WHEAT HIGHEST SINCE THE LETTER CORNER

Wool Market Very Strong—Eighty Cents for Wheat Will Be Low Before the Year Ends.

Wheat is still going up by leaps and bounds and the farmers who have not sold are jubilant over the prospects of 60 cent wheat within the next few days.

Although little is selling, local dealers were offering 57 cents yesterday, which is the highest figure wheat has reached since the Letter boom in 1896. Dealers say that the farmers are jubilant over the price wheat has reached, but they will not sell as long as the markets are strong and have an upward tendency. This causes all who have not sold to hold onto their crop. They will hold until the Eastern markets begin to drop and foreign markets have an off tendency, and then they will begin to let loose, and not before, although 57 cents is recognized as a good price for wheat here. This means 57 cents in the warehouses and not f. o. b.

Other Local Markets.
 Only two commodities handled in the grocery stores have seen a change since a week ago. These are potatoes and eggs. The former have dropped from $1.25 to $1 a hundred, and eggs have gone up from 30 cents to 35 cents a dozen.

Potatoes are now all dug and are beginning to flood the market. They were a fine crop this year and many acres were grown in the county, owing to the high prices of the past two years. Not only is the quantity large, but the quality, as a rule, is excellent.

To secure eggs for the table is almost an impossibility, and some of the restaurants and hotels have quit trying to keep them for their trade. The housewife who likes to have this dish instead of beef for breakfast, has gradually seen them grow out of reach in price and out of sight because the hens of Eastern Oregon are evidently on a strike. Until eggs drop beef will adorn the tables hereafter in their place.

Meats and other local commodities remain just as quoted last week.

Portland Markets.
 Portland, Oct. 23.—There is a good demand for wheat, and exporters, as well as millers, are buying quite freely and the market has assumed a "busy air." Prices during the week have greatly advanced, and bluestem wheat is the quality most sought for. Wheat is coming to tide water as fast as cars can be secured to load the same in the interior. The freight market for charters is rather dull and freights are lower today than for a great many years past. Holders of wheat in the country that have not sold as yet figure that the market will still go higher and they will reap the benefit of the same. At the present time wheat is being bought at 66c for club, 69c for bluestem, and 67c for valley per bushel.

There is no question at all, however, that sentiment is bullishly inclined for all the cereals. Whether or not this sentiment is justified is wholly another matter—the future must decide that. In the last 70 days December wheat has kept within a range of 5c per bushel. It sold as low as 65-70c in August, at 70c on Saturday last. That price was 1/2c higher than the like day in 1901—an immaterial difference—but assurances are given that 90c will look low long before the year ends. The bull points to the fact that store stocks are low; that with a big movement of the new crop so far stocks have increased sparingly; that exports are on a liberal scale; that the flour trade is enormous; that home consumption is heavy; that the quality of the new crop is inferior; that meats are very high, this largely increasing the consumption of wheat bread; that Europe's large crop is a poor one in quality; that the potato crop is a failure, and therefore her wheat consumption must be larger than usual.

San Francisco Markets.
 San Francisco, Oct. 23.—There is very little change to note in the wheat situation here from that of a week ago. There is very little call for wheat from Europe, though the demand from South Africa continues quite heavy. Exports continue good. Shippers have secured all the grain needed for the present and are not very active buyers. Prices for No. 1 shipping have advanced to $1.22 1/2 per cental during the week, milling wheat from $1.25 to $1.27 1/2; farmers are free sellers at these prices.

European Grain Markets.
 London, Oct. 23.—Wheat—Cargoes on passage quiet and steady; No. 1 standard California, 31s; Walla Walla, 29s 6d. English country markets quiet and steady.
 Liverpool, Oct. 23.—Wheat quiet. No. 1 standard California, 6s 5 1/2d. Wheat and flour in Paris steady. French country markets quiet and steady.

Wool Markets.
 Boston, Oct. 23.—The position of the wool market here is strong. Manufacturers representing big mills have taken large quantities of wool of late, among the purchasers being several of the large Philadelphia spinning and weaving concerns. Many dealers finding their stocks being gradually depleted, prefer to hold the wool now on hand, unless their prices are offered. As it is, prices are generally stronger.

St. Louis, Oct. 23.—Wool—Steady; territory and Western mediums, 16c @ 18c; fine, 12c @ 14c; coarse, 12c @ 15c.
Dairy Produce at Chicago.
 Chicago, Oct. 23.—On the Produce Exchange today the butter market was firm; creameries, 16 1/4 @ 24 1/4c, dairies, 15 @ 21c.

Prunes in New York.
 New York, Oct. 23.—Prunes continue in active jobbing demand and steady on the four sizes. Sizes 40-50 and 50-60 are more firmly held, supplies being light. Sales of 50-60 in large lots are reported at 5 1/2c in 25-pound boxes. Coast wires today offer 40-50 on 3 1/4 four-size basis only in a small way.

Minor League Magnates Confer.
 New York, Oct. 23.—Pusant to the call of President P. T. Powers to the presidents and managers of nearly all the minor league leagues of the United States and Canada gathered today at the Fifth Avenue hotel. The occasion was the second annual meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, which embraces in its membership nearly all of the minor leagues of consequence, with the exception of the American Association. Prior to going into session behind closed doors the officers and prominent members of the association volunteered the statement that the work done by the association during the past season was very successful and that steps will be taken to force all of the professional leagues into the association for their own protection and welfare.
