind., and the Rev. George Combs of Kansas City, as principal speakers.

Aside from the regular program, which is taken up chiefly with missionary addresses, the evangelists of the church will hold noonday and vesper meetings on the street corners, in the large department stores, factories and packing houses. Sunday the pulpits of all the churches of all denominations will be occupied by Disciple preachers. In the afternoon a union meeting will be held in the Coliseum, when the communion service or Lord's supper will be partaken. Ten thousand persons, probably the largest number on record, will take part at one time.

One of the most interesting features of the gathering is the contest for next year's convention of the denomination. The chief aspirants appear to be Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Detroit, San Francisco and Los Angeles. All of these cities have sent large and influential delegations and the contest promises to be exceedingly spirited before the final selection is made.

Episcopalians in Session.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 14.—The twenty-fifth congress of the Protestant Episcopal church opened its sessions in this city today with a large attendance of leading churchmen from all parts of the United States. Holy communion was celebrated in the morning, Bishop Burgess officiating. In the afternoon the delegates visited various points of interest, and later there was a reception in their honor. The regular program will be taken up this evening. The visitors will be welcomed by Bishop Doane, following whose address there will be a discussion of the church and the drama, the speakers to include Rev. Dr. Floyd W. Tompkins, of Philadelphia; the Rev. Dr. Henry Lubeck, of New York, and the Rev. Dr. Arthur B. Kinsolving, of Brooklyn.

American Bottlers' Convention.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 14.—Nearly one thousand bottlers representing the American Bottlers' Association met for their ninth annual convention in this city today. There are delegations from all parts of the United States east of the Mississippi river, the largest number being from Philadelphia, New York and Boston. The officers in charge of the convention are: George B. Hugo, Boston, president; Judge D. L. V. Moffatt, Boston, secretary; Henry L. Schmidt, Hoboken, treasurer. One of the problems to be considered at the convention is that of compelling people to return empty bottles.

Memorial to Gladstone.

London, Oct. 14.—St. Daniel's Library, which has been erected at Harwarden, as a memorial to the late Mr. Gladstone, was formally opened today with interesting ceremonies. Lord Spencer, who succeeded the late Duke of Westminster as chairman of the Gladstone National Memorial Committee, presided over the exercises and other distinguished men were among the speakers.

New Mexico's Big Fair.

Abuquerque, N. M., Oct. 14.—The New Mexico Territorial fair opened today under conditions highly auspicious. All departments are well filled with interesting exhibits and in addition there are numerous special attractions in the way of entertainment. The management is in receipt of advices that the attendance will break all previous records.
