COMMERCE - TRADE

LITTLE CHANGE NOTED IN THE LOCAL MARKETS.

The Wheat Market is Strong. Although Little is Selling—Flour Shipments Are Heavy—Strawberries Are on the Market.

Little change is noted since last week in the local markets. Potatoes have dropped a notch and are now quoted at $1.25 a sack. Beef and meats of all kinds remain about the same figure that it has been quoted all summer in the local markets.
Eggs are still scarce and cannot be had to supply the demand at 30 cents a dozen.

Strawberries.
While it is out of season for strawberries, they are still on the market.
F. S. Younger & Son sold 140 boxes yesterday at 25 cents a box. These came from the Weston Mountain country and are of a very fine variety and flavor.

Wheat Locally.
The local wheat market is still strong but the sellers and buyers are very reluctant about coming together on deals. Very little is changing hands. Local buyers are not anxious to buy and farmers will not sell at the present price. Of course, an occasional deal is made, but they are scarce and small. Fifty-three and a half cents was the price quoted late Wednesday evening and the day before exporters sent in no quotations at all.

In speaking of the situation at Portland, the Commercial Review says:
"The wheat market during the past week has been quiet. Sellers have enhanced ideas as to values, but buyers are holding aloof and are paying more attention to loading spot vessels than in purchasing more wheat, as nearly all of them have a surfeit of same to last them for some time to come.
Prices at the present time are higher than the cargo market warrants. The wheat shipment so far this month is very large, and it looks as if the month of October will be a record-breaker from the two North Pacific ports. Quotations in this market rule for club 64c; bluestem, 67c; valley, 65c.

Flour.
The flour market at the present time is in a fairly good condition. The demand from Japan and South Africa is reported as good, and millers are all hard at work filling orders. From China the demand is not so good.
Stocks there are going down rapidly, but buyers are not stocking up freely, and cable bids are away out of the range of prices from other sections of the globe. During the past week over 60,000 barrels of flour went abroad to China, Japan and Siberia. Quotations range from $2.80 to $3.25 per barrel.

Barley.
The barley market shows little change, notwithstanding the market in California is weaker and has caused shipments to that place temporarily to cease. Feed is in fair demand at ruling prices. Brewers are not buying freely and only when choice lots of brewing is offered. Quotations range from $19.50 to $21 per ton.

Wool Markets.
Boston, Oct. 16.—The wool market here is very strong and the trading has been active. Territory wool is thoroughly well held, with sales of good sized lots at full quotations.

Indian Club Women.
Greencastle, Ind., Oct. 15.—Final preparations have been completed to entertain in comfortable style the Indiana Federation of Women's Clubs, which will meet in annual convention here tomorrow, under conditions perhaps more favorable for a successful meeting than ever before in the history of the organization. The local clubs are especially strong, and on them will involve the work of entertaining the visitors. Their efforts have proven so successful that every visitor will be entertained at a private house and will therefore, be at no expense while in Greencastle. The meeting undoubtedly will be the largest in point of attendance of any yet held in Indiana.
Women's clubs of all kinds will be represented and in addition there will be many women famous in literary and educational work from other states.
The first session will be held tomorrow morning and will be in the nature of a welcoming demonstration.

Scarcity of Eggs.
Walla Walla, Oct. 15.—With eggs scarce and selling at 30 cents a dozen readily upon the local market, the Walla Walla housewife is wondering what condition will confront her when cold weather sets in. In this city eggs have been scarce for weeks, and local merchants are unable to supply the demand even at high prices freely offered. While a lively interest has been created in poultry in this section in recent years, the number of fowls kept is small when compared with the people to be supplied with eggs and poultry, and high prices generally rule. Once in a while Easetrn eggs are shipped in, but in most cases they prove unsatisfactory, and merchants are afraid to venture far in the importation business.

Traced to Portland.
Portland, Ore., Oct. 15.—J. H. Peare, a La Grande jeweler, whose store was robbed of diamonds to the value of about $600 during the recent street fair in that city, has located his property in this city. He recovered $300 worth of rings and pins from one party in Eastern Oregon, who is now in the toils of the law, and his search and clues after the remainder led him to Portland, where he feels confident of capturing the thief and regaining his property.

In New Archbishop's Honor.
New York, Oct. 15.—Elaborate arrangements have been completed for a banquet to be held at the Park Avenue Hotel tonight in honor of the elevation of Bishop Farley to the archbishopric of the metropolitan diocese.
The affairs will be under the auspices of the St. Gabriel's School Alumni Society and will be attended by priests and prelates of the Catholic church and several hundred prominent laymen.
