PASCO'S NEW OFFICERS.

ern Pacific Property.

Pasco, Oct. 22 .- Considerable comment has been heard here about the appointment of two special officers to assist in keeping down lawlessness at this place and Wallula during the heavy shipping season. During the fall months beginning with the early officers were appointed. At first this action was ipproved by most of the prominent men of the county, but recently a sentiment of dissatisfaction has been growing. Those against the appointment urge that the railroad company is bene-fited more by the officers than the county and that the company only worked the county commissioners into appointing extra men in order to protect its own property.
